There's Nothing Else Like It

In 2005, Sports Illustrated on Campus said that Wisconsin has the best gameday atmosphere in the Big Ten Conference. That's quite a statement, but that may not go far enough. The fact is there may not be a better way to experience college football than spending a day at Wisconsin's fabled Camp Randall Stadium.

First of all, Wisconsin fans love a good time and they love to watch the Badgers win. There are plenty of both at Camp Randall. Badger backers arrive early – they are legendary tailgaters – and stay late, with thousands remaining inside the stadium to sing and dance as the UW Marching Band conducts its festive "5th Quarter" routine.

And there is nothing like the often-imitated-but-never-duplicated madness that is "Jump Around." Between the third and fourth quarters of every home game, thousands of Wisconsin fans, band members (and sometimes even players) jump to the 1990s hip-hop tune by House of Pain. The stadium rocks and rolls and shakes and bakes!

Badger fans are also loyal. Camp Randall Stadium has witnessed crowds of at least 70,000 in every game since the 1993 season-opener, a span of 14 years and 88 games. Seventy-eight of those games have been sellouts, including the last 25 in a row. The stadium record was set at the 2005 Iowa game when 83,184 fans packed the facility for former head coach Barry Alvarez's final game.

A Wisconsin football gameday experience is a tradition that has been handed down from generation to generation of Badger fans. From the cooking of brats to the marching of the band, from the singing of "Varsity" and the "Bud Song" to the chants of "Roooonnn Daaaynnne!," from the ghosts of Crazylegs and the Horse to more recent heroes like Alvarez, Panos and Evans, the Badger gameday experience is a happening that any fan of college football will relish.

"But the thing that really stands out about Wisconsin is how the team is just such an integral part of the community there. In a lot of ways, Camp Randall is what college football is all about."

– Ron Smith, author of Every Saturday in Autumn

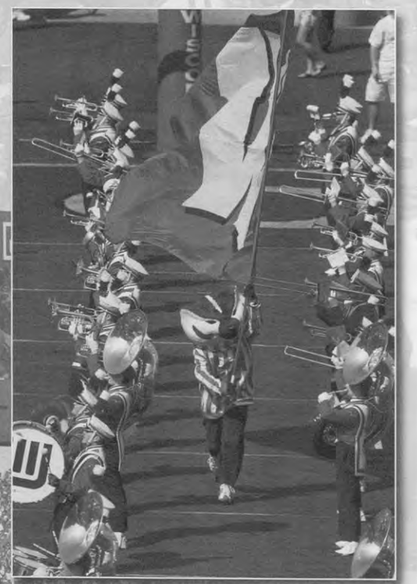
Since the expansion of Camp Randall Stadium prior to the 2004 season, UW has averaged 82,057 fans at its home games. The Badgers have ranked among the top 15 nationally in attendance in each of the past three seasons.



Since 1992, Wisconsin has compiled a 69-23-3 (.742) record at Camp Randall Stadium. Over the past three years, the Badgers are 18-1 in home games.

MOST WINS DURING PAST THREE SEASONS

Wisconsin is one of just 10 schools in the nation to have won at least 30 games over the past three seasons. The winningest teams in Division I-A football since the start of the 2004 season are:

Southern California	36-3
Texas	34-4
Auburn	33-5
Boise State	33-5
Louisville	32-5
WISCONSIN	31-7
LSU	31-7
Oklahoma	31-8
Virginia Tech	31-8
Ohio State	30-7

Over the past three seasons, Wisconsin is 18-1 in games at Camp Randall Stadium. The Badgers have outscored their opponents 595-232 in those games for an average margin of victory of 19.1 points.

"Every fan needs to experience the Fifth Quarter: 30,000 fans singing and dancing along with the Badger Band for an hour after each game."

– Joe Donatelli, Football Digest

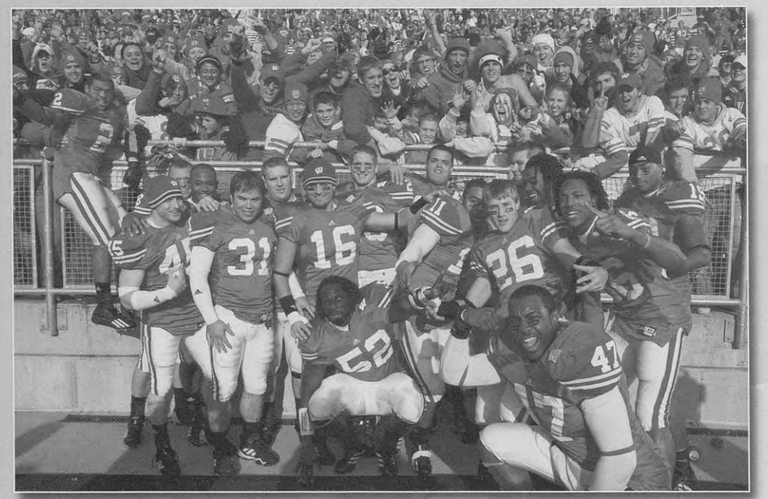
Gameday at Wisconsin!

You'll want to be there!



"One of the many game-day highlights in Madison—not including the creative student section, the Bud Song or the band's Fifth Quarter celebration—is "Jump Around." Between the third and fourth quarters, Camp Randall literally shakes as House of Pain's "Jump Around" is blared from the sound system and thousands of fans do as the song commands."

– David Albright, ESPN.com

Bowling with the Badgers

UW consistently plays in—AND WINS—major bowl games!

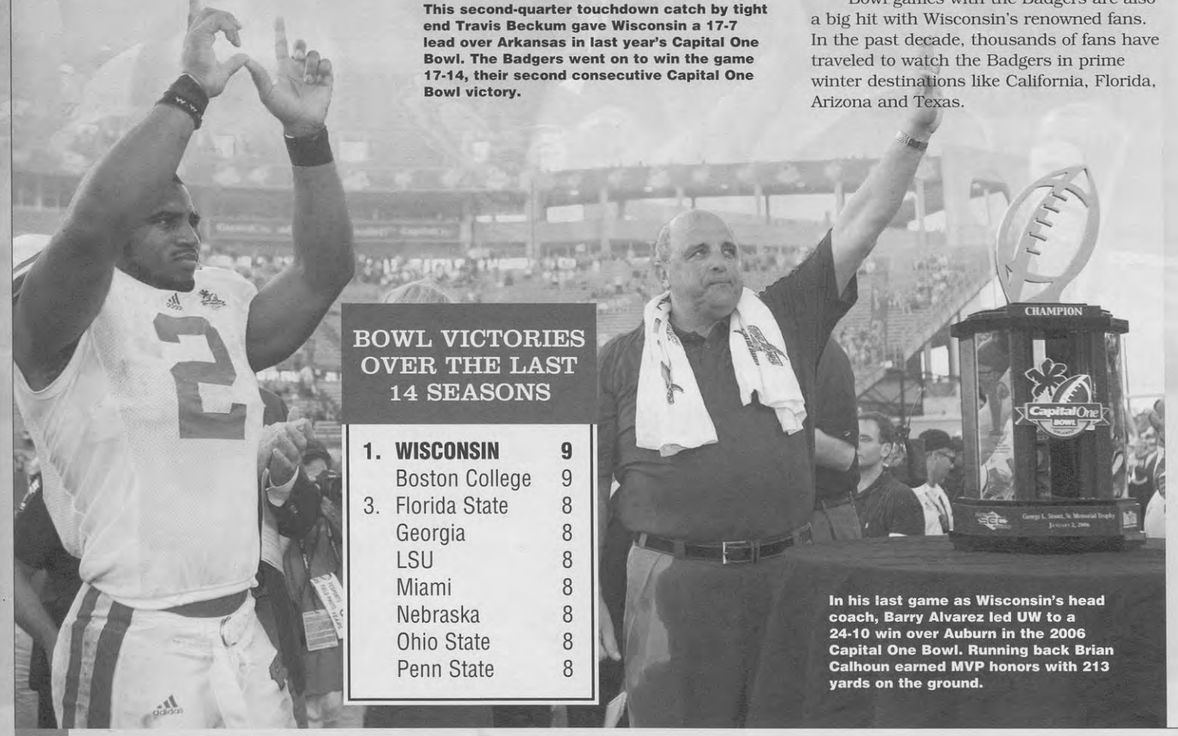
This second-quarter touchdown catch by tight end Travis Beckum gave Wisconsin a 17-7 lead over Arkansas in last year's Capital One Bowl. The Badgers went on to win the game 17-14, their second consecutive Capital One Bowl victory.

Over the last 14 seasons, no team in the country has won more bowl games than Wisconsin. The Badgers' nine bowl victories over that span ties them with Boston College for the most in the nation. UW has participated in 12 bowl games over the past 14 seasons, a mark matched by only Ohio State and Michigan among Big Ten teams. During that time, the Badgers have made eight appearances in January bowl games, including three Rose Bowl wins.

Last season, Wisconsin played in its third consecutive January bowl game, defeating 12th-ranked Arkansas, 17-14, to capture its second straight Capital One Bowl. The win gave UW its school-record 12th victory of the season.

The Badgers had won just one bowl game prior to 1994. Since then, UW is 9-3 in postseason play, including 6-2 in January bowl games. Wisconsin has defeated teams from the Pac 10 (four times), SEC (twice), Big 12 (once), ACC (once) and WAC (once) during the last 14 seasons.

Bowl games with the Badgers are also a big hit with Wisconsin's renowned fans. In the past decade, thousands of fans have traveled to watch the Badgers in prime winter destinations like California, Florida, Arizona and Texas.



In his last game as Wisconsin's head coach, Barry Alvarez led UW to a 24-10 win over Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl. Running back Brian Calhoun earned MVP honors with 213 yards on the ground.

Award Winners

Badgers recognized among the nation's best!

Every great program is built on the shoulders of outstanding players. It is no different at Wisconsin. With the remarkable success of the football team in recent years has come national recognition for a number of Badger players.

In 2006, many UW individuals were recognized for their contributions to the school-record 12 wins. Chief among those players was offensive tackle Joe Thomas. Thomas was a consensus first-team All-American and became the first UW player to win the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's top lineman.

Two returnees, junior tight end Travis Beckum and sophomore running back P.J. Hill also garnered national recognition last year. Hill was named national Freshman of the Year by Rivals.com and also earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors. Beckum, in his first season as a tight end, was a second team All-American and John Mackey Award semi-finalist.

In his first year at the helm, UW head coach Bret Bielema was named Big Ten Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Bear Bryant national Coach of the Year Award.

The most decorated former Badger is running back Ron Dayne. The NCAA's all-time leading rusher, Dayne won the 1999 Heisman Trophy in a landslide, outdistancing runner-up Joe Hamilton of Georgia Tech by more than 1,000 points. As a senior, Dayne also won the Maxwell, Walter Camp and Doak Walker Awards.

Dayne was the second Heisman Trophy winner from UW as Alan Ameche took home the award in 1954.

In recent years, Badger players have been fixtures on national award lists. UW players have been finalists for the Rimington Trophy (best center), Outland Trophy (interior lineman), Lombardi Award (lineman), Chuck Bednarik Award (defensive player), Bronko Nagurski Trophy (defensive player), Ted Hendricks Award (defensive end), Fred Biletnikoff Award (receiver), Lou Groza Award (placekicker), Mosi Tatupu Award (special teams) and Ronnie Lott Trophy (defensive player).

In addition, Badger players walked away with two major awards in 2000. Cornerback Jamar Fletcher earned the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's best defensive back while Kevin Stemke won the inaugural Ray Guy Award, given to the nation's best collegiate punter.

This year a number of UW players are in contention for major awards. Beckum and Hill are both on the Maxwell Award Watch List. Linebacker Jonathan Casillas was named to the Chuck Bednarik Watch List while center Marcus Coleman is on the Rimington Award Watch List.

Joe Thomas, along with UW head coach Bret Bielema, accepts the 2006 Outland Trophy at the Home Depot College Football Awards Show in Orlando.

Ron Dayne, college football's all-time leading rusher, won the 2000 Heisman Trophy by more than 1,000 points.

Lee Evans was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award in 2001, the same year he set the Big Ten single-season receiving record.

Jim Leonhard, a three-time first-team All-American, is UW's career leader in interceptions and punt return yardage. He was a finalist for the Ronnie Lott Trophy in 2004.

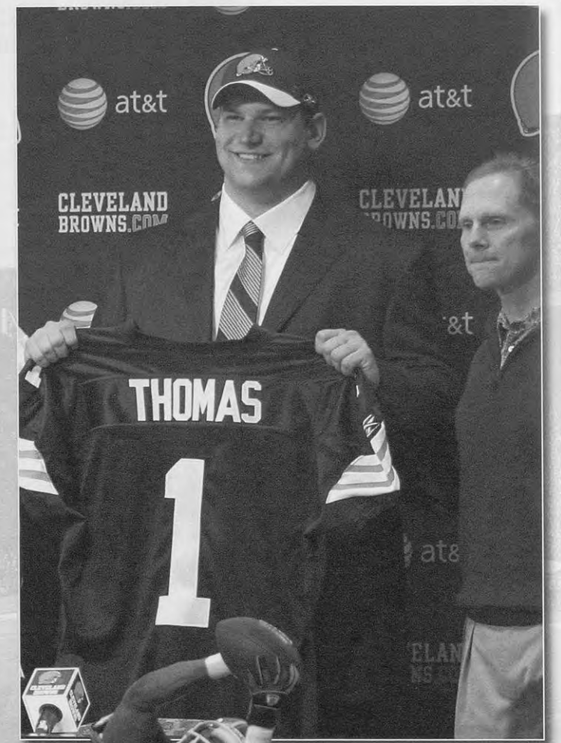
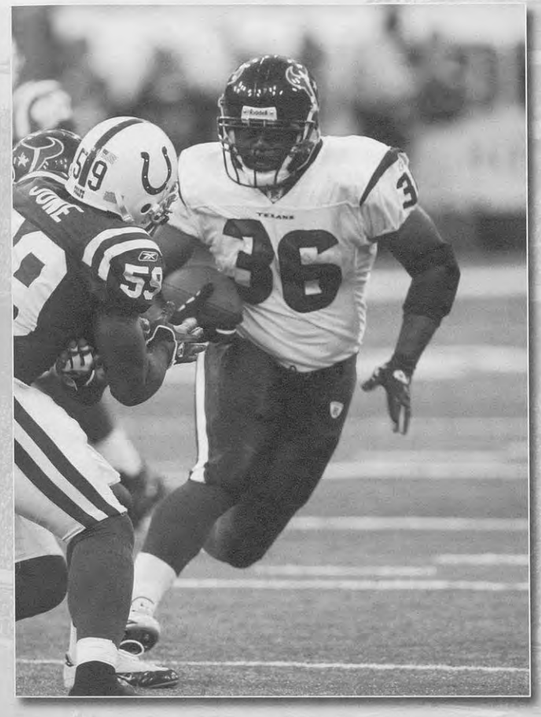
Casey Rabach has started all 32 games at center in his two seasons with the Washington Redskins.

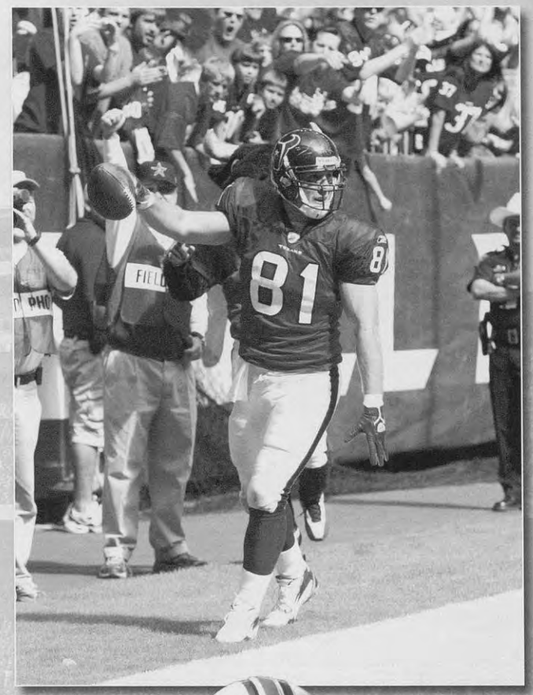


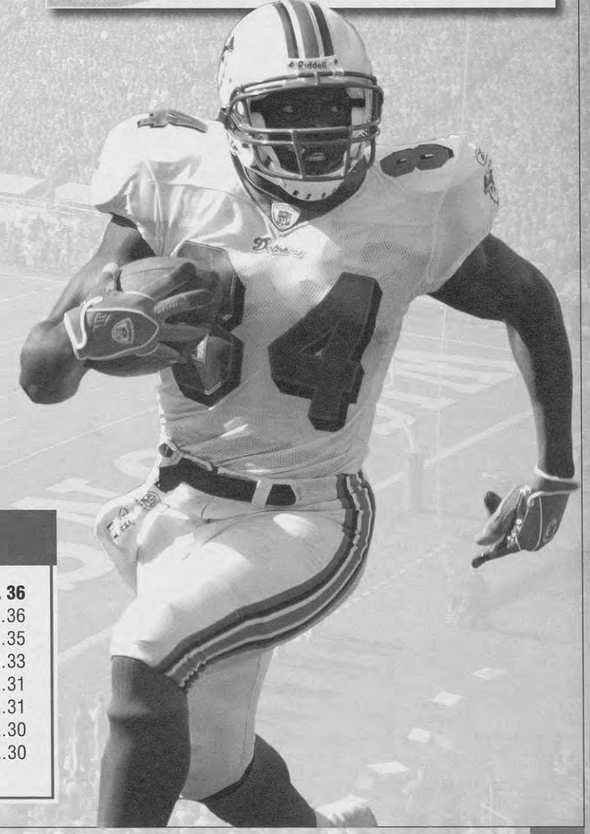
Joe Thomas (above) was selected third overall by the Cleveland Browns in the 2007 NFL Draft. That was the highest for a former Badger since 1955 when Alan Ameche was chosen second by the Baltimore Colts.

Lee Evans (left), the 13th pick overall in the 2004 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills, had a career-high 1,292 receiving yards last season. Against Houston on Nov. 19, 2006, he recorded a pair of 83-yard touchdown catches in the first quarter on his way to a franchise-record 265 receiving yards.

Since 1999, nine Badgers have been selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. That is the second-most in the Big Ten behind Ohio State.







Owen Daniels (top right) was named to the 2006 NFL All-Rookie Team after catching 34 passes for 352 yards and five touchdowns in his first season with the Houston Texans.

Ron Dayne (above) was the Houston Texans' leading rusher last season and averaged 107.3 yards per game in December. That included a 153-yard outing in the Texans' 27-24 win over eventual Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis.

Chris Chambers (right) has accumulated more than 5,000 career receving yards in his six seasons as a Dolphin and played in the 2006 Pro Bowl.

Prime Time Players

Wisconsin is a fixture on the national television scene

Over the past nine seasons, 105 of Wisconsin's 114 football games have been televised. That's an average of just one non-televised game per season. Of those 105 broadcast games, 84 have been televised nationally by either ABC, CBS, ESPN, ESPN2, FOX, or FOX Sports Net.

In the last five years, the numbers are staggering: 65 total games, 62 televised games, 52 national television appearances. That means 80.0 percent of the Badgers' games in the last four seasons have appeared on either ESPN (25), ESPN2 (15), ABC (11), or FOX Sports Net (1).

In those five seasons, UW has racked up some impressive numbers on television. The Badgers are 16-9 on ESPN, 12-3 on ESPN2 and 6-5 on ABC.

When Big Ten fans aren't packing stadiums, they're watching the most comprehensive college football package on television. A partnership with ABC, ESPN and ESPN2 will allow the Big Ten to televise a record number of games again this fall.

Coming in August the conference will launch The Big Ten Network, a new national cable/satellite programming service dedicated to covering both the athletic and academic content of the Big Ten Conference. Between the Conference's contracts with ABC, ESPN and the Big Ten Network, every game played in the home stadium of a Big Ten team will be produced this season.

THE BIG TEN NETWORK

Launching in August 2007, the Big Ten Network is a new national cable/satellite programming service dedicated to covering both the athletic and academic content of the Big Ten Conference. Showcasing a wide array of sports as well as original programming produced by the conference's 11 institutions, the Big Ten Network will operate 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. The Big Ten Network will be made available to all cable and satellite carriers and distributors nationwide. Most events and programs will be produced in High-Definition television (HDTV).

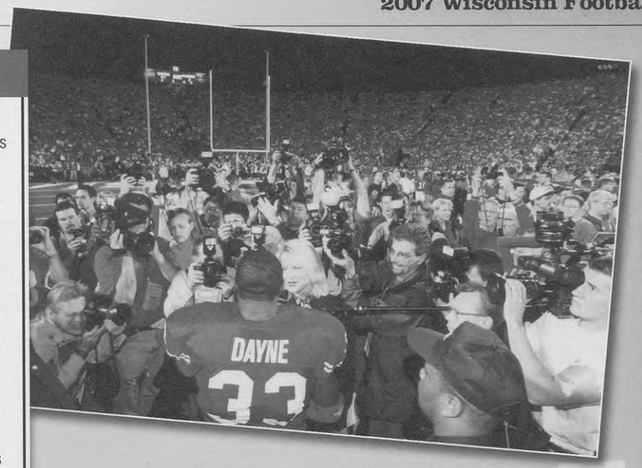
Big Ten Network Programming
* Greater exposure to Big Ten sports
* Big Ten championships events
* 660 hours per year of campus programming
* Coverage from the conference's vast library of historic sporting events, including bowl games

Football
* 35+ football games per season
* Each school will have at least two games aired (at least one of which will be a conference game)

Men's basketball
* 105+ regular-season games
* Three Big Ten Tournament games

Women's basketball
* 55+ regular-season games
* Nine Big Ten Tournament games

170+ Olympic sporting events



Over the last five years, 80 percent of UW football games have been televised nationally.

ESPN's College Gameday (left and top of opposite page) has visited Camp Randall Stadium twice in the last three years.

UW in the Community

Badgers Giving Back

The Wisconsin Department of Athletics has a number of teams that regularly contribute to the city via outreach programs. The Madison community is truly supportive of the UW–Madison athletic teams and their student-athletes.

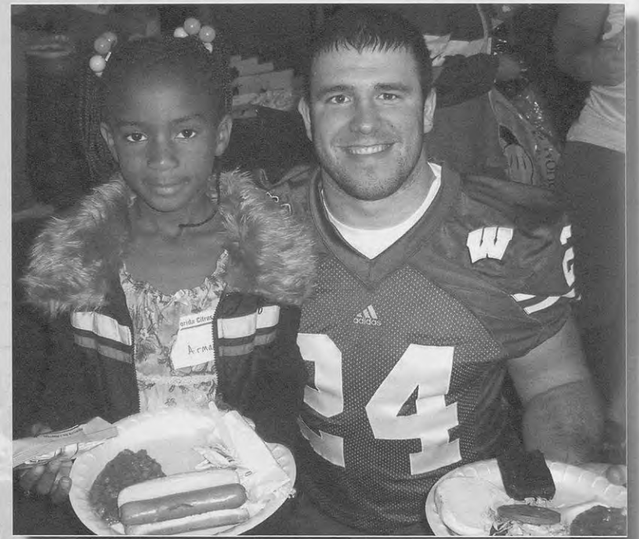
In appreciation for that support, many student-athletes volunteer frequently in community service projects. Every season, the football team works together on a number of community service projects to give back to Madison.

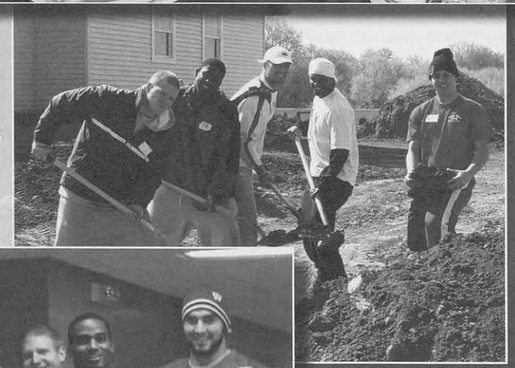
Two of the biggest events for children and adults alike are the annual Family Fun Days held twice a year, in August before the season starts and prior to the Spring Game. Fans are invited to mingle with the Badger players and get pictures and autographs.

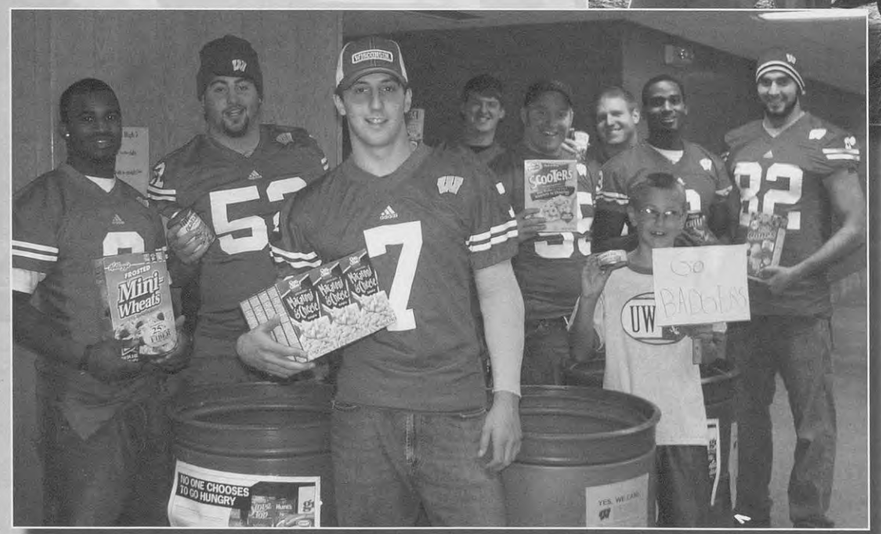
In addition, players often visit elementary schools and children's hospitals. Pictured on the next page are visits that seniors Ken DeBauche and Chris Pressley made to a local Madison elementary school to read Dr. Seuss books to the children.

In 2005, seniors Jonathan Orr and Joel Nellis helped organize the "Yes, We Can" campaign. The UW football team, the Madison School District's Elementary Schools and the Community Action Coalition of South Central Wisconsin teamed up to assist the hungry in the Madison community. Food drives have also been held in conjuction with home games and the annual Spring Game.

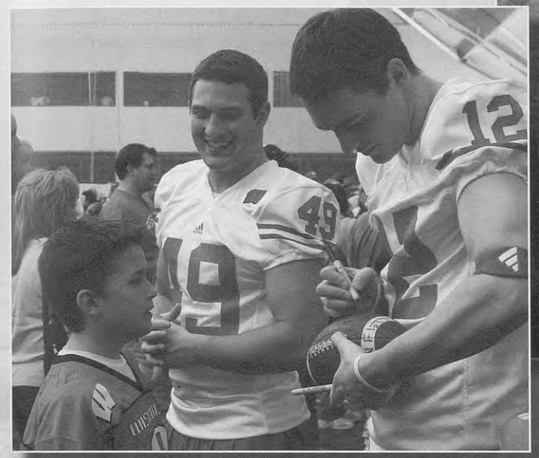
In 2005, the "Yes, We Can" campaign helped collect more than 3,200 pounds of food, enough for approximately 2,500 meals.

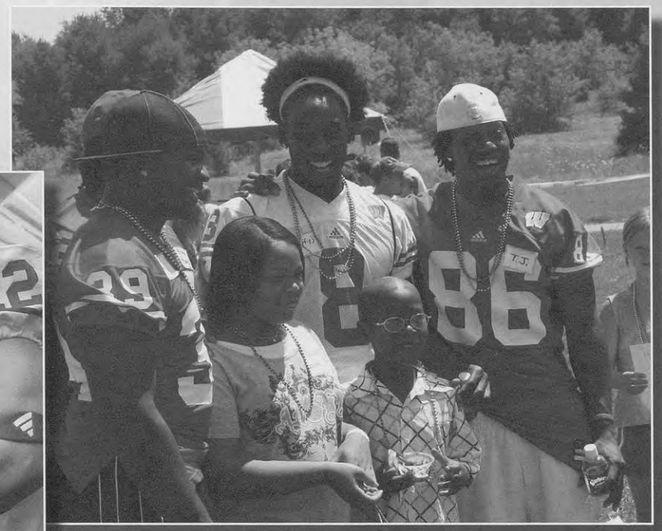




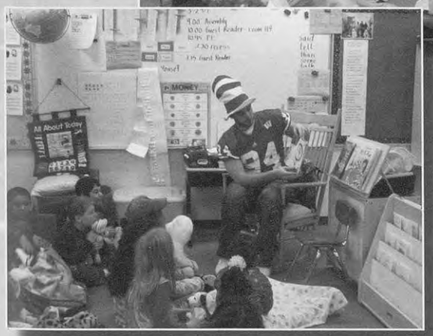


UW hosted its annual "Kid's Fair" indoors on the turf at the McClain Center prior to the football team's Spring Game (picture below). The "Kid's Fair" includes interactive games, displays, autographs, photos with Bucky, and a number of athletic skills stations. Many Badger sports are represented at the fair and kids have an opportunity to meet current Badger student-athletes and coaches.





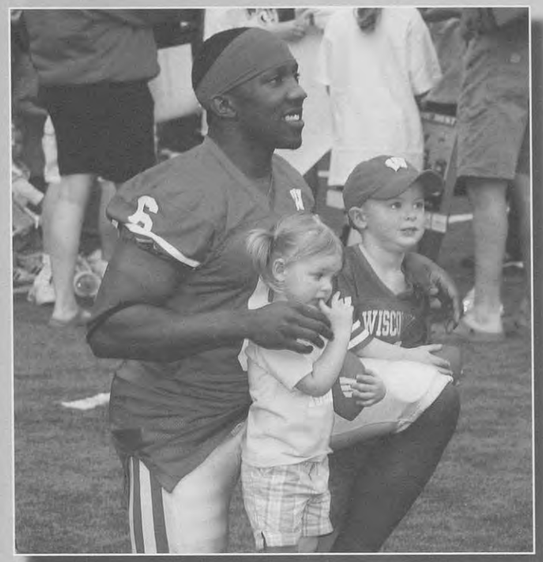
Badger football fans helped raise $59,478.54 for American Red Cross hurricane relief efforts during the Bowling Green game on Sept. 3, 2005.



In recent years, the football team has participated in a Habitat for Humanity project. In the spring of 2005, about 90 players and staff split up and performed tasks ranging from landscaping to house building on several sites in a relatively new neighborhood called Twin Oaks, located close to Stoughton Road just south of Madison.

Reaching Out

The Badgers also take time out on the road



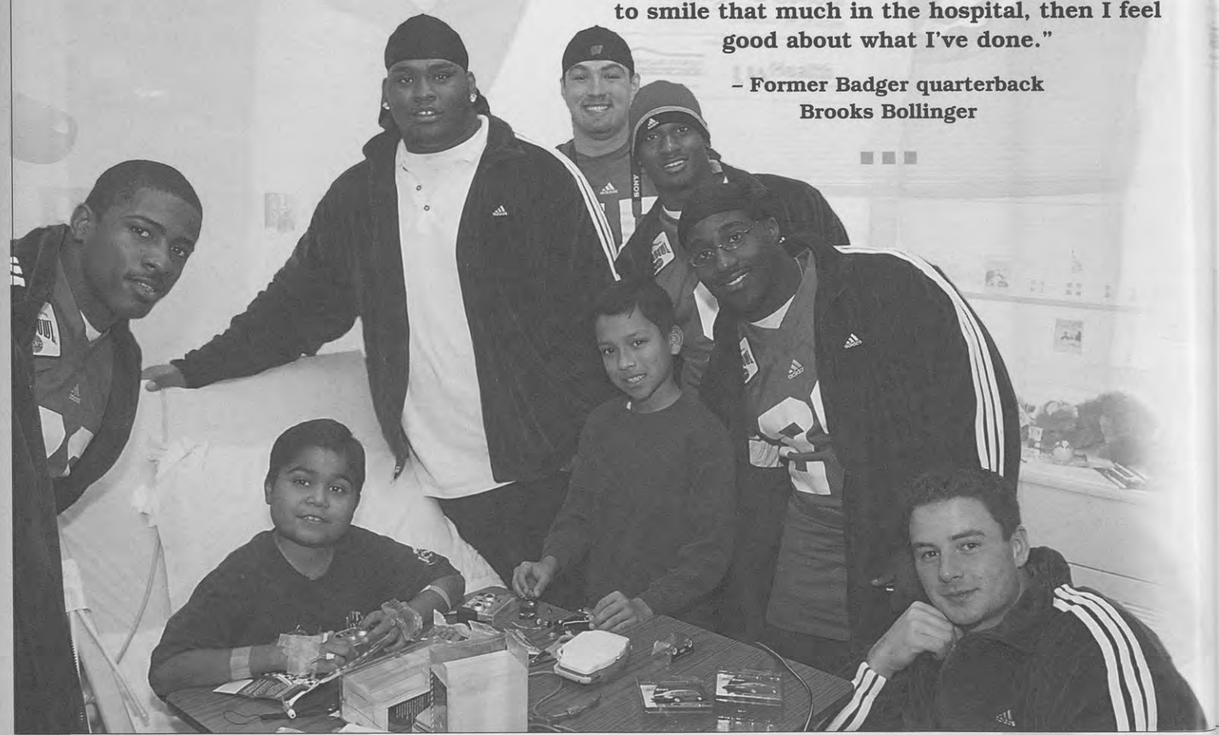
The Badgers don't just get involved in community service projects while in Madison; they also take time out while on the road, usually during bowl trips. Some of the events UW has participated in are kids' festivals, visits to local children's hospitals, as well as local elementary schools.

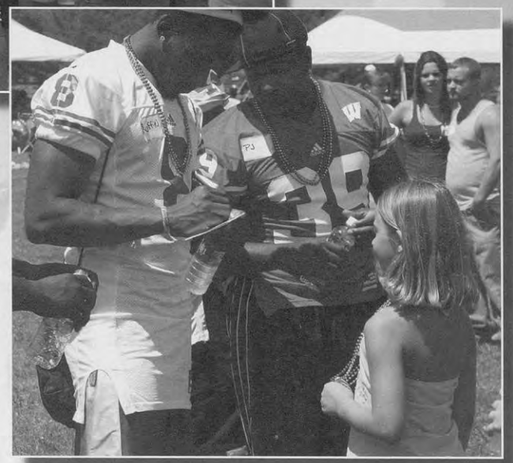
Badger fans got into the charitable act in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. They helped raise $59,478.54 for American Red Cross hurricane relief efforts during the Bowling Green game on Sept 3, 2005. A group of 40 Fan Ambassadors, along with another 25 student-athletes and staff members, collected approximately $24,478.54 in donations from fans outside Camp Randall Stadium. The UW Athletic Department/National W Club also contributed $35,000 as a portion of concession stand sales.

Along with the money raised at the 2005 season-opener, the Badgers invited approximately 20 families to a football practice and to dine with the team. The families were originally from Louisiana and had moved to the Madison area because of the hurricane. They were also presented with UW apparel as a welcoming gesture.

"It's an unbelievable feeling when you walk into their rooms and their faces light up. If I can do a little something to brighten their day, especially when they don't get a chance to smile that much in the hospital, then I feel good about what I've done."

– Former Badger quarterback Brooks Bollinger





GOOD WORKS

Former UW fullback Cecil Martin (left) was named to the American Football Coaches Association "Good Works" team for his community service in 1997 and 1998. He was cited for establishing an offseason program for players to visit the UW Children's Hospital. Martin also served as a mentor at the Southside Community Center, where he tutored and played with children.

Former UW quarterback Brooks Bollinger was also honored by the AFCA. Bollinger was named to the "Good Works" team in 2001. Many of Bollinger's charitable acts also involved children, through hospital and school visits.

Badgers on the Road

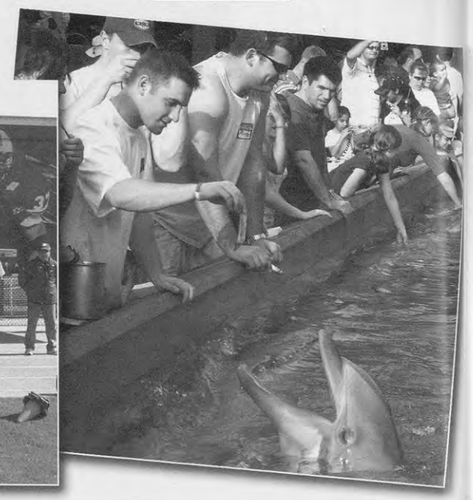
UW travels the country to fill out its schedule

The Wisconsin football team travels to a number of great locales and historic stadiums to play its games. In addition to all the wonderful college towns and famous stadiums around the Big Ten, the Badgers' non-conference schedule is filled with tremendous road trips to all regions of the country.

Within the past few seasons, UW has made trips to Hawaii, Las Vegas, Arizona, North Carolina, Oregon and West Virginia for road games. Coming up on the Badgers' schedule in the next few seasons are road trips back to Hawaii (2009) and UNLV (2007 and 2011), as well as games at Fresno State (2008), at San Diego State (2010), at Arizona State (2012), at Oregon State (2013) and at Washington State (2014).

In addition to scheduled non-conference games, Wisconsin has made a number of great trips to bowl destinations recently. Just last season, UW spent a week in Orlando, Fla., at the Capital One Bowl. That was the Badgers' second consecutive winter trip to Orlando and third straight in Florida after playing in the Outback Bowl in Tampa on Jan. 1, 2005.

In 2003, UW spent late December in Nashville, Tenn., at the Music City Bowl. The year before, Wisconsin and its fans invaded San Antonio, Texas, for the Alamo Bowl. Among the other bowl destinations the Badgers have visited recently are El Paso, Texas, (2000 Sun Bowl) and Pasadena, Calif. (1999 and 2000 Rose Bowl).



Outfitting the Badgers

The Wisconsin Athletic Department has an agreement with adidas to be the official outfitter of the Badgers. According to the terms of that contract, adidas supplies all uniforms, pads, shoes, travel gear and athletic wear for each UW team. On the following pages is a look at some of the gear that is available to the football team.

Camp Randall Stadium

One of college football's finest facilities – Camp Randall Stadium – completed a four-year, $109 million renovation prior to the 2005 football season. The improvements are plentiful: new FieldTurf, new suites and club seats, new video scoreboards, new offices, increased seating capacity and better fan amenities like concession areas, restrooms and traffic flow.

The enhancements have not detracted from Camp Randall's charm but rather the stadium's character has been enhanced greatly by the improvements, ensuring that future generations of Badger fans will have a first-rate facility at which to watch the Badgers play on Saturdays.

Camp Randall was originally used as a Civil War training site. In fact, some 70,000 soldiers trained at the camp, which also included a hospital and a prison for Confederate soldiers on its grounds. Named for Alexander Randall, the state of Wisconsin's first wartime governor, Camp Randall Stadium opened in 1917 and was officially dedicated when the Badgers defeated Minnesota, 10-7, on Nov. 3.

The exterior walls of the stadium include football murals and tributes to some of the great Badgers of the past (below).

UW Football Offices

The Wisconsin football offices are located on the eighth floor of Camp Randall and offer an excellent view of the inside of the stadium. The football offices were completed in the summer of 2004 during the recent renovation of Camp Randall. Beyond the stunning view of the playing field, the football offices also house Wisconsin's three most recent Big Ten championship trophies commemorating league titles in 1993, 1998 and 1999 in the center of the lobby. Display cases recognize the Badgers' bowl game victories with the three Rose Bowl trophies from 1994, 1999 and 2000 in the center; UW's two Heisman Trophies; other major awards; and some of Wisconsin's greatest former players such as Ron Dayne, Paul Gruber and Pat Richter.

The football offices are the base of operations for the coaches and offer several meeting rooms to break down film and construct game plans. The coaches are surrounded by the rich history and tradition of the program as they work to bring in the next Big Ten title and mold the next Badger legend.

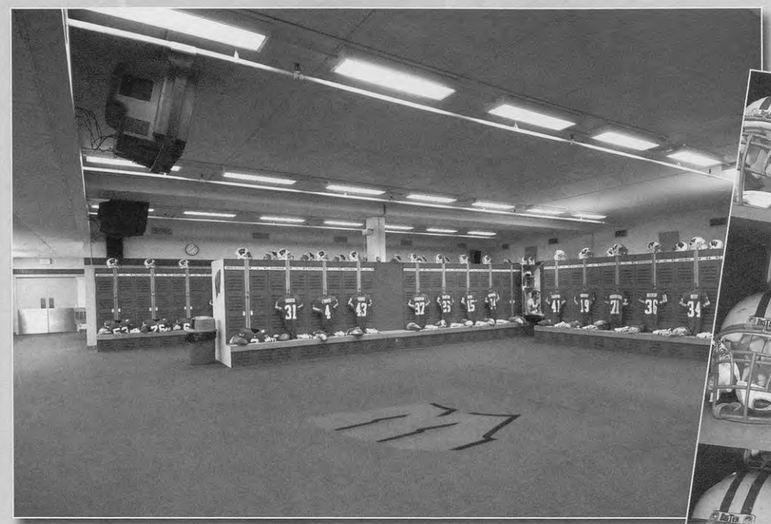
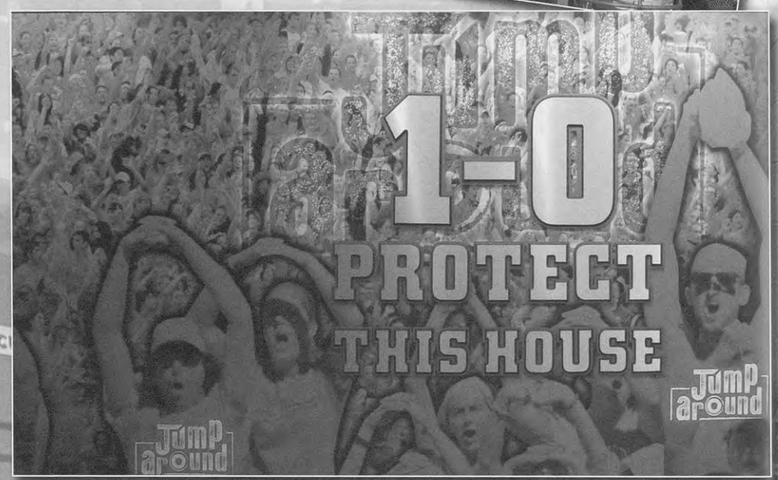
Football Locker Room

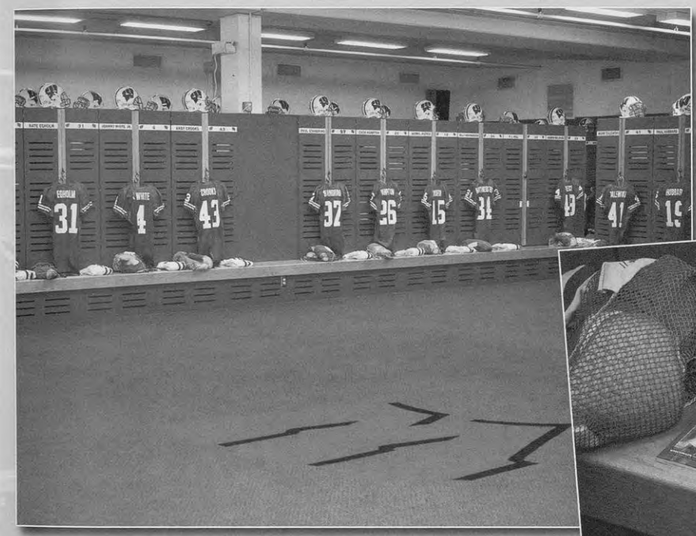


The Wisconsin football locker room is another home away from home for the Badgers. Conveniently located inside the McClain Athletic Facility, the football locker room is seconds away from a training room, weight room, the student-athlete dining hall and the Fetzer Academic Center. It also houses the football equipment room.

The Badger locker room also serves those student-athletes looking to relax with a lounge area. The space includes leather couches and televisions for those who want to hang out before or after class and practices.

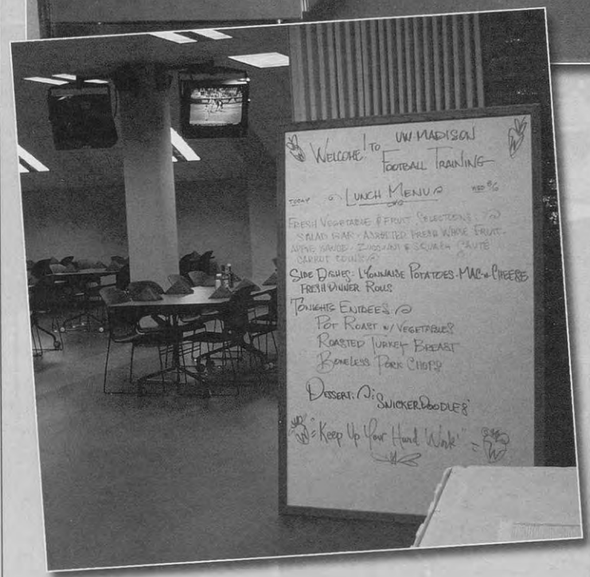
The football locker room serves as a source of inspiration for players as well. The complex is decorated with reminders of the program's rich tradition such as signs from each bowl appearance and pictures of Badger greats. It also houses the Paul Bunyan Axe after it has been won in the Wisconsin-Minnesota game.





RIGHT: The Paul Bunyan Axe is displayed in a specially built case in the locker room. The Axe is awarded each year to the winner of the Wisconsin-Minnesota game.

Feeding the Badgers

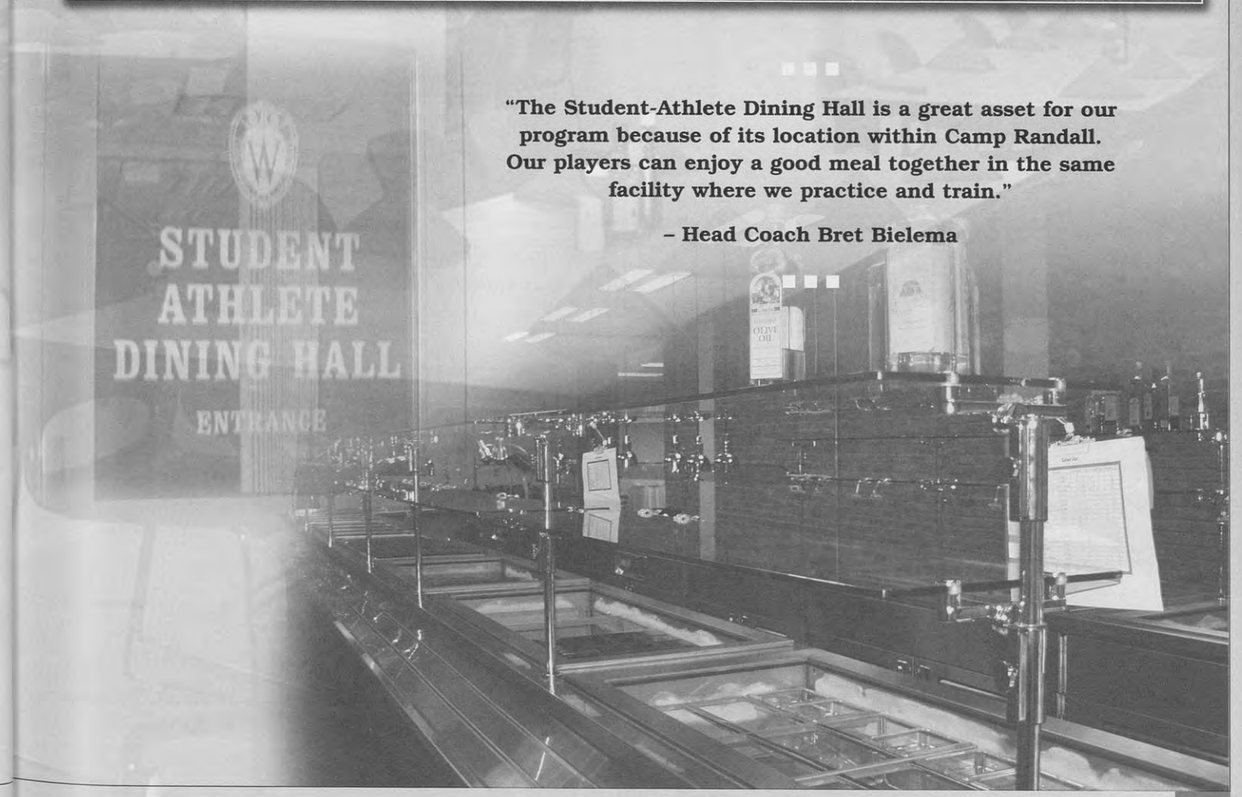


The Student-Athlete Dining Hall is another one of the fine facilities used by members of the Wisconsin football team. The dining hall was built under the stands on the east side of Camp Randall during the recent renovation project. It is located near the McClain Athletic Facility, meaning that it is just a short distance from the locker room, the practice field, the weight room and the Fetzer Academic Center.

The dining hall offers a chance to build friendships with student-athletes from other sports because it is a natural gathering place. Players from most of Wisconsin's 23 different teams utilize the dining hall, creating a unique environment for all student-athletes.

Quality food and service is provided by the Department of Athletics' food and beverage staff.

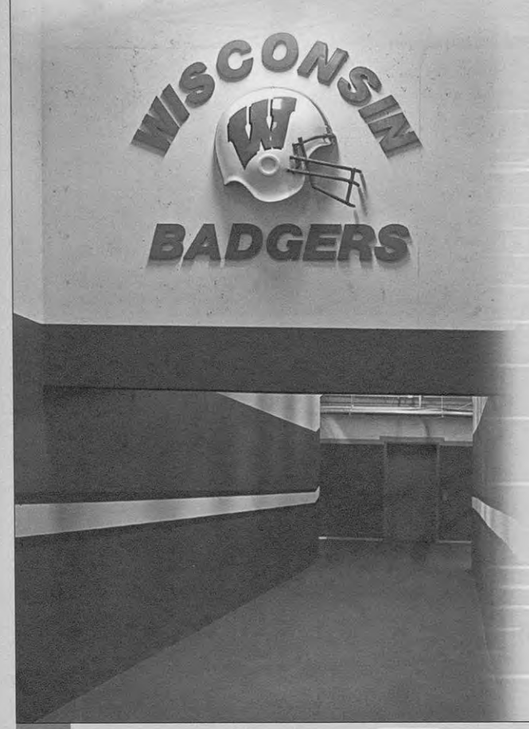
Located in Camp Randall Stadium, the Student-Athlete Dining Hall is a great place to meet other student-athletes while enjoying a good meal.



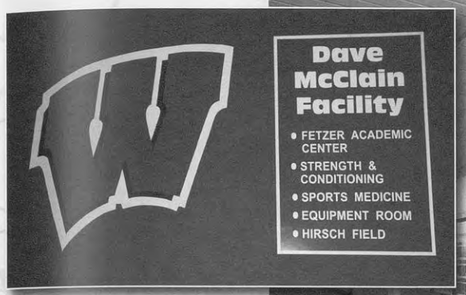
"The Student-Athlete Dining Hall is a great asset for our program because of its location within Camp Randall. Our players can enjoy a good meal together in the same facility where we practice and train."

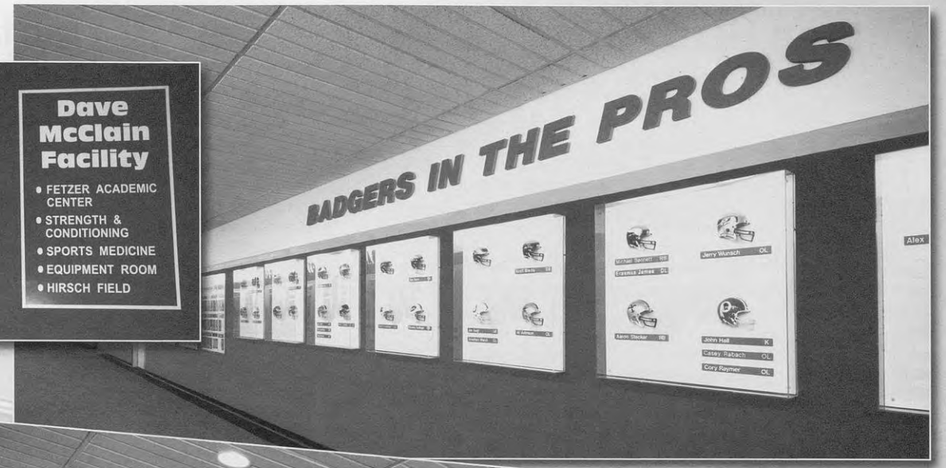
– Head Coach Bret Bielema

McClain Center

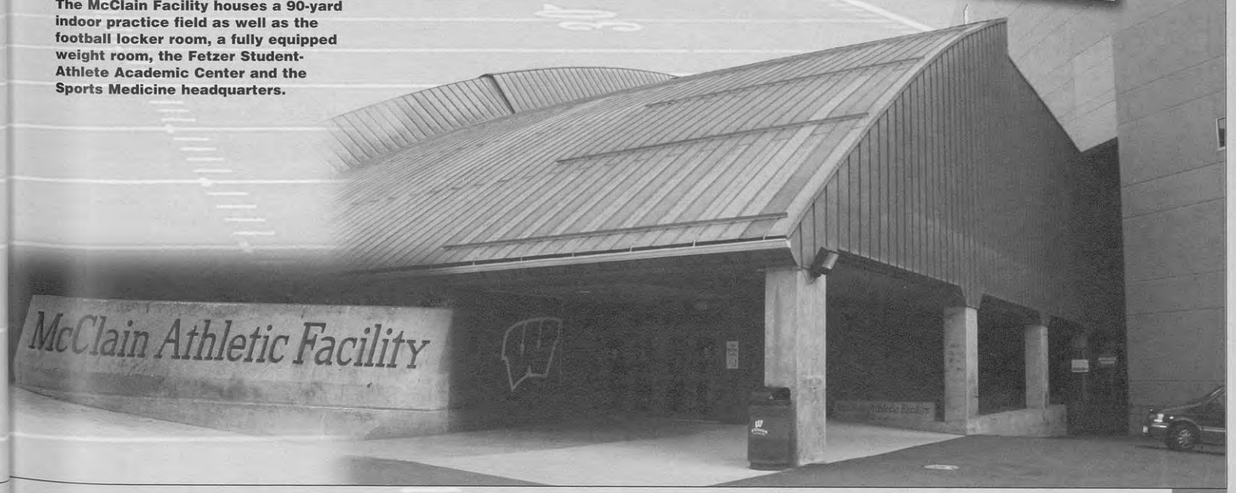


The Dave McClain Athletic Facility is the heart of the Wisconsin football program. Located adjacent to the northeast side of Camp Randall Stadium, the McClain Facility features a 90-yard indoor practice field with artificial turf and a ceiling high enough for kicking. The lower level of the complex houses the football locker room, a fully equipped weight room, the Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center and the Sports Medicine headquarters. The second level includes a 150-seat theater-style auditorium, classrooms for individual position meetings and a players' lounge. The 166,264-square-foot facility was completed in 1988 and is named in honor of former UW football coach Dave McClain.





The McClain Facility houses a 90-yard indoor practice field as well as the football locker room, a fully equipped weight room, the Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center and the Sports Medicine headquarters.



Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center, named after Wade and Betty Fetzer, provides for the academic needs of more than 700 student-athletes at the University of Wisconsin. The center is home to both the academic advising and learning support staffs of the Office of Academic Services.

The 15,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art facility is fully wireless and features a large open study area that is surrounded by nine small to mid-sized classrooms, a 55-seat auditorium, staff offices, a computer lab and a canteen area. The open study area has 30 individual carrels as well as several study tables. The state-of-the-art computer lab, under coordinator Jim Eisenmann, allows student-athletes to work on assignments, access online library or course materials and check their e-mail. The computer lab also has several checkout laptop computers for student-athletes who are traveling for competitions and other team-related activities.

The center features a staff of five advisors, four learning specialists, a life skills coordinator and a tutor coordinator. The staff monitors academic eligibility and progress while providing study groups for selected courses, access to tutors, and hosting a variety of academic and career planning events throughout the year.

A new Fetzer Center location, in the Kohl Center, opened in October, 2006. Located on the same level as the men's and women's basketball and men's hockey locker rooms, the 3,000-square-foot office serves as a convenient resource for student-athletes who practice at the Kohl Center and/or live in the southeast campus area. The Center includes a computer lab, quiet study room, private study rooms and staff offices. The Fetzer is a WiFi area and is open daily from 8 a.m.-10 p.m.

Under the supervision of assistant athletic director Doug Tiedt, the advising staff of Chris Butler, Jerry Darda, Mary Weaver-Klees and Alan Zussman as well as tutor coordinator Jill Hadfield work along with learning specialists Dan Ott, Toni O'Keefe and Nancy Gatyas to render quality academic and personal support to student-athletes and assist coaches in providing the best possible collegiate experience. CHAMPS/ Life Skills Coordinator Kelli Richards oversees programs in career and personal development as well as community outreach.

The staff, including program assistant Nancy Kreklow, has a comprehensive understanding of academics at Wisconsin, and a permanent line of communication with all university departments.

Student-athletes can drop in before practice or between classes to study or meet with the advisors and learning specialists. Sessions are offered on a one-to-one basis at a time appropriate for the student-athlete. Athletes are degree-oriented while allowing for the flexibility to explore different areas. The staff takes a personal approach to each student-athlete in determining his or her individual needs, personal or academic.

Student-athletes at Wisconsin receive recognition for outstanding academics in a number of ways on the national, conference and university level. The annual Student-Athlete Academic banquet recognizes student-athletes off the field of play by honoring over 200 athletes with a 3.5 or better grade point average. Additionally, the annual CHAMPS Cup competition recognizes the teams that succeed academically and are involved in community and campus events.

UW CHAMPS: A Program of Excellence

CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success) is a total development program that uses athletics as a preparation for success in life. Under the direction of Kelli Richards, the goal of the CHAMPS program is to support student development initiatives that enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience within the university setting.

The UW's CHAMPS program was selected as one of four 2005 Program of Excellence recipients. The award is presented annually to schools that have displayed a highly effective and pervasive program benefiting their student-athletes in the five components of the program.

CHAMPS provides support and opportunities for UW student-athletes in the following areas:

Athletic Excellence

• The student-athlete advisory committee (SAAC) works with the CHAMPS program to make sure all of the student-athletes' needs and concerns are being addressed.

Academic Excellence

• Through the Fetzer Academic Center, advisors, tutors, mentors and learning specialists are available to all student-athletes.

• A one-credit, 10-week course available to freshman and sophomore student-athletes discusses issues of transitioning to college such as career interests, diversity on campus, as well as identity development.

• Scholarships and internships are available through the NCAA for student-athletes continuing their education.

• The Academic Excellence Banquet is held each April to recognize the many academic achievements of our student-athletes.

Personal Development

• The UW CHAMPS program requires all student-athletes to attend three personal development activities each year.

• Workshops are offered for teams and larger groups on topics such as safe sex, fiscal responsibility, alcohol, peak performance, multiculturalism and many others.

• Opportunities for team and individual leadership development are also available through both the UW and the NCAA.

Career Development

• Workshops on various career topics are offered to student-athletes throughout the year. Topics include writing resumes and cover letters, interviewing tips, networking strategies, dining etiquette and job search strategies.

• Career assessment and career counseling is available for individuals as they work to declare a major and gain experience within their career field.

• UW Athletics partners with the National W Club and the Wisconsin Alumni Association as well as local corporations to assist student-athletes in finding jobs and internships as well as assisting in networking and career opportunities.

• UW Athletics hosts Career Night every January. This event is a networking dinner and career fair for all junior and senior student-athletes.

• Corporations also host information sessions and screening interviews within the Fetzer Center for student-athletes.

Community Service

• The CHAMPS coordinator organizes individual and team community service projects throughout the year.

• Opportunities are available through one-time events as well as on-going volunteer opportunities in the Madison area.

• UW has structured outreach programs, such as Bookin' it with Bucky. Through this program, athletes are scheduled to read in fourth grade Madison classrooms to encourage literacy and continued learning.

2006–07 CHAMPS CUP

The CHAMPS Cup is an all-sport competition, rewarding teams who exemplify all aspects of the student-athlete.

Student-athletes earn points for their teams in six categories: academic achievement, athletic achievement, personal enhancement, community outreach, Badger pride and SAAC participation. One men's and one women's team is recognized as the overall winners. The men's and women's teams with the highest GPA as well as the team with the most community service points are also recognized.

SAAC
Student Athlete Advisory Committee

The mission of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) is to provide a link of communication between UW–Madison student athletes and athletic department administration and to provide a support system for student-athletes to discuss various issues specific to the rigors of student-athlete life. We also strive to enhance the total student athlete experience by promoting opportunity, protecting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student athlete image. SAAC is made up of two representatives from each team. They meet monthly to discuss NCAA issues as well as plan student-athlete socials and community outreach events.

Strength & Conditioning

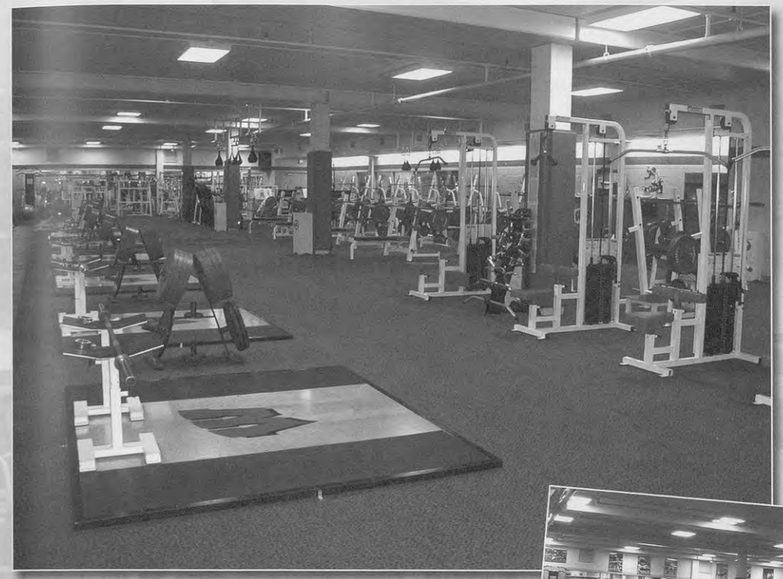
The Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is a key component in all of the Badger success on the playing field. The goal of the program is to increase the overall performance of each student-athlete, prevent injuries and help athletes reach their potential.

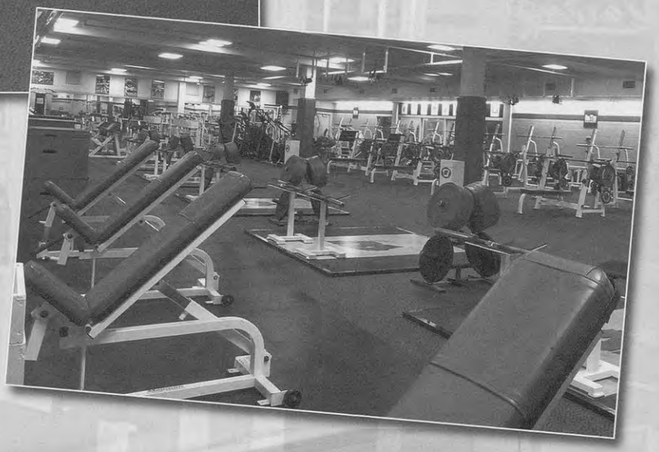
Strength and conditioning coordinator John Dettmann and his six assistant coaches work with members of the Wisconsin coaching staff to develop training programs to enhance each athlete's performance.

Badger football players work on their strength programs in the McClain Center. The Kohl Center, home to Wisconsin basketball and hockey teams, also houses a 4500-square foot state-of-the-art weight-room with eight custom-built racks and 15 pieces of cardiovascular equipment.

The McClain Center weight room is the largest of the facilities and features more than 45,000 pounds of free weights and more than 50 weight machines. The room has seven squat racks, eight bench press stations, eight flat-to-incline benches, six Olympic lift platforms and numerous other free weight stations.

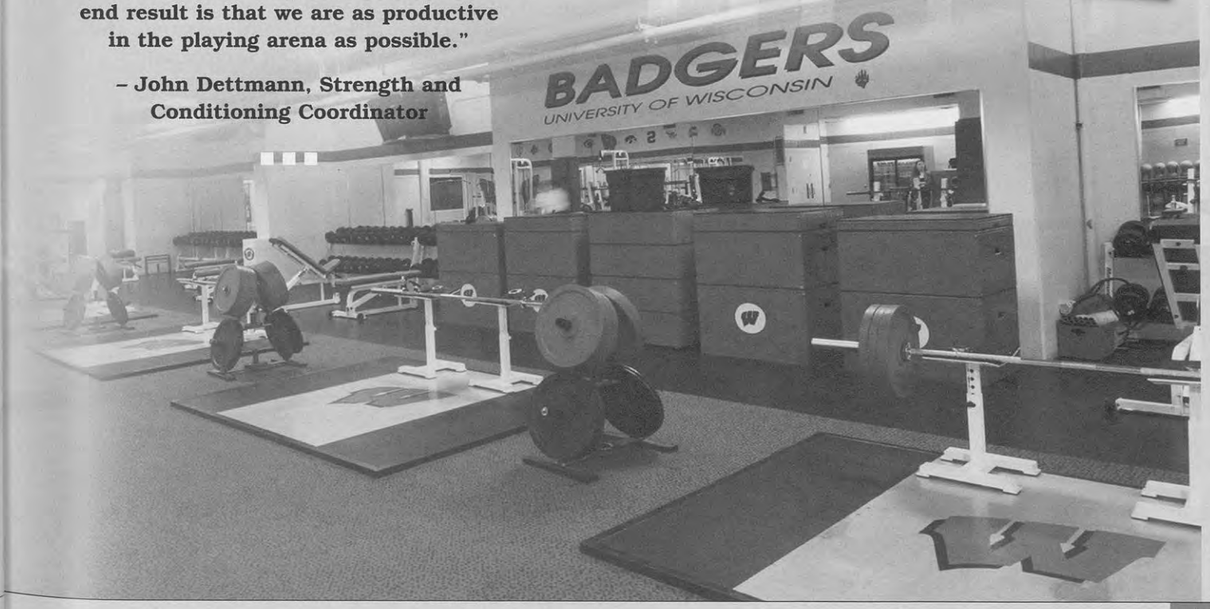
The Badger Den (left) has five power stations with each consisting of a platform for Olympic-style lifting as well as a squat rack, bench press, incline bench press, pull-up station and a dip station. There are three lat-pull machines and seated row machines, a compete set of dumbells and a complete set of plyometric boxes.





"The goal of the Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is to train for total athletic excellence. We profile each student-athlete upon arrival and set up specific training regimens to help athletes reach their individual potential. The plan is to build overall strength, speed, agility and stamina. Our program is comprehensive and the end result is that we are as productive in the playing arena as possible."

– John Dettmann, Strength and Conditioning Coordinator



Sports Medicine

The sports medicine staff provides all University of Wisconsin student-athletes with high quality health care. Wisconsin's Sports Medicine program features state-of-the-art facilities and the services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals.

The sports medicine staff consists of team physicians, dentists, athletic trainers, and a full-time nutritionist. The day-to-day care, prevention, and treatment of injuries to Badger athletes is supervised by a staff of 13 full-time and three graduate assistant National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) certified and State of Wisconsin licensed athletic trainers.

Under the direction of head athletic trainer Dennis Helwig, the Sports Medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Full-time athletic trainers Karen Bloch, Tricia DeSouza, Bill Gierach, Chuck Hart, Andy Hrodey, Jesse Donnenwerth, Mike Moll, Clark Pearson, Henry Perez-Guerra, Ashley Parr, Jen Pepoy, and Kristy Walker as well as graduate assistant trainers Kayla Schipman, Jenna Street and Stephanie Westrick utilize functional measures, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve flexibility.

Full-time nutritionist Patrick Welscher, RD, provides dietary analysis and supervises training table meals to enhance the performance of the student-athletes.

The Sports Medicine facility in the McClain Center features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment including a 50-foot, two-lane-rehabilitation pool and an on-site x-ray facility. Considered one of the nation's finest, the McClain Sports Medicine Center offers an environment conducive to expedient care and a healthy return to competition.

Should an injury occur, athletes are seen immediately by team physicians affiliated with the world-renowned UW Hospital and Clinics. Medical director Dr. Ben Graf, an orthopedic surgeon, is responsible for all services provided to student-athletes. Orthopedic care is also provided by team physicians Dr. John Orwin, Dr. Lee Kaplan and Dr. Geoffrey Baer. General medical care is directed by the head of primary care, Dr. Greg Landry, and he is joined by Dr. David Berhardt, and Dr. Kathleen Carr.

In addition to the headquarters in the McClain Athletic Facility, auxiliary athletic training rooms are located in Camp Randall Stadium, Natatorium, UW Field House and the Kohl Center. All training areas are equipped with the finest therapeutic modalities and rehabilitative apparatus.

The Wisconsin Sports Medicine facility features an extensive collection of therapeutic and rehabilitation equipment (left and below) including a 50-foot, two-lane rehabilitation pool (top) and an on-site x-ray facility in the McClain Center.

"The University of Wisconsin Sports Medicine Program is designed to provide the student-athletes of UW access to high-quality sports medicine care, and through personal interaction, enhance the academic and athletic experiences of each individual."

Head Coach Bret Bielema

One would be hard-pressed to draw up a better head coaching debut than the one Wisconsin's Bret Bielema fashioned in 2006.

The third-youngest head coach in Bowl subdivision football, Bielema has proven that age is just a number. He has shown that determination, hard work, organization and enthusiasm—all traits Bielema embodies—count the most when sizing up an individual's qualifications.

Bielema guided the Badgers to a 12-1 overall record and 7-1 mark in the Big Ten (good for a second-place tie with Michigan). Wisconsin capped its record-setting 2006 season with a 17-14 win over Arkansas in the 2007 Capital One Bowl. No previous Wisconsin team had won more than 11 games in a season. In addition, Bielema became just the third rookie head coach in NCAA Division I history to pilot his team to 12 victories.

Bielema's efforts were rewarded when he was named the 2006 Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year. Bielema also was named one of five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and was a finalist for the 2006 Schutt Sports Division IA Coach of the Year Award.

Wisconsin surprised most observers outside the program by setting school records for overall wins (12) and regular-season victories (11), as well as tying the UW mark for conference victories (seven). The Badgers did it with a defensive unit that ended the 2006 regular season ranked among the top three nationally in pass defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense. And they did it with an offense led by a pair of seniors (QB John Stocco and All-America tackle Joe Thomas), a young but talented offensive line, the Big Ten Freshman of the Year (P.J. Hill) at tailback and an emerging corps of receivers, including John Mackey Award semifinalist Travis Beckum.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19-6 record under former head coach Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24-10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl; UW limited the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

During Bielema's two years guiding the Badger defense, two players (DE Erasmus James and DB Jim Leonhard) earned first-team All-America honors and two others (DT Anttaj Hawthorne and DB Scott Starks) were first-team All-Big Ten selections. While coaching the Badgers' linebackers, Bielema developed Mark Zalewski and Dontez Sanders, both of whom earned honorable mention all-conference acclaim.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under former head coach Bill Snyder from 2002–03. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time there and finished in the top 10 nationally (in both 2002 and 2003) in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won their first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and second-team All-Big 12 selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense. Bielema coached Fred Barr (first-team All-Big Ten), Vernon Rollins and Matt Hughes (both honorable mention All-Big Ten) at Iowa.

Head coaches for whom Bielema has worked—Alvarez, Snyder, Ferentz and Fry—have combined to win 553 games and guide their teams to 42 bowl games, so the second-year Badger mentor has learned from some of the best in the business. The last four teams (2002–06) for which Bielema has coached accumulated a 53-13 record.

Bielema earned four letters (1989–92) after joining the Iowa football program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League. Bielema has participated in 10 bowl games as a player or coach.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in marketing, Bielema was born in Prophetstown, Ill., on Jan. 13, 1970.

What They're Saying About Bret Bielema

"I can say with great confidence that Bret Bielema was the perfect person for me to hand off the head-coaching duties to. Bret, above all, is enthusiastic and knowledgeable about the game of football. He's been around success his entire life. He has tremendous rapport with players and coaches. He's a tireless worker and I feel as though he's a rising star in our profession."

Barry Alvarez
Wisconsin Director of Athletics and former Badger head football coach

"Bret is an extremely well-rounded coach for his youth. I think his capabilities far exceed what some people may perceive to be his youthfulness."

Bill Snyder
Former Kansas State head coach

"Barry showed great wisdom in selecting Bret Bielema as the next head coach at Wisconsin."

Hayden Fry
Former Iowa head coach

"Coach Bielema always has something about football in front of him. His commitment is higher than any coach I have ever seen. His personal and social skills with us were tremendous. He knew what we were thinking almost as we thought it."

Joe Stellmacher
Former Badger starting strong safety

"(Bielema) has been aggressive, creative and not the least bit intimidated. He has had his team ready to play every week. He has showed the kind of moxie you'd expect from a former farmhand, walk-on, team captain and self-made coaching prodigy."

Andy Baggot
Wisconsin State Journal* (Nov. 18, 2006)

"Bret is one of the brightest young coaches in America. His experience in the Big Ten as a player, assistant and coordinator allows him to have a clear understanding of what needs to be done to win at the highest level. In addition, he has been very fortunate to work for three legendary coaches: Hayden Fry, Bill Snyder and, of course, Barry Alvarez."

Q & A with Bret Bielema

Can you assess your first year as a head coach?

"Every day is full of surprises. I say this all the time. When I am riding to work every morning I say to myself, 'What's going to happen today that I have no idea is going to happen?' I think the biggest thing as a head coach I realize is that you just have to rely on your gut feeling, your instincts and your past experiences. And those things that have helped you in the past will be the same things that will help you today."

You brought in a mostly new staff last year. How would you say that has worked out?

"You never are sure how people are going to react under pressure. I think as last year went along and the way certain games developed I realized I had great people in positions that could make good decisions in crunch time, and having the support of the administration to keep those people after the season is a great reflection of our entire athletic department."

How do you handle losing six great senior leaders like the team had last season?

"Again I make reference to a comment that we say all the time: 'Seniors graduate but tradition never does.' Hopefully the traditions those seniors established were able to be passed on to our current players. It is an exciting time right now to watch players emerge during the spring and summer into those leadership roles."

Specifically, what do you hope is passed on from last year's seniors to your current group of players?

"I hope Joe Thomas' work ethic, John Stocco's game-day mentality, Mark Zalewski's overall awareness of the entire defense, Roderick Rogers and Joe Stellmacher's control of the secondary and ability to take leadership roles, knowing the correct calls and making the right assignments and Joe Monty's perseverance. I hope all of those things get passed on. But bottom line, you never are going to have the same player again in your program. They are all going to be different. But the traits that made that successful, you hope that is going to be passed on to your next group."

Discuss Camp Randall Stadium and the home-field advantage it provides.

"It's one of the greatest environments in college football. People who visit our stadium all the time tell us that. From the media to our opponents, they always are amazed at the game-day atmosphere and it's a huge advantage for us. You see it again for us this year when we renewed tickets at a rate of 99.4 percent. Not many people are going to be able to do that with season ticket sales. I think it's just that overall environment. It's not just what is on the field. You incorporate the band and you incorporate the Camp Randall environment before, during and after the game and it is a very special place."

How do you handle the high expectations of your team heading into the 2007 season?

"Nothing is going to deviate from our plan of a year ago. It's a mantra that we follow and we live every day—a 1-0 mentality. Those things are based upon what others expect us to do over the course of the season based on the numbers they see returning. The same group said that we were going to be in the mid-38 to 45 in the country last year. So, they are not necessarily right all the time. And it is our responsibility as coaches to make sure our kids understand that the beginning expectations aren't the ones that really matter; it's the ending numbers that really make a difference in your program."

How do you feel about your schedule heading into the 2007 season?

"We are very excited about our schedule. We start with Washington State coming in as one of the top programs in the Pac-10, coming to visit us on our turf. And to have a Big Ten opener, with a night game against Iowa is going to be very special. I think the schedule lays out in a way that if we just take it at a 1-0 mentality each week and put ourselves in a position to have success, as the season builds, the momentum will continue to be there and give us an opportunity to showcase in front of our home fans what Wisconsin football is all about."

What is your comfort level now that you have a year as a head coach under your belt?

"There is a comfort level. A wise man once taught me 'If it ain't broke, don't fix it'. There are certain things with scheduling, how we handle our players during the course of the week, how we travel, how we set up our fall camp—those things are all established from a year ago. You are going to modify and tweak them, things that you know you can do better, but on the same account, you realize that each team is uniquely different from a leadership standpoint and from a scheduling standpoint. You just always have to be on the cutting edge of what is necessary for you to have success with your current group of players."

Bob Bostad

Run Game Coordinator / Tight Ends

Bob Bostad (pronounced BO-stad) is in his second season as an assistant coach at Wisconsin. He was named run game coordinator in February of 2007 and will also coach the Badger tight ends for the second straight season.

Bostad enjoyed a tremendously productive first year at Wisconsin in 2006. UW's top two tight ends last season – sophomore Travis Beckum and junior Andy Crooks – were unquestionably key components in the team's record-breaking 12-1 campaign. Beckum, who caught five TD passes, was a John Mackey Award semifinalist and earned Walter Camp second-team All-America honors on the way to setting school records for receptions (61) and receiving yards (903) by a tight end. Crooks, who had 19 catches for 206 yards, added four touchdown grabs and earned UW's Tom Wiesner Award.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin, Bostad coached the offensive line at New Mexico from 1999-2005. Bostad's 2005 offensive line, which paved the way for DonTrell Moore, the Mountain West Conference offensive player of the year and one of only six players in NCAA Div. I history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in each of his four seasons, featured a pair of first-team all-conference selections, including center Ryan Cook and guard Robert Turner. New Mexico averaged 200 yards per game on the ground in 2005. Cook was a second-round draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings, while tackle Terrance Pennington was a seventh-round pick of the Buffalo Bills. Both players started as rookies.

During Bostad's tenure at New Mexico, 14 Lobo offensive linemen earned all-conference mention, including seven first-team selections (both of those figures are tops in MWC history). Among the players Bostad coached at New Mexico were: tackle Claude Terrell, a third-team A.P. All-American and fourth-round draft choice of the St. Louis Rams (he started as a rookie for the Rams in 2005) and tackle Jason Lenzmeier, who became the first offensive lineman in conference and school history to earn MWC offensive player of the week honors in 2003.

The 2003 Lobos led the MWC in scoring (30.1 ppg) and ranked 11th nationally in rushing average (227 ypg). The 2002 New Mexico line allowed just 17 quarterback sacks in 14 games (352 passing attempts). New Mexico's 2001 club averaged 27.6 points per game, an improvement of more than eight points per contest over the previous year. The Lobos also averaged 376.8 yards per game of total offense in 2001, a jump of 110.2 yards per game over the 2000 campaign. Guard Jason Carson earned second-team all-conference laurels in 1999 (Bostad's first season at New Mexico), becoming the first Lobo offensive guard to do so since 1978.

Bostad was offensive line coach (1997-98) and offensive coordinator (1998) at San Jose State prior to his years at New Mexico. His top player with the Spartans was David Loverne, a first-team All-WAC selection and third-round choice of the New York Jets in 1999.

Bostad coached the offensive line at Cal State Northridge in 1995-96 and spent three seasons (1992-94) as an offensive line graduate assistant at Minnesota under head coach Jim Wacker.

Bostad got his coaching start at his alma mater, UW–Stevens Point, where he coached the offensive line from 1990-91.

Paul Chryst

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

Paul Chryst is in his third consecutive season at Wisconsin and his fourth overall as an assistant coach for the Badgers. Chryst, UW's co-offensive coordinator and tight ends coach in 2005, is now in his second year as the program's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Chryst, the Badgers' tight ends coach in 2002, returned to Wisconsin in 2005 and his impact on the UW offense has been undeniable. The 2005 Badgers set school records for points scored in a season (446) and for season scoring average (34.3 ppg). UW scored at least 40 points six times in 2005. The Badger passing game was much improved, with QB John Stocco setting school season records for passing yards (2,920), passing TDs (21) and pass completions (197). Wisconsin's aerial attack distributed the ball widely, as wide receivers caught 110 passes, running backs made 61 receptions and tight ends made 29 grabs. Running back Brian Calhoun became just the second player in NCAA Division IA history to accumulate 1,500 yards rushing and 500 receiving yards in the same season.

Five players from the 2005 Badger offense were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft and several others were lost to graduation, so Chryst had to rebuild the 2006 offense with a new staff and eight new starters. The result? Chryst helped orchestrate Wisconsin's record 12-win season with an offense that produced: 1) the ninth-highest scoring (29.2 ppg) unit in school history; 2) the second-winningest quarterback in school history (Stocco had 29 victories as Wisconsin's starter), who finished second in every major career passing category at UW; 3) an Outland Trophy winner in OT Joe Thomas; 4) the school record-holder for receptions (61) and receiving yards (903) by a tight end in sophomore Travis Beckum; and 5) P.J. Hill, the Big Ten's leading rusher (1,569 yards) and Freshman of the Year.

Wisconsin has earned some of its greatest bowl victories during Chryst's three seasons on the staff. The Badgers won the 2002 Alamo Bowl, 31-28 OT, over 13th-ranked Colorado; defeated seventh-ranked Auburn, 24-10, in the 2006 Capital One Bowl; and knocked off 12th-ranked Arkansas in the 2007 Capital One Bowl.

Chryst was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oregon State in 2003-04. He helped the Beavers rank No. 6 nationally in passing yardage per game (328.1) and 10th in total offense (463.0 ypg) in 2003. The 2003 Beavers became the first team in NCAA Division I history with a 4,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers. The Beavers were seventh in the nation in passing yardage (308.8 ypg) in 2004. Among the Oregon State stars he coached were RB Ken Simonton, the school's career rushing leader, QB Derek Anderson, who left as the Pac 10's No. 2 career passing leader, RB Steven Jackson, a 2004 first-round draft choice, and TE Tim Euhus, a fourth-round pick of Buffalo in 2004.

Chryst came to Wisconsin in 2002 after serving as an assistant coach with the San Diego Chargers, where he developed Freddie Jones into one of the NFL's top tight ends, as well as coaching Steve Heiden, now a starter with the Cleveland Browns.

Kerry Cooks

Defensive Backs

Kerry Cooks is now in his second year as defensive backs coach at Wisconsin. He is looking to build upon a 2006 campaign that could only be called an unqualified success for the Badger secondary.

Wisconsin led the nation in pass efficiency defense (84.19 rating - third-lowest in Big Ten history) in 2006 and finished second to Virginia Tech in passing yards allowed per game (138.3) and scoring defense (12.1 ppg). UW also was No. 5 nationally in total defense, allowing just 253.1 yards per contest. The Badgers led the Big Ten in all of those defensive categories. Each of Cooks' four starting defensive backs received postseason recognition from the Big Ten. Cornerback Jack Ikegwuonu was a first-team all-conference pick, while free safety Roderick Rogers earned second-team All-Big Ten acclaim. Cornerback Allen Langford and strong safety Joe Stellmacher both were named honorable mention All-Big Ten.

Cooks came to Wisconsin after one year coaching the secondary at Minnesota. The Golden Gophers qualified for the Music City Bowl in 2005, while Cooks' unit allowed opponents to complete just 56.8 percent of their passes (fourth-best in the Big Ten). That figure dropped to 55.3 percent in conference games, tied for second in the league with Penn State.

Prior to his year at Minnesota, Cooks coached defensive backs and assisted on special teams for one season (2004) at Western Illinois. Under Cooks' direction, the Leathernecks limited opponents to a Gateway Conference-best 157.2 passing yards per game; held opponents to the lowest completion percentage (45.4) in the conference; and finished second in the league with 17 interceptions.

Cooks began coaching at his high school alma mater, Nimitz High (Texas), in 2003 before joining the staff at Kansas State as a graduate assistant for the 2003 campaign. While at Kansas State, Cooks worked mostly with defensive game plan preparation and assisted with the Wildcats' secondary. Kansas State registered an 11-4 record in 2003 and won a Big 12 title with a defense that was sixth nationally in total defense, eighth in scoring defense, 12th in pass efficiency defense and 17th in rushing defense. The Wildcats earned a trip to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl after limiting each of their last six opponents to 14 points or less, including Oklahoma, the nation's highest-scoring team.

Cooks was a four-year letterwinner and two-year starter as a strong safety at Iowa from 1994-97. He was a team captain as a senior and earned All-Big Ten honors and a spot in the East-West Shrine Game. A fifth-round draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1998, Cooks also played for Green Bay, Atlanta and Jacksonville before retiring from the NFL in 2001. He also played for the Chicago Enforcers of the XFL in 2001.

Cooks has played or coached in seven bowl games. A 2000 graduate of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in sociology, Cooks' wife's name is Valencia.

Dave Doeren

Co-Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers / Recruiting Coordinator

Dave Doeren, who helped produce one of the nation's best defenses in 2006, is in his second season as an assistant coach at Wisconsin. Doeren serves as co-defensive coordinator, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for the Badgers.

Wisconsin led the nation in pass efficiency defense (84.19 rating - third-lowest in Big Ten history) in 2006 and finished second to Virginia Tech in passing yards allowed per game (138.3) and scoring defense (12.1 ppg). UW also was No. 5 nationally in total defense, allowing just 253.1 yards per contest. The Badgers led the Big Ten in all of those defensive categories. Linebacker Mark Zalewski (a senior in 2006), a two-time team captain, led the Badgers with 90 tackles and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten acclaim. Linebackers Jonathan Casillas and DeAndre Levy (both of whom will be juniors in 2007) give the Badgers a strong future at the position. Casillas earned honorable mention All-Big Ten kudos and led UW with 12.5 tackles for loss in 2006. Levy, an Academic All-Big Ten honoree, paced the Badgers with six quarterback sacks.

Doeren has risen quickly through the college coaching ranks. He was linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas from 2002-05 and was promoted in the summer of 2005 to co-defensive coordinator. The Jayhawks, who routed Houston, 42-13, in the 2005 Fort Worth Bowl, led the Big 12 Conference and ranked No. 3 nationally in rushing defense (83.3 ypg) in '05. Kansas also was No. 2 in the Big 12 and 11th nationally in total defense (303.3 ypg). KU linebacker Nick Reid was a two-time, first-team All-Big 12 selection, a third-team A.P. All-American and was the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2005. Three other Jayhawk linebackers (Banks Floodman, Kevin Kane and Brandon Perkins) were named honorable mention All-Big 12 in 2005.

Doeren went to Kansas after spending two seasons as the secondary coach (as well as one season as recruiting coordinator) at Montana. The Grizzlies won the NCAA Division I-AA title in 2001. Doeren coached seven all-conference defensive backs at Montana, including two who earned All-America honors. The Grizzlies were 28-3 with two conference championships during Doeren's two seasons.

Prior to his time at Montana, Doeren was a two-year (1998-99) graduate assistant at Southern California. The 1998 Trojans led the nation in interceptions with 24 (including five that were returned for TDs). USC led the nation in turnover margin in 1999 and was second nationally in interceptions with 21 (including five returned for TDs).

Doeren started his college coaching career as an assistant at Drake from 1995-97. He coached linebackers all three years and became defensive coordinator in 1997.

Doeren began coaching (wide receivers and defensive line) at Shawnee Mission (Kan.) Northwest High School in 1994. A graduate of Bishop Miege High School in Shawnee Mission, Doeren was a four-year letterwinner at Drake and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

Doeren, who has coached in four bowl games and two national championship contests, is a native of Shawnee Mission, Kan. He and his wife, Sara, have three sons: Jacob, Luke and Connor.

Mike Hankwitz

Defensive Coordinator

Mike Hankwitz is in his second season as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator. In his first campaign with the Badgers in 2006, Hankwitz fashioned one of the nation's very best defenses. Wisconsin was No. 1 in the country in pass efficiency defense (84.19 rating - third-lowest in Big Ten history), No. 2 in passing yards allowed per game (138.3), No. 2 in scoring defense (12.1 ppg) and No. 5 in total defense (253.1 ypg). The Badgers limited six of their opponents to 10 points or less and allowed just three foes to reach the 20-point mark. Eight of the 11 defensive starters from the 2006 squad received at least honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition, including first-team cornerback Jack Ikegwuonu and second-teamers DL Matt Shaughnessy and FS Roderick Rogers.

Prior to Wisconsin, Hankwitz spent two seasons as defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Colorado. He served as the program's interim head coach for the Buffaloes' 2005 Champs Sports Bowl appearance against Clemson. CU won the Big 12 North Division title in both 2004 and 2005. Hankwitz had gone to Colorado after serving as Arizona's defensive coordinator (and later interim head coach) in 2003.

Prior to his stint at Arizona, Hankwitz was the defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach (he also coached inside linebackers and punters) at Texas A&M (1997-2002) where he guided the Aggies' famed "Wrecking Crew" defense. During that span he had three top-10 ranked defenses, two top-20 defenses, won two South Division titles and one Big 12 championship. Among Hankwitz's standout players at Texas A&M was Dat Nguyen, who won the Lombardi and Bednarik Awards, as well as being named Chevrolet Defensive Player of the Year in 1998.

Hankwitz spent two seasons (1995-96) as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach for head coach Glen Mason at Kansas. The 1995 Jayhawks recorded the school's first 10-win season since 1905, played in the Aloha Bowl and ranked 10th in the final national polls.

Hankwitz enjoyed a highly successful 10-year run as defensive coordinator (along with responsibilities for outside linebackers, inside linebackers, the secondary, punters and the punt team) at Colorado from 1985-94. Colorado put together the nation's fifth-best record (58-11-4) from 1989-94, including a national title in 1990, three Big 8 titles, two appearances each in the Orange and Fiesta Bowls and six national top-20 rankings (including three top-five finishes). The Buffs' 1989 and 1991 teams set the school record for fewest points allowed (150) in a season. Among Hankwitz's standout players at CU were Jim Thorpe Award winners Deon Figures (1992) and Chris Hudson (1994), and Butkus Award winner Alfred Williams (1990).

Hankwitz was defensive coordinator (with additional responsibilities for the secondary, punters, punt team) at Western Michigan from 1982-84 and the 1982 WMU defense allowed only 72 points, the fewest in Div. I or IAA. He was the outside linebackers and punting coach at Purdue from 1977-81. Prior to his time at Purdue, Hankwitz was the outside linebackers and secondary coach (along with punt return/punt rush) at Arizona from 1973-76.

Hankwitz began his coaching career as a graduate assistant (1970-72) at his alma mater, Michigan, under head coach Bo Schembechler. As a defensive G.A., Hankwitz helped the Wolverines to two Big Ten titles, a 30-3 record, three top-10 national rankings and a 1971 Rose Bowl appearance.

Teams for which Hankwitz has coached have had a winning record in 31 of his 37 years. Ten of those clubs won conference titles and 13 more were league runners-up. He has coached in 22 bowl games. Hankwitz also has coached 14 first-team All-Americans (including four straight punters at Colorado), five conference defensive players of the year, 45 first-team all-conference choices and 11 team MVPs. He has recruited eight players who went on to play in the NFL. As a coordinator, Hankwitz has won 176 games and seven championships, and overall has won 295 games as a coach.

Hankwitz is a native of Ludington, Mich. He was a three-year football letterwinner for the Wolverines and started on the 1969 Big Ten championship squad that played in the Rose Bowl. He earned a B.S. in education in 1970. He and his wife, Cathy, have a son, Jacob.

Henry Mason

Associate Head Coach / Wide Receivers / Assistant Recruiting Coordinator

Henry Mason, named associate head coach in February of 2007, is in his 13th season coaching wide receivers at Wisconsin. Mason also serves as UW's assistant recruiting coordinator.

Under Mason's guidance, Wisconsin has consistently produced some of the nation's best pass-catchers since the mid-1990s. Mason has, in fact, coached five of the top eight receivers in school history during his tenure with the Badgers.

One of Mason's best coaching jobs came last season. UW's top two receivers in 2006 entered the season with one career reception between them. Under Mason's tutelage, however, Paul Hubbard and Luke Swan became key aerial targets who played significant roles in the Badgers' record-setting 12-1 campaign. Hubbard ended the season with 38 receptions for 627 yards and a team high-tying five TD catches, including one in the 2007 Capital One Bowl win over 12th-ranked Arkansas. Swan, an ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District and Academic All-Big Ten selection, registered 35 catches for 595 yards and four TDs.

Among Mason's more recent standout pass-catching tandems were Brandon Williams and Jonathan Orr, both of whom were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft. Williams, a 2005 second-team All-American, finished his career ranked first in receptions (202) and second in yards (2,924) at Wisconsin. Orr is third all-time at UW with 19 touchdown catches and eighth in school history with 1,824 receiving yards.

Mason also coached Bedford, Ohio, products Lee Evans and Chris Chambers. Evans, a 2001 Biletnikoff Award finalist and first-team All-American, is UW's career leader in receiving yards (3,468) and touchdowns (27). A 2004 first-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills, Evans holds the Big Ten record for receiving yards in a season with 1,545 during the 2001 campaign. Chambers, a second-round draft pick of the Miami Dolphins in 2001, is fourth on the school's list for career receiving yards with 2,004. Chambers caught a TD pass in the 2006 Pro Bowl.

Early in Mason's career at Wisconsin, while the Badgers were primarily riding the talents of running back Ron Dayne, Tony Simmons and Donald Hayes developed into standout receivers and eventual NFL draft picks. Simmons, No. 5 on UW's career receiving yardage list with 1,991 and No. 2 in career receiving TDs with 23, was a second-round draft choice of the New England Patriots in 1998. Hayes, eighth on the school's career yardage list with 1,575, was a fourth-round choice of Carolina in 1998.

Two other Mason-coached Badger receivers have played in the NFL: Ahmad Merrit, who signed with the Chicago Bears as a free agent in 2001 and recorded a 1,000-yard season in 2002; and Nick Davis, a free agent signee of the Minnesota Vikings in 2002.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin in 1995, Mason coached receivers at Western Michigan from 1991-94. The Broncos led the Mid-American Conference in passing in three of Mason's four seasons. Mason was head coach at Smith-Cotton (Mo.) High School from 1982-90. His 1988 team became the first in 13 years at the school to post a winning record. Mason also was an assistant coach at Baker University (1981) and was an assistant coach at Lexington (Mo.) High School (1979-80).

Mason, who has coached in 10 bowl games with the Badgers, is a 1979 graduate of Central Missouri State, where he lettered in football and baseball. He was drafted by the Baltimore Colts and played one season with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mason's wife's name is Debbie.

Randall McCray

Defensive Line

Randall McCray is in his second season as Wisconsin's defensive line coach.

McCray guided a solid unit that helped Wisconsin become one of the nation's best defenses in 2006. Two of his players – end Matt Shaughnessy (second team) and tackle Jason Chapman (honorable mention) – earned All-Big Ten honors. The Badgers, who won a school-record 12 games in 2006, were No. 2 nationally in scoring defense (12.1 ppg) and fifth in the country in total defense (253.1 ypg).

Prior to coming to Wisconsin, McCray coached the defensive line and linebackers during a three-year (2003-05) stint at Toledo. He left Toledo for Rice, where he spent two weeks as recruiting coordinator and safeties coach, just before moving to Wisconsin.

McCray coached Toledo's defensive line in 2005, helping the Rockets to a 9-3 record (MAC West Division co-champions) and a 45-13 GMAC Bowl win over UTEP. Toledo was 21st nationally in total defense in 2005 (316.8 ypg) and led the MAC in scoring defense (21.8 ppg), total defense, pass defense efficiency (111.0), tied for first in sacks (31) and finished second in rushing defense (125.6 ypg). McCray coached the Rockets' linebackers during his first two years at Toledo. The Rockets won the MAC title in 2004.

In his first season at Toledo, McCray was faced with replacing two first-team All-MAC linebackers, David Gardner and Tom Ward, from the previous season. The two players who stepped in, Anthony Jordan and Brock Dodrill, finished the 2003 season ranked fifth and sixth, respectively, in the MAC in tackles. In 2004, Jordan and David Thomas finished second and third, in tackles on the team, with 107 and 91, respectively. Jordan's total placed him 15th in the league.

McCray was assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Illinois State in 2002 after serving as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach for the Redbirds from 2000-02. In 2002, McCray guided Gateway Defensive Player of the Year Boomer Grigsby to three All-America nods and a third-place finish for the Buch Buchanan Award (top defensive player in Division I-AA football). McCray also coached two other All-Americans at linebacker, Galen Scott at Illinois State and Ronnie Merritt at Murray State.

McCray coached inside linebackers at Murray State (1997-99) and became the Racers' defensive coordinator in 1999; defensive ends at Bethune-Cookman (1996); was in charge of quality control at Clemson (1995); defensive line at Tennessee-Chattanooga (1993-94) and was a graduate assistant at South Carolina from 1991-92.

A two-year letterwinner as an outside linebacker and running back at Appalachian State, McCray was a member of the Mountaineers' 1987 Southern Conference championship team, as well as two teams that advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Bob Palcic

Offensive Line

Bob Palcic is in his second season as Wisconsin's offensive line coach after spending the previous 12 seasons as an assistant in the National Football League.

Palcic's first year with the Badgers was a memorable one. He coached Outland Trophy winner and consensus All-America left tackle Joe Thomas (the No. 3 overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft), in addition to a collection of younger players who give Wisconsin a solid foundation upon which to build. Two of those players – right tackle Eric Vanden Heuvel and center Marcus Coleman – earned honorable mention All-Big Ten acclaim.

Palcic coached tight ends for the New Orleans Saints from 2000–05. Prior to that post he was offensive line coach for the Cleveland Browns (1999), tight ends coach for the Detroit Lions (1997–98) and offensive line coach for the Atlanta Falcons (1994–96).

Palcic went to Atlanta after spending 19 of the previous 21 seasons coaching offensive linemen at seven different universities, including Wisconsin. He coached the 1993 UCLA offensive line that matched up against the Badgers in the 1994 Rose Bowl. Palcic tutored the Southern California offensive line in 1992 and helped the Trojans to a Freedom Bowl appearance. He was offensive line coach at Ohio State from 1986–91, a period during which the Buckeyes played in two Hall of Fame Bowls, a Cotton Bowl and a Liberty Bowl.

Arizona's offensive line was under Palcic's direction from 1984–85 (the Wildcats played in the Sun Bowl during that time). A two-year stint (1982–83) with the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts (1983 Grey Cup title) was preceded by a four-year (1978–81) stop as Wisconsin's offensive line coach under head coach Dave McClain.

Palcic was Ball State's offensive line coach in 1976–77 (he went to Wisconsin with McClain, who was Ball State's head coach) and Dayton's linebackers/offensive line coach in 1974–75. He got his college coaching start guiding Ball State's linebackers as a graduate assistant in 1973.

Among the college players Palcic has coached are: current Baltimore Raven All-Pro tackle Jonathan Ogden, third-team All-American and NFL veteran (Green Bay and Houston) Mike Flanigan and first-team All-American and 11-year NFL player Vaughn Parker (all of UCLA); All-America tackle Tony Boselli (USC); first-team All-Big Ten offensive linemen Bob Maggs, Jeff Uhlenhake, Joe Staysniak, Jeff Davidson and Alan Kline (all at Ohio State); All-American Ray Snell (Wisconsin).

Palcic is a native of Gowanda, N.Y., and has a bachelor's degree in education (1971) and a master's degree in education (1974), both from Dayton. He was a linebacker for the Flyers from 1968–70. He and his wife, Theresa, have three children: Joe (currently the defensive coordinator at Indiana); Amy (an assistant in the Cleveland Browns media relations office) and Monica, who is married to New Orleans Saints LB Mark Simoneau.

John Settle

Running Backs

John Settle is now in his second season as running backs coach at Wisconsin. Settle enjoyed a successful initial campaign at Wisconsin in 2006. Running back P.J. Hill earned national and Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors and was a first-team All-Big Ten selection after leading the conference in rushing with 1,569 yards (second-most ever for a UW rookie) and 16 total touchdowns. Hill also led the Big Ten in all-purpose yardage (135.9 ypg) and tied for the league lead in scoring (7.4 ppg). Hill was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin, Settle served eight seasons as running backs coach at Fresno State, where he tutored six 1,000-yard rushers, including Wendell Mathis, who rushed for 1,313 yards and 15 touchdowns along with making 19 catches for 156 yards and a TD for the Bulldogs in 2005. Bryson Sumlin earned second-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors (WAC) when he ran for 1,102 yards and 12 TDs in 2004. He was joined that season by Mathis, who rushed for 995 yards and 12 scores, making Fresno State one of only two schools in the nation with two running backs ranked among the national top 50. In 2003 Dwayne Wright became the third Bulldog in three seasons to surpass the 1,000-yard mark when he gained 1,038 yards. Rodney Davis set the school rushing record with a 1,586-yard campaign in 2002. Paris Gaines carried for 1,044 yards in 2001. Settle also developed Derrick Ward, the 1999 team rushing leader, freshman All-American and current New York Giant. In addition, Settle coached 1998 WAC Pacific Division Offensive Player of the Year and 1,000-yard rusher Jamie Kimbrough.

Settle went to Fresno State after a three-year stint (1995-98) as an offensive assistant with the Cleveland Browns/Baltimore Ravens franchise under head coaches Bill Belicheck and Ted Marchibroda. During that time he coached running backs like Lorenzo White, Leroy Hoard, Earnest Byner and Priest Holmes. Settle began his coaching career at his alma mater, Appalachian State, where he assisted with running backs in 1994.

Settle was a four-year letterman (1983-86) as a running back at Appalachian State, where he played one season for current Texas head coach Mack Brown and another three years for Sparky Woods. Settle finished as the school's career rushing leader with 4,409 yards (then third-most in NCAA Division I-AA history) and 43 touchdowns. He was the Southern Conference Player of the Year as a senior after rushing for 1,661 yards and 20 TDs. The two-time All-American also scored a conference-record five TDs against Davidson.

Settle signed with the Atlanta Falcons as a free agent and played for coaches Jerry Glanville and Marion Campbell. He played a total of six seasons in the NFL, including four with Atlanta (1987-90) and two with the Washington Redskins. He accumulated 1,594 yards of total offense (1,024 rushing and 570 receiving) in 1988, becoming the first free agent in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. He was named to the Pro Bowl and the All-Madden Team in 1988. He registered three 100-yard rushing performances and three 100-yard receiving games that season. He also played for the Redskins' Super Bowl championship team in 1991.

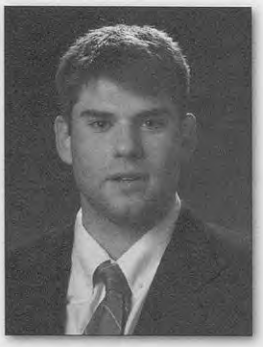
Graduate Assistants

Craig Knoche

Graduate Assistant (Offense)



Craig Knoche is currently in his first year as a graduate assistant coach with the Wisconsin football team. The Chicago, Ill., native came to the Badgers in the spring of 2007 as an offensive student assistant.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin, Knoche was an assistant to the offensive staff for the Stanford football program in 2006. Knoche was also the wide receivers coach at North Park University in Chicago from 2004-05.

Knoche was a three-time letter winner as a wide receiver at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington, Ill. In 2002, Knoche graduated Magna Cum Laude from Illinois Wesleyan with degrees in mathematics and Spanish. In 2006, he earned his master's degree in pure mathematics from the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Jake Sprague

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

Former Wisconsin defensive lineman Jake Sprague is in his second season as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater. Sprague works with the Badger defense.

Sprague, who spent some time in the NFL (Tennessee and N.Y. Giants) after his career at UW, completed work on his bachelor's degree in history in 2006. He currently is working toward a master's degree in education administration.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Sprague had 115 tackles in 41 games for the Badgers from 1998-2002. He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in 2002 and was a member of the Badgers' Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship teams in 1998 and 1999.

Football Operations Staff

Bill Nayes

Assistant AD / Football Operations

Bill Nayes, football operations coordinator / team travel with the Seattle Seahawks from 2000–05, is in his second year as assistant athletic director/director of football operations at Wisconsin.

Nayes is responsible for team logistics and day-to-day operations. That includes organizing fall camp, team game weekend arrangements (home and away), weekly team schedules, bowl game preparations, spring football schedule and logistics, as well as high school football camps, assisting with recruiting functions and additional external relations activities.

Nayes joined the Seahawks in 1999 (he went with head coach Mike Holmgren from Green Bay to Seattle) as administrative assistant / football operations. Among his duties were the organization and operation of the team's mini-camps and training camp; assistance with the team's group travel operations; creation and implementation of team operations schedules; and administrative duties with practice organization and football operations.

Nayes was promoted to football operations coordinator / team travel in February of 2000. In that role he was responsible for all aspects of the team's group travel, including budget, team charters, hotel accommodations, meal arrangements and ground transportation. He continued to organize the Seahawks' mini-camps and training camps along with the creation and implementation of team operations schedules.

Nayes was an administrative assistant / football operations for the Green Bay Packers from 1997–99. He organized the Packers' mini-camps and training camps, assisted with team travel, practice organization and team operations. He was an intern with the Packers' Super Bowl team in January of 1997.

A program associate for the Wisconsin football team from May of 1994 until April of 1997, Nayes assisted with advance travel, recruiting, community outreach and coaches support for the Badgers. Nayes was a student manager for the Wisconsin football team from 1989–94.

Nayes is a 1994 graduate of UW–Madison with a degree in history. He is a native of Boyd, Wis. He and his wife, Paige, have a daughter, Natalia (2).

Mark Taurisani

Football Operations

Mark Taurisani is in his second season as a football operations assistant with the Wisconsin football program.

Taurisani assists with the Badgers' community service projects, recruiting, football camps and with day-to-day football operations.

Taurisani spent the summer of 2005 as a training camp assistant with the Seattle Seahawks. In that role he helped with set-up and operational duties, transportation and scheduling.

Taurisani is a native of Utica, N.Y. He graduated from SUNY Fredonia (B.A. in sociology/sports in 2003) where he captained the baseball team and earned first-team all-conference honors. He earned a master's degree in sport administration from Louisville in December of 2005.

Josh Sternquist

Football Operations

Josh Sternquist is in his second season as a football operations assistant with the Wisconsin football program. Previously, Sternquist served as a recruiting operations assistant for the Badgers from 2004–05.

Sternquist assists with the Badgers' community service projects, recruiting, football camps and with day-to-day football operations.

Sternquist was a three-year starter as a defensive back at Wisconsin-Whitewater (2001–03). Sternquist played at Valparaiso before moving on to UW–Whitewater.

Sternquist, a native of Belvidere, Ill., earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from UW–Whitewater in 2004. He and his wife, Kalen, are the parents of a daughter, Maggie.

Football Office Staff

Lisa Powell

Program Assistant

Lisa Powell has spent all 17 of her years at Wisconsin in the Badger football office. She presently serves as assistant to head coach Bret Bielema and assistant athletic director for football operations Bill Nayes.

Powell is a native of Madison, Wis. She is a graduate of Parks College in Denver. She worked as a travel agent prior to coming to the UW.

Sandy Freye

Program Assistant

Sandy Freye is in her 30th year at the UW–Madison and she has spent the last 29 1/2 of those years with the Badger football office.

She currently works with the defensive staff, as well as recruiting travel, expense accounts and summer camps.

Freye is a native of New Hope, Minn. She graduated from Sun Prairie (Wis.) High and earned an associate's degree from Madison Area Technical College.

Sharon Betlach

Program Assistant

Sharon Betlach has been with the Badger football office for nine years. She assists the recruiting program, maintaining the recruiting database and video library, coordinating recruit mailings as well as recruit visits.

Betlach is a native of Madison, Wis. A former middle school math teacher, she has bachelor's and master's degrees from Edgewood College. Betlach and her husband, Ron, have two sons and five grandchildren.

Megan Gossens

Program Assistant

Megan Gossens is in her third year with the Wisconsin football office. She currently serves as an assistant to the offensive staff, receptionist and contact for memorabilia donations and signature requests.

Gossens, who previously worked as an intern in the Wisconsin Athletic Ticket Office, also worked in external relations at the University of Akron. A native of Appleton, Wis., Gossens is a graduate of UW–La Crosse.

UW's Conference Champions

1896 Western Conference Champions

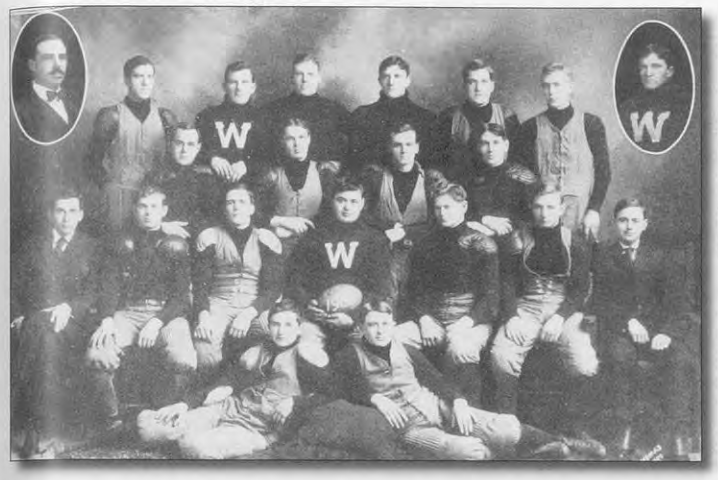
After opening the season with seven victories, the Badgers tied Northwestern 6-6 and lost to the Carlisle Indians. Despite the late-season swoon, the Badgers claimed the inaugural Western Conference title. The Badgers' tough defense registered shutouts in six of their seven victories. The loss to the Carlisle Indians was the first night game in school history (played indoors at the Chicago Coliseum).

1897 Western Conference Champions

Wisconsin won its second straight conference title and registered eight shutouts on the way to a 9-1 mark. The only loss was a 6-0 decision to the UW Alumni. Victories over Minnesota, Chicago and Northwestern propelled the Badgers to the Western Conference title. Australian kicker Pat O'Dea, the famed "Kangaroo Kicker," booted 14 field goals. It was the second league title for Coach Phil King.

1901 Western Conference Champions

Phil King's Badgers won nine straight games to become the first undefeated team in school history. Using a potent offense and stingy defense, Wisconsin defeated every opponent by at least three TDs and recorded eight shutouts. The Badgers outscored the opposition 317-5. Wisconsin's slate included two wins over high school teams and conference wins over Chicago and Minnesota.

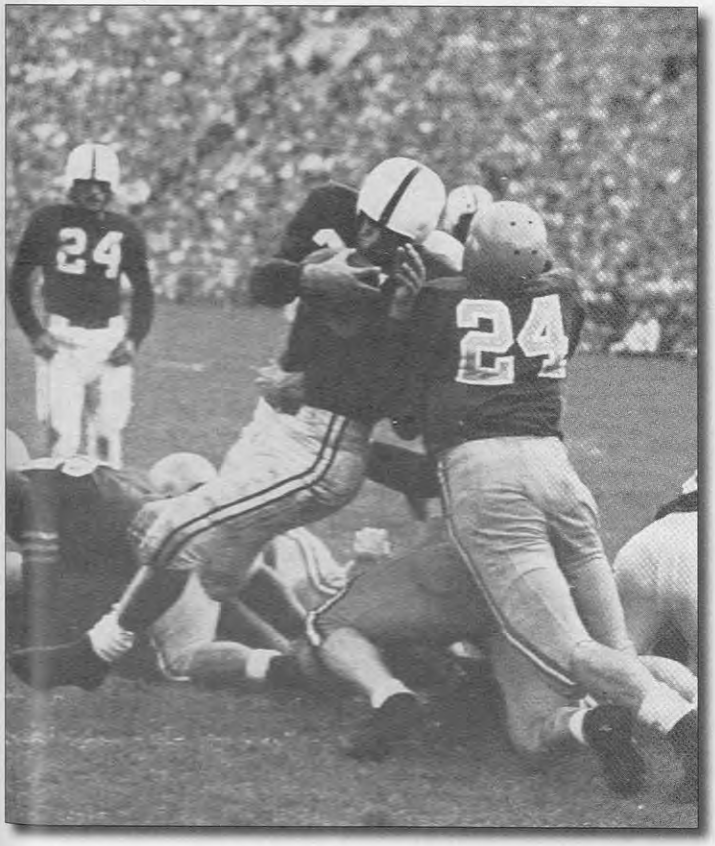


1906 Western Conference Champions

Although traditional league powers Minnesota, Michigan and Chicago were missing from the schedule due to a faculty reform movement, Wisconsin claimed a share of the conference championship with the Gophers. Coach Dr. C.P. Hutchins' team posted Western Conference wins over Iowa, Illinois and Purdue by a combined score of 63-15.

1912 Western Conference Champions

The Badgers ended their third undefeated (7-0) season with a 28-10 win at Iowa. Coach William Juneau's squad was the last Badger team to post a perfect record. Led by consensus All-America tackle Robert "Butts" Butler, the Badgers placed a school-record nine players on the All-Western Conference team. Wisconsin registered four shutouts and allowed only 29 points all year.



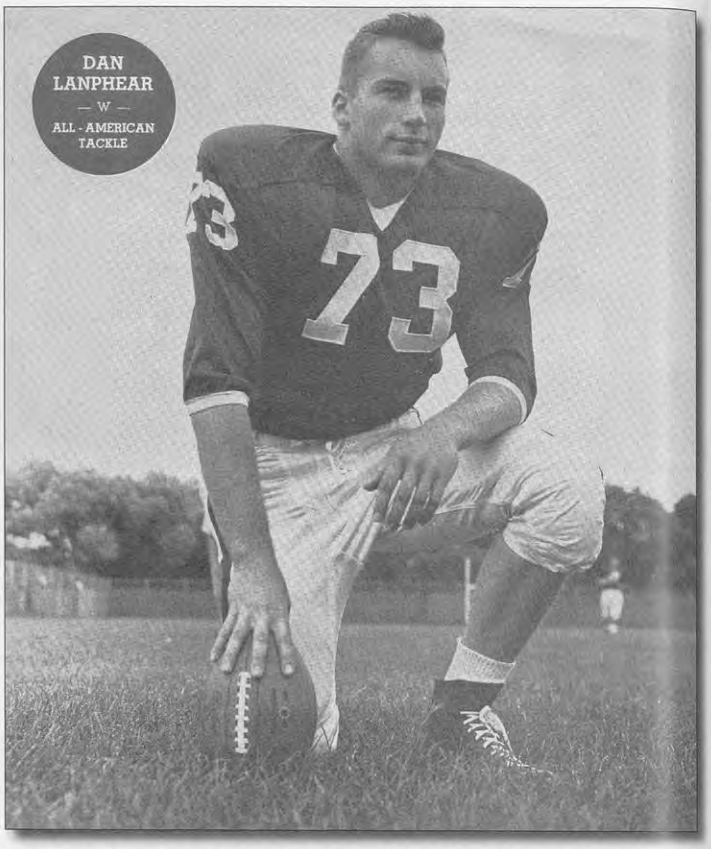
Alan Ameche recorded the first 1,000-yard rushing season by a Badger in 1952. He led the Big Ten with 1,079 rushing yards that season and finished his career in 1954 with an NCAA-best 3,345 yards.

1952 Big Ten Conference Champions

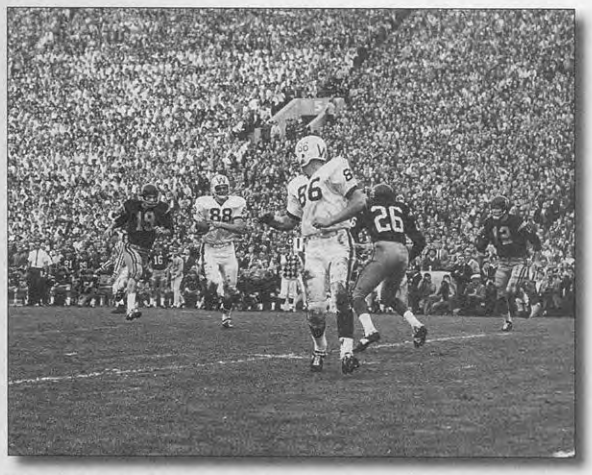
Following a 20-6 win over Illinois in the second game of the season, Wisconsin sat atop the polls as the nation's No. 1 team. The Badgers lost the following week, but went on to a 6-3-1 record and the school's first Rose Bowl appearance. After losing to USC 7-0 in Pasadena, the Badgers ended the season ranked 10th by United Press International and 11th by Associated Press.

1959 Big Ten Conference Champions

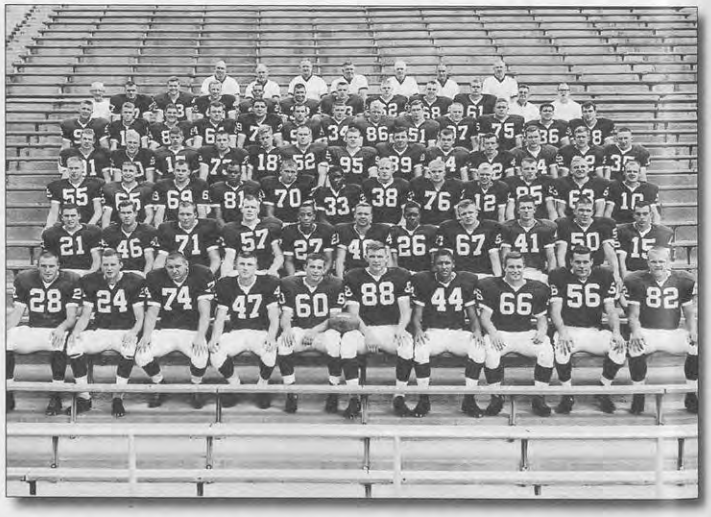
Needing a victory in the regular-season finale to clinch a league title, Wisconsin beat Minnesota 11-7. It was the Badgers' first undisputed title since 1912. At the Rose Bowl, Washington scored 17 points in the first quarter on the way to a 44-8 win. All-Big Ten QB Dale Hackbart and All-Big Ten guard Jerry Stalcup were stars on a club that finished the season ranked sixth by AP and UPI.



Left tackle Dan Lanphear was a consensus All-American and first-team All-Big Ten selection in 1959.



Pat Richter (#88 above, during the Rose Bowl) was a consensus first-team All-American in 1962, leading the Badgers to a berth in the Rose Bowl and a No. 2 national ranking.



1962 Big Ten Conference Champions

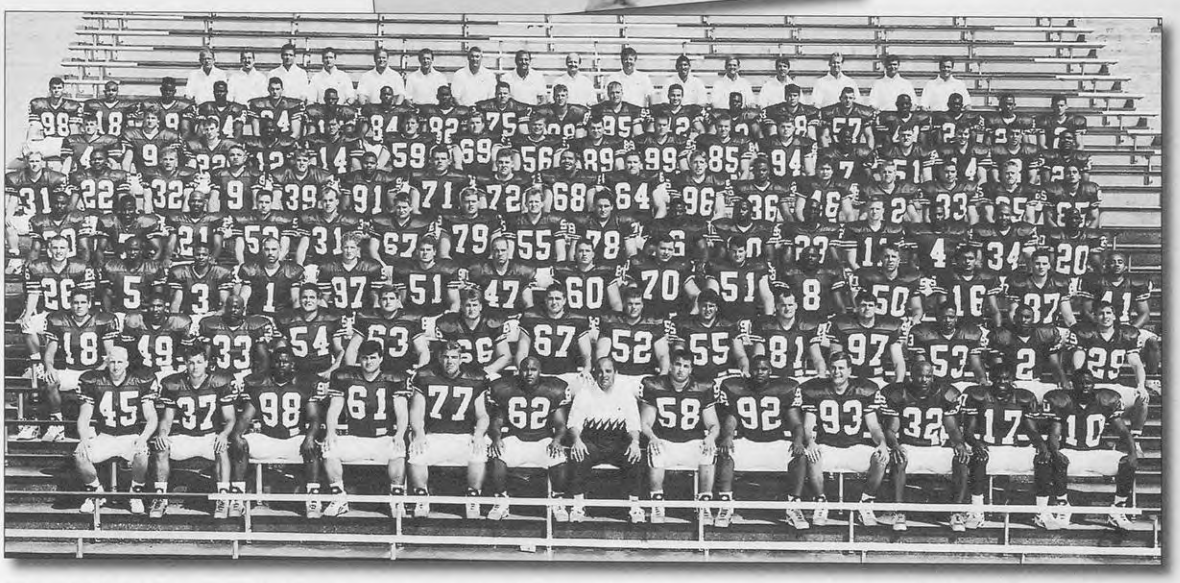
Although USC defeated Wisconsin 42-37 in perhaps the most exciting Rose Bowl ever, the Badgers finished the storybook campaign with an 8-1 record and ranked second nationally in both the AP and UPI polls. Ron Vander Kelen set a Rose Bowl record with 401 yards passing as UW scored 23 straight points in a fourth-quarter rally. Pat Richter was a consensus All-American after catching 49 passes.

1993 Big Ten Conference Champions

Darrell Bevell set or tied UW school records in passing yards (2,390), completion percentage (.678), passing touchdowns (19) and pass efficiency (155.2) in 1993. In 2005, John Stocco broke Bevell's records for passing yards and touchdowns.

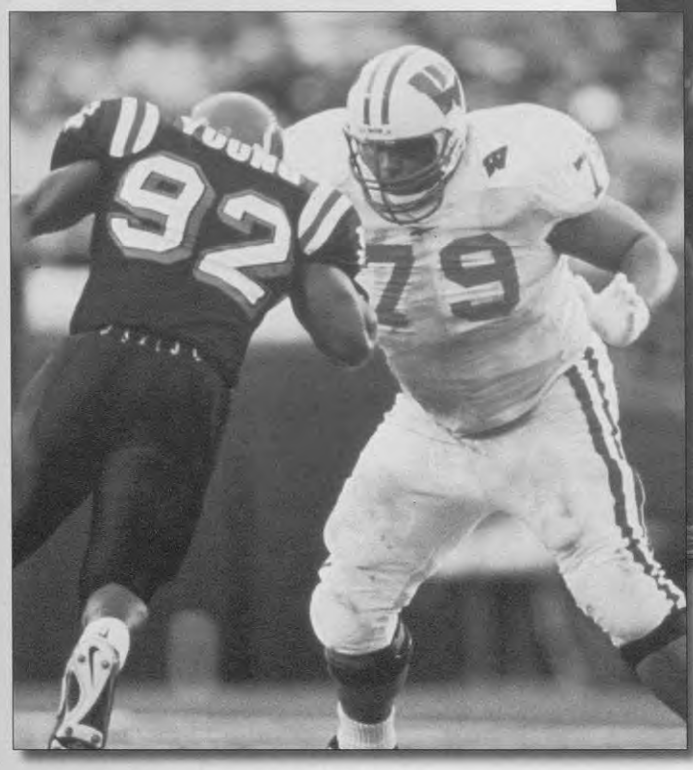
Brent Moss (above) was named Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP as he rushed for 1,637 yards in 1993.

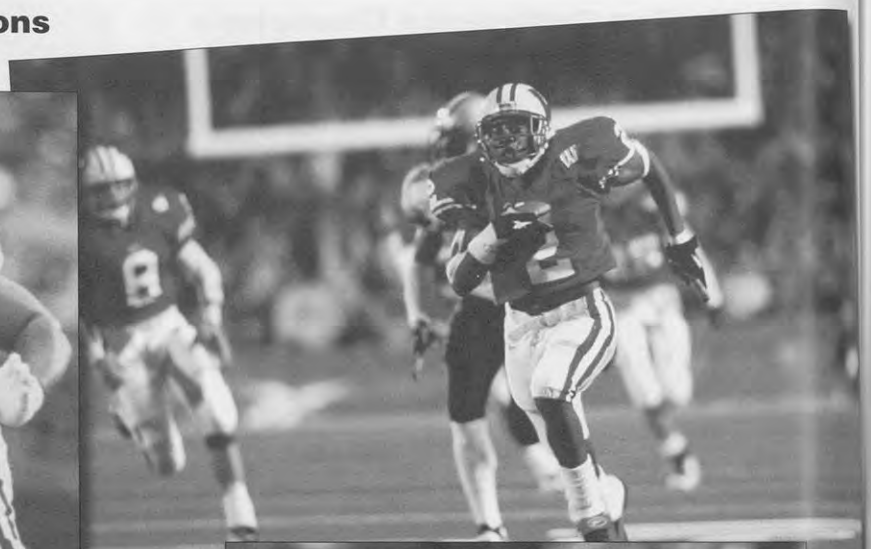
Jeff Messenger (right) recorded seven interceptions in 1993 and was named first-team All-Big Ten.

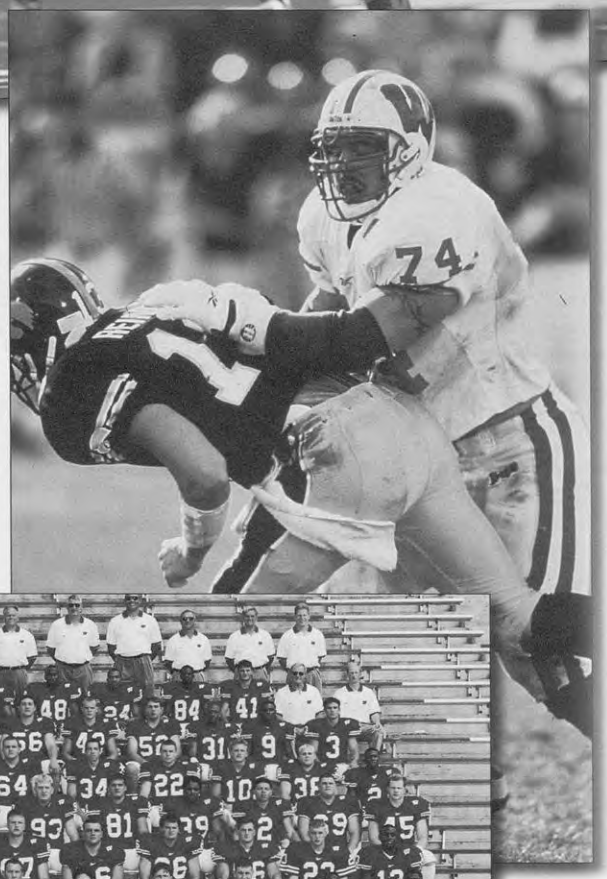


The 1993 Badgers established a new standard of excellence, shattering school records and earning numerous honors. After claiming Wisconsin's first Big Ten title in 32 years (a co-championship with Ohio State), the Badgers defeated UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. The 10-1-1 club set a Wisconsin record for wins and boasted eight first-team All-Big Ten players, including Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP Brent Moss. Wisconsin ended the season ranked fifth and sixth by the coaches (CNN/USA Today) and media (Associated Press), respectively.

1998 Big Ten Conference Champions



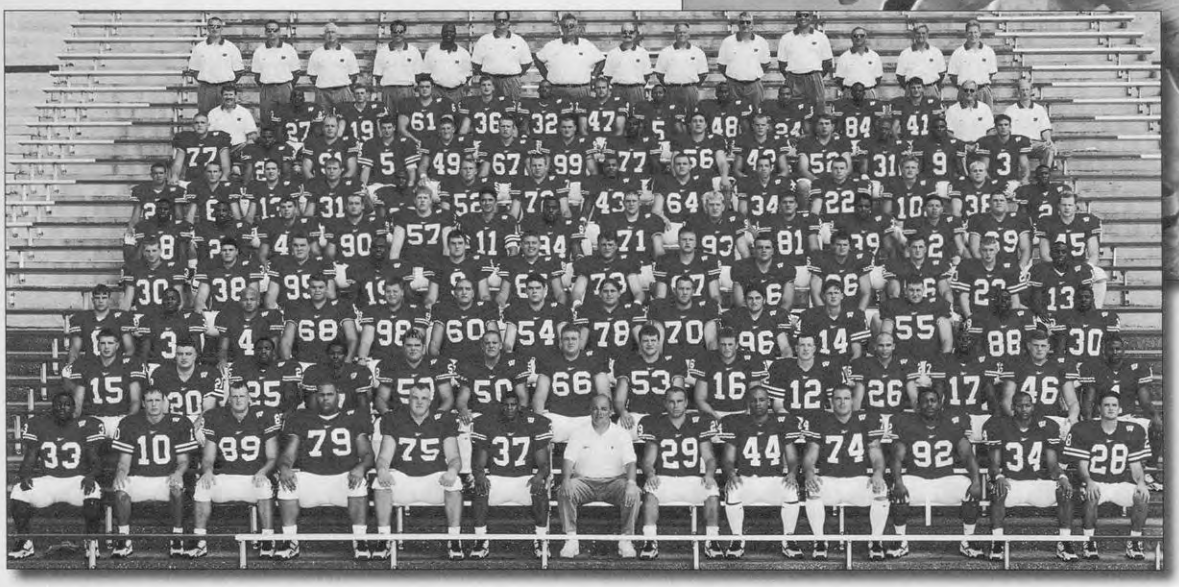




Aaron Gibson (above) was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy in 1998. He was selected in the first round of the 1999 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

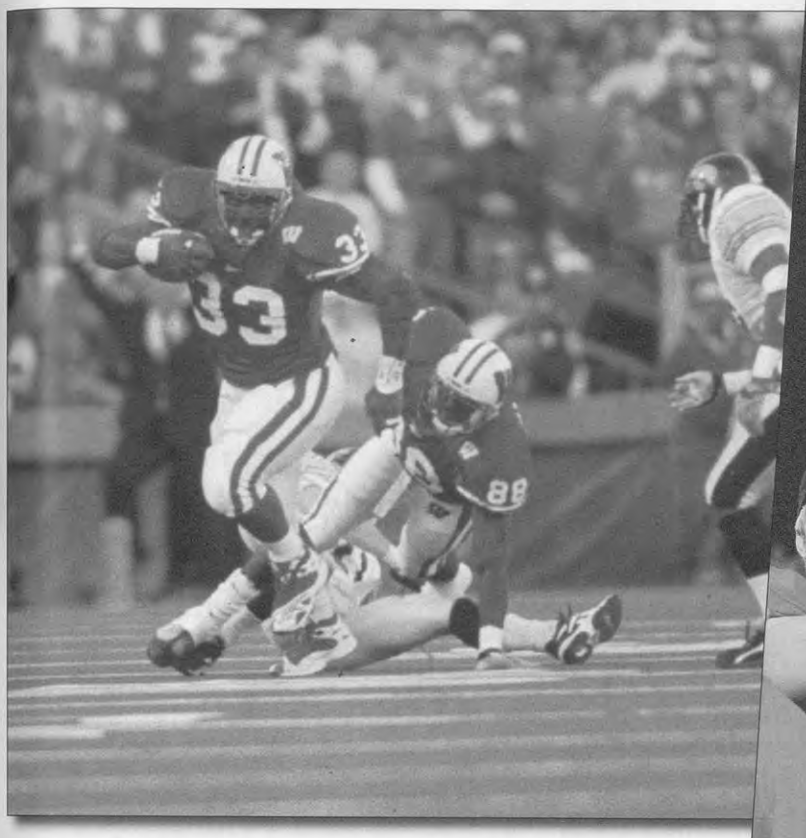
Jamar Fletcher (top right) returned this interception for a touchdown vs. Purdue to help the Badgers beat the Boilermakers 31-24. Fletcher led the NCAA in interceptions in 1998.

Tom Burke (right) led the nation and set a UW record with 22 sacks in 1998.



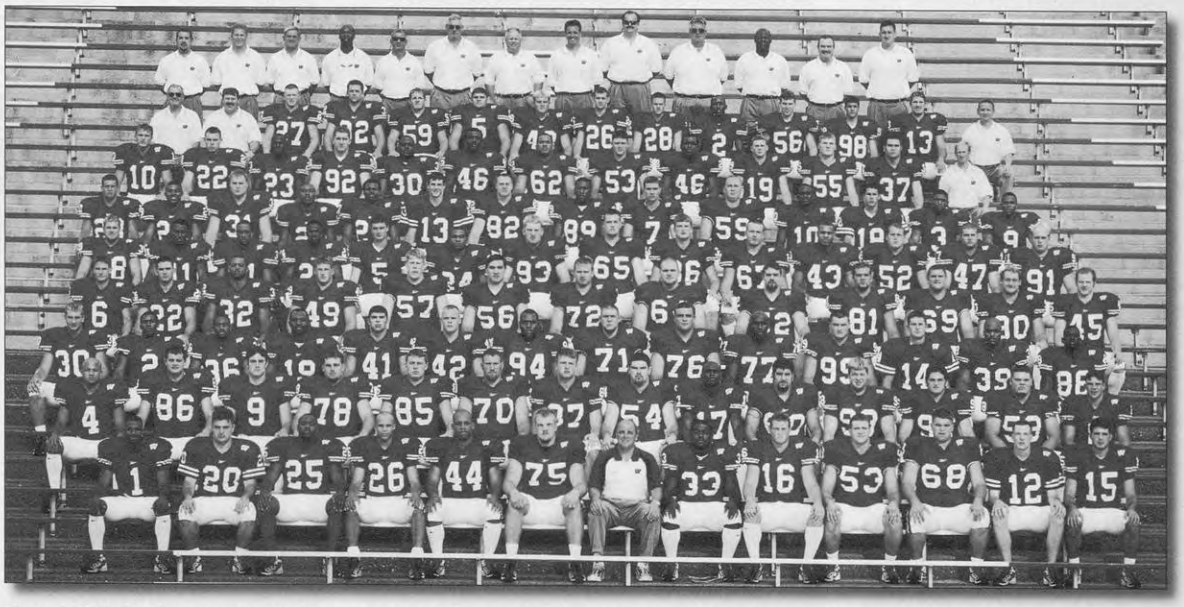
The 1998 Badgers concluded the second-winningest campaign in school history with a 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over sixth-ranked UCLA. The 1998 club opened the season with a nine-game winning streak and registered the best winning percentage (.916, 11-1) in the modern era at the UW. Aaron Gibson was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy and Ron Dayne was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. Tom Burke led the nation in sacks and Jamar Fletcher topped the NCAA in interceptions. Wisconsin was first nationally in turnover margin and scoring defense.

1999 Big Ten Conference Champions



Captains Chris McIntosh and Donnel Thompson (right) hoist the 1999 Big Ten Championship Trophy.

Ron Dayne (above) became the NCAA's all-time leading rusher with this 31-yard run vs. Iowa on the last day of the 1999 regular season. Dayne won the '99 Heisman with 2,042 votes.



The 1999 Badgers ended the season with an eight-game winning streak after splitting their opening four contests. A 17-9 win over Stanford in the Rose Bowl allowed UW to become the first Big Ten school in history to win consecutive games in "The Granddaddy of them all." Wisconsin won its first undisputed Big Ten championship since 1962 and finished fourth in each of the final national polls. Ron Dayne was the consensus national player of the year and won the Heisman Trophy. Chris McIntosh and Jamar Fletcher joined Dayne as first-team All-Americans.

PASADENA, Calif. — USC scored the game's only points on a 22-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by Alan Ameche's 133 yards rushing, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground.

Coach Ivy Williamson's club was the first in Badger history to play in a bowl game.

1960 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin. The Badger defense entered the bowl with a defensive average of barely 10 points allowed per game for the regular season.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a four-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8.

Ron Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both school and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Pat Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points scored was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

1981 Garden State

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a three-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost.

Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220.

1982 Independence

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game with a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

Randy Wright threw a game-record two TD passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 degrees below zero.

Wright, the game's offensive MVP, completed nine of 24 throws. However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in UW and Independence Bowl history. The Wisconsin defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

The Badgers' Tim Krumrie was the game defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry.

1984 Hall of Fame

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Trailing by a point after the Wildcats' Joe Worley booted a 52-yard field goal with eight minutes left, the Badgers drove inside Kentucky's 20-yard line. Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a three-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

Brent Moss

1994 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second down from the UCLA 21, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badger 18-yard line before Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

Jeff Messenger

1995 Hall of Fame

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half, including Jeff Messenger's 19-yard touchdown return.

Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third quarter. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

Ron Dayne

1996 Copper

TUCSON, Ariz. — Freshman tailback Ron Dayne concluded his remarkable rookie season with a 246-yard, three-touchdown performance in Wisconsin's 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

Dayne was named the game's Most Valuable Player. He totalled 152 yards by halftime as the Badgers opened up a commanding 31-3 lead.

The featured matchup between Dayne and Utah's Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, the nation's two largest runners, never materialized. The Ute ballcarrier hurt his ankle early in the game.

Badger defensive end Tarek Saleh was game defensive MVP with six tackles, one for a loss, one pass broken up and a blocked field goal. It was the Badgers' third bowl win in four seasons.

Chris Chambers

1998 Outback

TAMPA, Fla. — A potent offense and suffocating defense were on display in Georgia's 33-6 win over the Badgers in the 1998 Outback Bowl.

Buoyed by a game MVP performance from Bulldog QB Mike Bobo (26-of-28 passing for 235 yards), the Bulldogs scored the game's first 33 points. UGA completed 89.7 percent of its passes, the best-ever mark vs. a Badger defense.

A 12-yard pass from back-up quarterback Scott Kavanagh to tight end Dague Retzlaff was the Badgers' lone tally.

In a game that featured two of the nation's best runners — Wisconsin's Ron Dayne and Georgia's Robert Edwards — the Bulldog ballcarrier was the most effective. Edwards rushed for 110 yards and, more importantly, scored three TDs.

Badger Defense

1999 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — The 85th Rose Bowl was billed as a battle between Wisconsin's nationally-rated defense and UCLA's vaunted offense. In truth, the Badgers' Ron Dayne rambled his way to four touchdowns and the UW defense got a stop in the final minute to earn a 38-31 Rose Bowl triumph over the sixth-ranked Bruins.

Dayne's 246 yards rushing were one yard shy of the game record. The Badgers mixed in some timely running (65 yards) and passing (154) from QB Mike Samuel in building a 31-21 lead in the third period.

The Bruins cut the lead to three and were driving again when freshman Jamar Fletcher intercepted All-American Cade McNown and returned the pick for a TD.

The Bruins got the ball back trailing by seven on their 46-yard line with 1:42 left. Three incompletions by McNown set up Wendell Bryant's game-clinching sack.

Brooks Bollinger

2000 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — In what was supposed to be a battle of high-powered offenses, the 86th Rose Bowl game between Wisconsin and Stanford ended up a defensive struggle.

The Badgers rallied in the second half for a 17-9 win over the Cardinal. In the process, Wisconsin became the first Big Ten school in history to win the Rose Bowl in back-to-back seasons.

Ron Dayne, whose 64-yard run on the second play of the second half energized UW, earned game MVP honors for the second year in a row. Dayne's final game as a Badger included 200 yards on 34 carries.

The Badger defense bottled up Stanford's running attack, limiting them to minus five yards rushing (tied for the second-best mark in school history).

Michael Bennett

2000 Sun

EL PASO, Texas. — A furious second-half comeback — including big plays on special teams, a turnover from the defense and a balanced offense — contributed to Wisconsin's 21-20 victory over UCLA in the 2000 Sun Bowl.

After falling behind 20-7 with a little more than one-and-a-half quarters left, Michael Bennett turned the momentum with a 54-yard kickoff return. Brooks Bollinger's three-yard TD pass to Chris Chambers brought the Badgers to within 20-14.

On UCLA's next drive, Ben Herbert made a key fourth-down stop on a fake field goal by the Bruins. The Badgers took over on their own 30-yard line and drove for the tying score, a six-yard run by Bennett. Vitaly Pisetsky's conversion was the winning point.

Mike Allen

2002 Alamo

SAN ANTONIO, Texas — Wisconsin continued its remarkable run of success in bowl games, stunning 14th-ranked Colorado with a come-from-behind 31-28 overtime victory in the Alamo Bowl presented by MasterCard at the Alamodome.

Mike Allen booted a 37-yard field goal on Wisconsin's first possession of overtime to give the UW the victory. Colorado's Pat Brougham had missed a 45-yard field goal attempt on the Buffaloes' first OT possession.

Brooks Bollinger drove the Badgers 80 yards in 10 plays and capped the march with a 1-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime. During the final regulation drive, the Badgers converted twice on fourth down.

Lee Evans

2003 Music City

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Auburn scored twice in the final 3:30 to snap a 14-14 tie and defeat Wisconsin 28-14 in the Music City Bowl at the Coliseum.

Jim Sorgi had connected with Lee Evans on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 8:52 remaining. Sorgi then hit Owen Daniels for a two-point conversion that tied the game at 14.

Wisconsin stopped Auburn on the ensuing possession and drove to midfield before Will Herring intercepted a Sorgi pass at the Auburn 13-yard line. The Tigers then marched 87 yards in six plays, culminating in a 2-yard TD run by Ronnie Brown. The Tigers recovered a Sorgi fumble less than a minute later and iced the game on a one-yard TD run by Cadillac Williams.

Jonathan Orr

2005 Outback

TAMPA, Fla. — A late rally came up just short as 16th-ranked Wisconsin fell to No. 7 Georgia, 24-21, in the 2005 Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

The Bulldogs extended their 10-6 lead early in the third quarter by tallying a pair of touchdowns to make it 24-6 with 6:33 left.

Wisconsin countered as John Stocco capped a scoring drive with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Darrin Charles, and linebacker Andy Crooks jumped a screen pass and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown with 4:13 remaining.

Stocco completed a pass to Jonathan Orr for a two-point conversion to pull Wisconsin within 24-21, but that was as close as the Badgers would get.

Brian Calhoun

2006 Capital One

TAMPA, Fla. — In Barry Alvarez's final game on the UW sidelines, the Badgers sent him off in fitting fashion, with an upset win in a January bowl game.

Behind 213 yards from running back Brian Calhoun, Wisconsin dominated seventh-ranked Auburn, beating the Tigers 24-10. UW outgained Auburn 548-236 in total offense.

In the first half, Wisconsin could almost do no wrong. Defensive back Levonne Rowan stopped Auburn's initial drive with an interception, and John Stocco's touchdown tosses to Brandon Williams and TE Owen Daniels, along with a Taylor Mehlhaff field goal, gave the Badgers a 17-0 lead at the break.

John Stocco

2007 Capital One

TAMPA, Fla. — Wisconsin won its school record 12th game of the season and its second straight Capital One Bowl with a 17-14 victory over Arkansas. Quarterback John Stocco was named the most valuable player in his final appearance as a Badger.

The Badgers scored all their points in the first half. Trailing 7-3 in the first quarter, Stocco completed a pair of TD passes to Paul Hubbard and Travis Beckum to give UW a 17-3 lead at the half.

In the second half, UW's defense gave up just 110 total yards and just one touchdown. Arkansas got the ball twice in the fourth quarter trailing by three points but gained a combined zero yards on nine plays.

Retired Numbers

#35 Alan Ameche

Alan Ameche, the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner, was a three-time All-American and ended his career as the NCAA's all-time rushing leader. He led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl and rushed for 133 yards in that game. The four-time NFL Pro Bowl pick was inducted into the College Hall of Fame in 1975.

#40 Elroy Hirsch

Elroy Hirsch played only one season (1942) at UW, but he was one of the most beloved sports figures in school history. Hirsch, nicknamed "Crazylegs," rushed for 786 yards for Wisconsin's 8-1-1 team in 1942. He starred for nine years with the L.A. Rams and later served as UW's Director of Athletics (1969-87).

#88 Pat Richter

Pat Richter, who led the nation in receiving as a junior, was a consensus All-American in 1962. A two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection, he paced the conference in receiving in 1961 and 1962. A member of the Washington Redskins for eight seasons, Richter later returned to UW to serve as director of athletics (1989-2004).

#80 Dave Schreiner

Dave Schreiner, the two-time All-America end, was named Western Conference Player of the Year in 1942. Schreiner lettered three years at the UW as an end, both on offense and defense. He is a member of the National Football Foundation and W Club Halls of Fame. He was voted to the UW's all-time team in 1969.

#83 Allan Shafer

The memory of former quarterback Allan Shafer is continued with the "Living Memorial" Scholarship that is given in his name. Shafer was fatally injured during the 1944 Wisconsin-Iowa game. Shafer is one of two Badgers (Jay Seiler is the other) to die from a football-related injury.

ALL-TIME TEAM

In conjunction with the centennial celebration of college football in 1969, Wisconsin fans selected the school's all-time team. The 11-man unit features 1954 Heisman Trophy winner Alan Ameche, who was voted "All-time Greatest Player."

ALAN AMECHE (1951-54): 1954 Heisman Trophy winner ... set NCAA career rushing mark (3,345)

KEN BOWMAN (1961-63): 10-year NFL career with Packers ... played in East-West Shrine Game

HOWARD "CUB" BUCK (1913-15): Labeled by some as the best lineman of his era ... consensus All-American

PAT HARDER (1941-42): Second pick in NFL draft ... MVP of Chicago Tribune College All-Star Game

ELROY "CRAZYLEGS" HIRSCH (1942): Set many receiving records with Rams ... eventually served as Badger A.D.

DAN LANPHEAR (1957-59): Madison native was a 1959 All-American before pro career with Oilers

ARLIE MUCKS, SR. (1914): All-American on gridiron and silver medalist at Olympics (discus)

PAT RICHTER (1960-62): Hall of Fame inductee both on field and in classroom ... former Badger A.D.

DAVE SCHREINER (1940-42): First two-time All-American ... three TD catches in one quarter still a school record

RON VANDER KELEN (1962): Passed for 401 yards vs. No. 1-ranked USC in the 1963 Rose Bowl

ROBERT "RED" WILSON (1946-49): Big Ten MVP in 1949 ... played baseball for the Chicago White Sox, Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers

College Football Hall of Fame

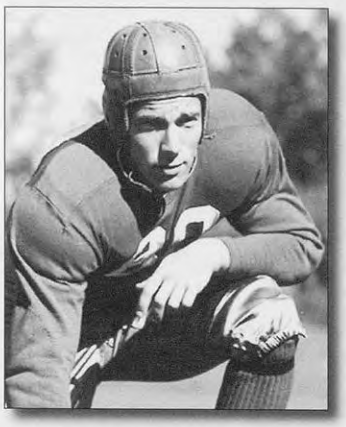
National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame

These seven former Badgers have received the highest honor the game of football affords. They have been inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. They are the greats of the game and their achievements are documented at the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind.

Pat O'Dea (elected in 1962), nicknamed "The Kangaroo Kicker," was a two-time All-America fullback and punter between 1896-99. He was also a two-time team captain.

Robert Butler (elected in 1972) was a three-year letterwinner at tackle and won all-league (1912-13) and All-America (1913) laurels.

Pat Harder (elected in 1993), an All-America fullback, was the Big Ten's scoring and rushing champion in 1941.



Dave Schreiner (elected in 1955), the two-time All-America end, was the Western Conference's MVP in 1942.

Pat Richter (elected in 1996) was a two-time All-America end and led the nation in receiving as a junior.

Marty Below (elected in 1988), a rugged right tackle, earned All-America praise as a senior.

Alan Ameche (elected in 1975) was the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner and a multi-year All-American in the classroom and on the field.

Badgers in the Pros

The following former Badgers either played or are still active in professional football. These lists were provided by teams from the National Football League, Canadian Football League, World Football League and United States Football League. Only players officially recognized as "rostered" professional players by those organizations are listed.

Current professionals (as of 2006 opening day rosters) are listed in ALL CAPS. Currently there are 30 former Badgers active in the NFL.

John Dettmann

Head Coach, 18th year

John Dettmann is in his 18th year as a strength and conditioning coach at Wisconsin and his 16th as the Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Department of Athletics. In this role, he oversees conditioning programs and facilities for all Badger athletic teams but works primarily with the Wisconsin football team. During his tenure, the Badgers have played in 12 bowl games and won three Big Ten titles.

Prior to UW, Dettmann worked in administration at the Houston (1984-86) and Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., (1988-89) YMCAs. Dettmann earned his B.S. degree in corporate fitness from UW-Oshkosh.

At UW-Oshkosh, Dettmann was an honorable mention All-American, team MVP and athlete of the year as a senior wide receiver. He signed a free agent contact with the Green Bay Packers in 1982. He was inducted into the UW-Oshkosh Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Dettmann and his wife, Janet, have one daughter, Jordan.

Brian Bott

Assistant Coach, eighth year

Brian Bott joined the Wisconsin strength and conditioning staff in May 2000 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association. At UW, his primary responsibilities include assisting in all aspects of sports conditioning for the football team.

Bott completed a master's degree in kinesiology from the University of North Dakota in 2000. During his stint with the Fighting Sioux, Bott served as a graduate assistant strength coach, where he was responsible for men's basketball, volleyball, baseball and the swimming and diving teams. Bott also assisted with football and men's hockey.

Bott received his bachelor's degree from UW-Oshkosh in 1997. At UW-Oshkosh Bott was a four-year starter and a member of the 1994 NCAA Division III National Championship baseball team. He is the only player in school history to play in every inning of every game without redshirting for four years.

Bott and his wife, Kristen, have three sons: Cameron, Jaydon and Carson.

Ben Herbert

Assistant Coach, fifth year

Ben Herbert first joined the UW strength and conditioning staff in the fall of 2002 as an intern under John Dettmann. After completing his internship over the course of the 2002 season, Herbert was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach in February 2003. His primary responsibilities include assisting with all aspects of sports conditioning for the football team.

Prior to joining the staff at Wisconsin, Herbert was a student-athlete at UW where he received his undergraduate degree in 2002. As a member of the Badger football team, Herbert was a four-year letterwinner and was a two-year starter on the defensive line under Coach John Palermo. During his tenure, he participated in two Rose Bowl championships and a Sun Bowl victory.

A native of Pittsburgh, Herbert currently resides in the Madison area.

Sports Medicine

Dennis Helwig

Assistant Athletic Director, 32nd year

Dennis Helwig is in his 32nd year of athletic training at Wisconsin and his fourth year as an Assistant Athletic Director. He supervises 15 licensed athletic trainers, who provide medical services for student-athletes in 23 sport programs. Additionally, he supervises sport nutrition services, coordinates the department's drug testing program, and serves as the HIPPA coordinator for privacy of student-athletes' medical records.

Helwig is a native of Columbus, Wis. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education and dance from UW-Madison. After spending a year with the Philadelphia Eagles football team, he returned to Madison in 1975 to work as an athletic trainer for football and hockey. During this tenure, he worked with legendary coaches Bob Johnson and Jeff Sauer, who led the men's hockey team to great success, including multiple NCAA championships.

Helwig became head athletic trainer in 1985, working primarily with football and many of Wisconsin's renowned head football coaches, including John Jardine, Dave McClain and Barry Alvarez. He provided support for the Big Ten Championship and Rose Bowl teams of 1994 and 1999. His administrative duties as assistant athletic director began in July of 2003.

Helwig was the 1984 men's Olympic hockey trainer and served on the medical team for the 1987 World University Summer Games. He served as president of the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers' Association for six years and spearheaded the campaign that resulted in licensure of athletic trainers in the state of Wisconsin. He was inducted into the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame in 2001. Dennis and his wife, Jan, live in Verona with their 17-year old son, Christopher.

Clark Pearson

Head Athletic Trainer, third year

Head football athletic trainer Clark Pearson begins his third season with the Badgers in 2007. Prior to joining UW in June 2005, Pearson served eight years at Big 12 football powerhouse Oklahoma as an assistant athletic trainer for football, baseball, wrestling and women's soccer. With the Sooners, he guest lectured with area public schools and at the University of Oklahoma Sports Medicine Symposium. In addition, he supervised the graduate assistants and student athletic trainers and was a consultant for an online interactive sports injury Web site. He also assisted in the facility design of two new training rooms at Oklahoma. Clark and the OU football sports medicine staff participated in a two-year research study with the Gatorade Sports Science Institute studying "Salt Depletion and Cramping in Collegiate Football Players." Prior to leaving Norman, Clark was working on a case report with the baseball team orthopedic physician on "Contact Ulnar Fracture in a Collegiate Baseball Player."

In 2001, Pearson and the staff at OU were honored as the Big 12 Conference Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

Pearson earned his master's degree in human relations at Oklahoma while serving as a graduate assistant athletic trainer with football, baseball, track, tennis and volleyball.

Prior to his time at Oklahoma, the Franklin, Ky., native received his undergraduate degree in sports management from the University of Kentucky. He worked as a student trainer with baseball, men's basketball, football and gymnastics.

While at Kentucky, Pearson co-founded and coordinated a camp for high school student trainers. Additionally, he served as the three-year coordinator of medical materials and supplies at the Bluegrass State Games.

Pearson is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association. He is licensed by the state of Wisconsin as an athletic trainer and is also certified by the American Red Cross as a First Aid/CPR/AED instructor.

Pearson and his wife, Nancy, have one son, Bradley. They reside in Madison.

Mike Moll

Assistant Athletic Trainer, eighth year

Mike Moll is entering his eighth season as an athletic trainer after joining the staff in the fall of 2000. In this capacity, Moll provides athletic training coverage for football. Prior to comig to Wisconsin, Moll served as the head athletic trainer at Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wis.

Moll received his Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1996 and his master's degree in higher education administration from Auburn University in 1999.

Moll is a State of Wisconsin Licensed Athletic Trainer and certified member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association.

He and his wife, Jodi, have one daughter, Morgan. They reside in Madison.

Jesse Donnenwerth

Assistant Athletic Trainer, second year

Jesse Donnenwerth joined the sports medicine staff at Wisconsin in 2006. His athletic training coverage includes wrestling and football. Prior to joining the Badger staff, Donnenwerth worked as an athletic training student at the University of Iowa.

After graduating with an exercise science degree, he earned a Master's of Science degree in health education from Virginia Tech in 2005. During that time, he provided athletic training for wrestling, football, and men's soccer. He then obtained a Doctorate in Education and Curriculum Instruction at Virginia Tech.

Donnenwerth brings extensive wrestling experience, which includes working at the US Open Wrestling Championships, and the US Olympic Wrestling Trials.

Donnenwerth is a certified member of the NATA, and is licensed to practice in the state of Wisconsin. He is also certified in First Aid/CPR/AED.

Video Services

Rob Porteus

Director of Video Services, fourth year

Rob Porteus joined the Wisconsin Department of Athletics in 2004 after serving the previous four seasons as the video director for the NFL's Washington Redskins. At UW, Porteus manages the entire video operation for the Badgers' 23-sport intercollegiate program and oversees a staff of six assistant directors and numerous students. His main sport responsibility is football, but he also has oversight duties for the video needs of all UW sports.

Porteus, who has 10 seasons of NFL experience with three teams, was an assistant video coordinator for four years with the Baltimore Ravens (1996-2000) and a video services assistant for two seasons (1994-95) with the Chicago Bears.

Porteus has worked for head coaches Dave Wannstedt, Ted Marchibroda, Brian Billick, Norv Turner, Terry Robiskie, Marty Schottenheimer, Steve Spurrier, Joe Gibbs, Barry Alvarez, and now Bret Bielema. Both in Washington and Wisconsin, Porteus led the installation of new editing systems. He also coordinated a tape format change for the video needs for the Redskins.

Porteus has worked at the NFL Scouting Combine, the Senior Bowl (1998), Japan Bowl (2002), East-West Shrine Game (2003), Hula Bowl (2004), Outback Bowl (2005), and Capital One Bowl (2006 & 2007).

Porteus is a native of Fredonia, Wis., and earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Platteville.

David Blaker

Assistant Football Coordinator, fourth year

David Blaker is in his fourth season at Wisconsin. As an assistant video coordinator, Blaker is responsible for editing all of Wisconsin's practices and games. Blaker came to Wisconsin from the NFL's Washington Redskins, where he completed an internship under current UW video services director Rob Porteus. In Washington, Blaker traveled with the team and provided video prints in the coaches booth.

Prior to his experience with the Redskins, Blaker was the assistant video director for one season with NFL Europe's Scottish Claymores.

Blaker, a native of Manassas, Va., earned his B.A. in mass communications from Idaho State in 2001. While earning his degree, Blaker was a video assistant with the football team.

Blaker and his wife, Hollie, have two sons, Edward and Alex.

Joe Yang

Assistant Football Coordinator, second year

Joe Yang is in his second season as the assistant football coordinator in the video services department. Yang is responsible for editing UW practices and games and is in charge of opponent tape exchange for scouting purposes. In addition, Yang also creates motivational video material for the student-athletes.

Yang joined the UW Department of Athletics after two seasons as the football video director at Urbana University and two seasons as an editing assistant with the football program at Ohio State. With the Buckeyes, Yang edited and prepared footage of numerous special teams and defensive drills in preparation of the 2006 Fiesta Bowl.

Yang earned his bachelor's degree in cinema/photography from Ithaca College in 1999. In 2002, he earned a M.S. in digital imaging and design from New York University.

During his time in his native New York City, Yang served as a Broadcast Production Coordinator for Admerasia, Inc., where he coordinated the planning, budgeting, production and launching of 15 multilingual television commercials.

Equipment

Terry Schlatter

Director of Equipment, 11th year

Terry Schlatter is entering his 11th year at Wisconsin but has long been a veteran of athletic equipment management. Entering the equipment profession in 1978, Schlatter has directed the equipment departments at Western Michigan University, (Kalamazoo, Mich.), Purdue University, (West Lafayette, Ind.) and has been with the University of Wisconsin-Madison since 1997. A graduate of Purdue University with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Schlatter lettered in baseball and was the MVP of the 1978 Boilermaker squad.

Schlatter has been actively involved in the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) as district director, vice president and president. Presently he represents AEMA on the Board of Directors for the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE). Schlatter serves as Treasurer for NOCSAE, which sets product safety standards for a vast majority of the athletic equipment being used in sports competition today.

Schlatter has served as a consultant with Adams Plastics, Bike Athletics and Schutt Manufacturing on their Advisory Boards. He also served on the Editorial Board for Athletic Management Magazine.

Schlatter lives in Stoughton, Wis., with his wife, Julie. He has two daughters, Rachel and Renee.

Mark Peeler

Equipment Manager, 13th year

Mark Peeler is in his 13th season working with the Wisconsin football program. Peeler is responsible for player and staff apparel and equipment. He also maintains regular contact with adidas, Wisconsin's official vendor, to communicate equipment and apparel needs.

Peeler began at UW in April 1995 as an assistant football equipment manager. In 1997, he was promoted to football equipment manager for the Badgers.

Prior to his time in Madison, Peeler spent two seasons as an assistant equipment manager at Syracuse, where he worked with the football and men's and women's basketball programs. Peeler is a Certified Athletic Equipment Manager.

Peeler also completed internships with equipment staffs at North Carolina and Northwestern. While earning his bachelor's degree in sport management from Western Carolina, Peeler also served as a student manager for both the basketball and football teams.

Peeler and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Jarrett and Max.

Terry Calloway

Assistant Equipment Manager, 10th year

Terry Calloway is in his 10th year overall at Wisconsin, which includes two seperate stints. His second term with the Badgers began in July 2001. Calloway is responsible for packing equipment for road trips and also takes inventory of current and incoming equipment.

Prior to his second stint at Wisconsin, Calloway was an assistant equipment manager for the XFL's Chicago Enforcers, where he served in a similar capacity.

Calloway, an Assistant District Director for District Five of the A.E.M.A. and a Certified Athletic Equipment Manager, began his first stint at UW in June 1997 as an assistant football manager.

After graduating from Western Carolina, where he served as a student manager for four years, Calloway worked with the Wichita Wranglers baseball program in Wichita, Kan. He also completed a two-year internship at Northwestern.

Endowed Scholarships

At the University of Wisconsin, endowment funds to support athletic scholarships and operational needs are created through gifts made to Wisconsin Athletics that are managed and invested by the UW Foundation. A portion of the income from the endowed fund is used each year for scholarship and program support according to the donor's wishes and the remainder is reinvested in the principal.

The following endowed funds, named for the donor or for someone the donor wishes to honor, provide much needed support for Badger student-athletes. For information about how to endow a named fund in athletics, please contact:

The Badger Fund

To sustain the kind of academic and athletic success that has characterized the University of Wisconsin-Madison as one of the nation's finest athletic programs, widespread support is instrumental.

That support begins at the top, through the commitment of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin system, the UW-Madison chancellor's office and the Athletic Board. That commitment extends to the thousands of Badger supporters throughout the nation who contribute in many different ways.

Ultimately, the success of the UW Department of Athletics depends in great part on the collective loyalty and generosity of alumni and friends. One of the areas in which people can support Wisconsin Athletics is through contributions to the Badger Fund.

The Badger Fund was started to enhance the university's athletic programs by helping to financially support more than 750 student-athletes in 23 sports as they strive for excellence both academically and athletically.

Because the UW-Madison Athletics Department receives little of its $78 million annual budget from state appropriations, private support is essential to its continued success.

Contributions to the Badger Fund from more than 15,000 individuals and companies fund the scholarship needs of student-athletes and help provide the finest public university education and athletic facilities experiences available.

Your continued support will help UW student-athletes achieve their academic and athletic dreams and will assist the University of Wisconsin Division of Intercollegiate Athletics in its effort to reach lofty goals both on the field and in the classroom.

National W Club

The National W Club is a very unique alumni organization. You must have won a letter in an intercollegiate sport at the University of Wisconsin-Madison to be a member. The National W Club recognizes all sports and both male and female athletes in its membership.

Active member benfits include:

- W Club Scholarship Fund - For children of W Club members attending UW Madison
- Tri-annual issues of Chalk Talk, the official newsletter of the National W Club.
- Invitation to W Club special events: Crazylegs Classic Run, Badger Desert Classic, Badger Blast & Chili Kickoff tailgates, Brewer Games, Blood Drives, W Club Receptions, the Annual Membership Banquet and many more.
- The W Club hosts team reunions at our Annual Banquet.
- Join former letterwinners on the football field in a new tradtion, "The Letterwinner's Tunnel", at the last home football game of the season.

W CLUB MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the National W Club is to nurture the legacy, tradition and values that come from participation in Intercollegiate Athletics.

Through a strong, active membership of W award winners and by financial and other support for the University of Wisconsin-Madison, we champion an environment of academic excellence for all who wear the cardinal and white.

"I may not live in Madison anymore but the W Club keeps me well-connected to UW Athletics. The newsletter always keeps me informed. The W Club helps fulfill my passion for helping young people. I enjoy getting back to campus when I can share my experiences. As former athletes, we're fortunate to have a strong alumni organization like the National W Club as a resource."

Troy Vincent, current president of the NFL Players Association (UW, 1988–91)

The Mendota Gridiron Club, incorporated in 1979, assists the Wisconsin football staff in continuing the successful program established over the years. The organization, which originated as the Mendota Association in 1949, began with a small group of loyal Wisconsin football fans. It has since grown over the years and members currently number in the thousands.

Any individual may become a member of the Mendota Gridiron Club, Inc., by contributing money, material or services needed and requested by the UW Athletic Department or football program. All contributions (cash or in kind) entitle the contributor to membership status of the calendar year in which the contribution is made.

Contributions made to the Mendota Gridiron Club will earn credit in the Badger Fund priority point system and count toward your annual giving levels and related Badger Fund benefits.

Benefits and membership in the Mendota Gridiron Club, which has regional clubs throughout Wisconsin and Illinois, include weekly meetings during football season, sponsorship of the annual football banquet, a party to celebrate the end of recruiting season in February, the annual Bret Bielema Shootout and Bielema Invitational golf tournaments.

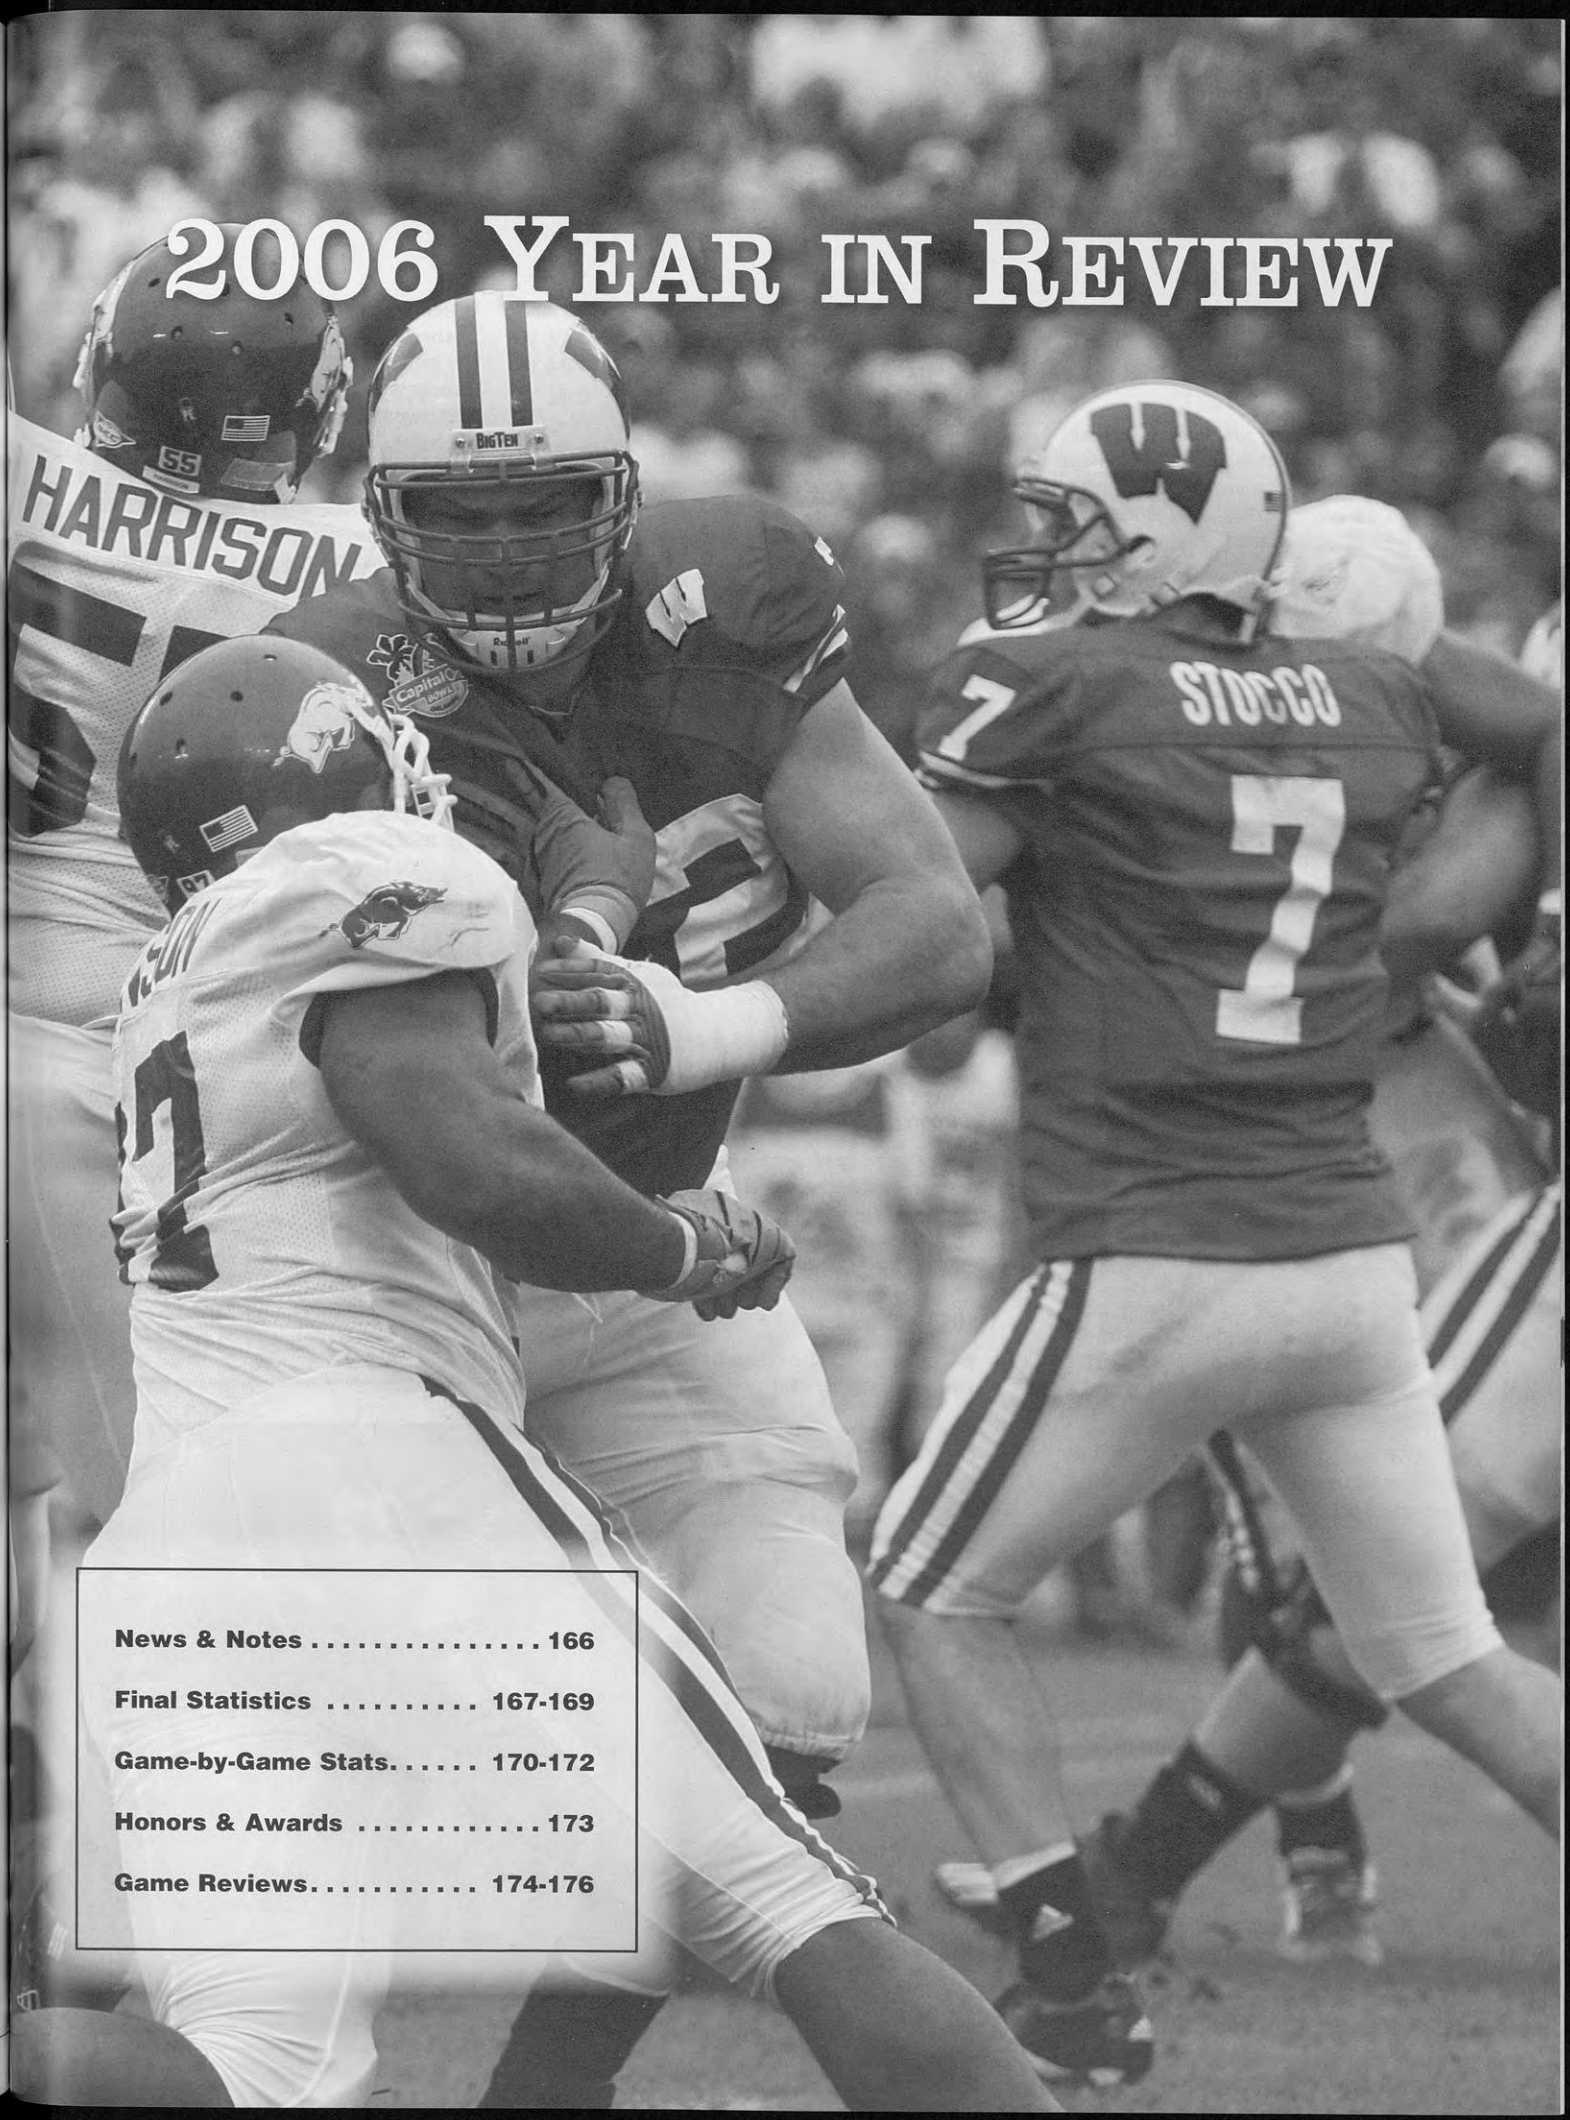
2006 Year in Review



News & Notes 166
Final Statistics 167-169
Game-by-Game Stats. 170-172
Honors & Awards 173
Game Reviews. 174-176

2006 News and Notes

▶ Wisconsin finished the 2006 season with a 12-1 overall mark and 7-1 Big Ten record that was good for a second-place tie with Michigan.

▶ The Badgers' 12 victories last year were a school record for a single season. In fact, only one other team in school history has won 11 games. The 1998 Badgers were 11-1, including a victory in the Rose Bowl.

▶ UW is the seventh Big Ten team since 1905 to record a 12-win season (includes Ohio State in 2006).

WINNINGEST SEASONS IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Year	Record (Pct.)
2006	12-1 (.923)
1998	11-1 (.917)
1993	10-1-1 (.875)
1999	10-2 (.833)
2005	10-3 (.769)

▶ The 2006 season marked just the third time Wisconsin has won seven conference games. The 1998 and 1999 Big Ten champion Badger teams were both 7-1 in league play.

▶ UW was 7-0 at home in 2006. The only other team in school history to win seven home games was the 1898 squad that also was 7-0.

▶ The Badgers are 23-4 in their last 27 games at Camp Randall Stadium in Madison. That includes an 18-1 mark in their home facility since the start of the 2004 season.

▶ UW has accumulated a 31-7 record since the start of the 2004 season. Only nine other schools in the nation have won 30 games during the past three seasons combined. The only other time in school history that Wisconsin has won 30 games in three seasons was from 1998-2000 (30-7 record).

HOME WINS LAST THREE SEASONS

Wisconsin is one of only five schools in the nation to have lost no more than one home game during the past three seasons. Here is the complete list:

School	Record
Boise State	19-0
USC	18-0
Louisville	17-0
Florida	19-1
Wisconsin	18-1

CONSISTENT WINNERS

Wisconsin is one of just nine teams in the nation to have won at least nine games in each of the past three seasons. Here is the complete list:

Auburn
Boise State
Boston College
LSU
Louisville
USC
Texas
Virginia Tech
Wisconsin

▶ Wisconsin finished the season on a nine-game winning streak. Only Boise State (13) and BYU (10) have longer active win streaks than the Badgers.

▶ The only other team in school history to finish the regular season with nine consecutive victories was the 1901 squad that finished the season 9-0. The Badgers' record that season included wins over Milwaukee Medical School and Hyde Park High School.

▶ Based on the eligibilities listed on two-deep depth charts of Big Ten schools, Wisconsin had the second-youngest team in the conference in 2006. Indiana was the only squad younger than the Badgers. Illinois was third, followed by Minnesota, Northwestern, Penn State and Iowa (tied), Michigan State, Ohio State, Purdue and Michigan.

▶ Wisconsin, which has ranked 16th or higher in national attendance average in each of the past 14 seasons, has drawn a crowd of at least 70,000 fans to 88 consecutive home games. Among those 88 games, 78 have been sellouts, including the last 25 in a row. The Badgers averaged a school-record 82,551 fans during their six-game home slate in 2005.

▶ The Badgers averaged 81,368 fans per home game last season, third-most in school history and the 14th-highest average in the nation.

GOING OUT ON TOP

The 2006 Wisconsin senior class went down as one of the most successful in school history. The winningest senior class at Wisconsin was the group that was together from 1997-2000. That class put together a 38-12 record for a winning percentage of .760. The most successful senior classes at Wisconsin are:

2000 seniors: 38-12 (.760)
2006 seniors: 38-13 (.745)
1999 seniors: 37-13 (.740)
2001 seniors: 35-14 (.714)

2006 Game Recaps

Wisconsin 35 Bowling Green 14

Sept. 2 • Cleveland Browns Stadium

CLEVELAND, Ohio -- First-year head coach Bret Bielema and the University of Wisconsin football team opened the 2006 season with a 35-14 victory over Bowling Green in Cleveland Browns Stadium.

Wisconsin put points on the board in all four quarters en route to the win. Quarterback John Stocco completed 9-of-15 passes for 124 yards and one touchdown. Running back P.J. Hill, playing in his first game as a Badger, rushed for 130 yards on 22 carries and scored his first touchdown late in the game.

On the defensive side of the ball, Mark Zalewski led the Badgers with a career-high 14 tackles. Jonathan Casillas blocked a punt that he recovered for a touchdown in the second quarter.

Sept. 9 • Camp Randall Stadium

MADISON, Wis. -- Wisconsin freshman P.J. Hill ran for 101 yards and three touchdowns as the Badgers beat Western Illinois, 34-10, before a sellout crowd Sept. 9 at Camp Randall Stadium, earning UW its second win of the season.

Hill rushed for 85 yards in the first half and turned in the first multiple touchdown game of his career. QB John Stocco completed 15-of-25 passes for 227 yards and improved to 21-6 as a starter.

Joe Stellmacher, who ended the Leathernecks' first drive of the second half with an interception in the end zone, paced the Badgers with seven tackles.

Jonathan Casillas blocked a punt and recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown in the Badgers' season-opening win over Bowling Green in Cleveland Browns Stadium.

Wisconsin 14 San Diego State 0

Sept. 16 • Camp Randall Stadium

MADISON, Wis. — Wisconsin scored two second-half touchdowns while limiting San Diego State to 115 total yards as the Badgers improved to 3-0 with a 14-0 victory over the Aztecs Sept. 16 at Camp Randall Stadium.

UW allowed 25 yards in the second half and recorded its first shutout since blanking Temple, 65-0, on Sept. 10, 2005. The Aztecs (0-2) had scored 27 or more points in four consecutive games dating back to last season. Featured back Lynell Hamilton, who ranks in the top-10 in career rushing yards at SDSU, was limited to 26 yards on six carries.

Linebacker Mark Zalewski recorded a team-high eight tackles for the Badgers and was involved in three of UW's five sacks of Aztec quarterback Darren Mougey.

Offensively, Wisconsin rushed for 287 yards while wearing down the SDSU defense. P.J. Hill recorded his third-consecutive 100-yard game. John Stocco completed 12-of-23 passes for 85 yards, including a six-yard strike to a wide open Paul Hubbard in the back of the end zone on third-and-goal with 7:06 remaining. A 48-yard run by Dywon Rowan helped lead to the score.

Wisconsin 52 Indiana 17

Sept. 30 • Memorial Stadium

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – The Wisconsin football team (4-1, 1-1 Big Ten) got its first conference win of the season, defeating Indiana (2-3, 0-1) 52-17 Sept. 30 at Memorial Stadium.

The Badgers scored touchdowns on five consecutive possessions in the first half, resulting in a 35-0 halftime lead.

In the second quarter, UW's offense picked up right where it left off. Starting with the ball at their own 37, the Badgers embarked on an 11-play, 63-yard drive, culminating in Stocco's 15-yard touchdown pass to Paul Hubbard. Wisconsin scored again just 2:18 later after Allen Langford forced and recovered an IU fumble, returning it to the Indiana 23-yard line. Three plays later, Stocco found tight end Andy Crooks for his third TD pass of the half.

After UW sat its starters, Indiana finally got on the scoreboard with 9:54 left in the game when Austin Starr kicked a 21-yard field goal. Indiana tacked on two touchdowns late in the fourth for the final margin.

Coverage Guidelines

Wisconsin Football 2007 is a publication designed to inform the media and general public about the Badger football program. Additional information on Wisconsin football will be produced throughout the year by the Athletic Communications Office. We also encourage you to regularly check the department's Web site (UWBADGERS.com) to get updated information on the team. Our staff looks forward to working with you this fall.

Interview Requests

All regular-season Badger practices, including Friday walk-throughs, are closed to the media. Interviews are conducted as follows:

Bielema Interviews

Head coach Bret Bielema holds a weekly media conference Mondays at 12:30 p.m. during the fall. Those sessions are live video-streamed on UWBADGERS.com. Bielema's comments are available on UWBADGERS.com late Monday afternoon as both a video archive and a transcript.

Additionally, Bielema is available every Tuesday from 11:50-noon CT on the Big Ten Teleconference.

Assistant Coach Interviews

Wisconsin assistant coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays (offense) and Wednesdays (defense) in the lower level of the McClain Center. If you wish to arrange a phone interview with an assistant coach during the week, contact Brian Lucas in the Athletic Communications Office at (608) 263-5052.

Player Interviews

Badger players can be interviewed during the week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice (approximately 6 p.m.) in the lower level of the McClain Center outside of the Wisconsin locker room area. Offensive players will be available on Tuesdays and defensive players on Wednesdays. Three or four selected players are also available on Sunday evenings.

Phone calls by players to out-of-town media are made at the players' convenience between 7:30-10 p.m. CT on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Interviews should be arranged through Rudy Nigl or Erin Starck of the Athletic Communications Office at (608) 262-1811. Home numbers will not be made available to the media, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the Athletic Communications staff.

Ordering Phone Lines

Several courtesy phone lines (credit card and collect calls only) on level eight of the press box are available on a first-come, first-served basis for the news media. News organizations requiring their own phones should call Dominic Osterhaus at (608) 265-8546 or email him at do3@athletics.wisc.edu to order lines.

Wireless Access

Wireless access is available, free of charge, to media working inside Camp Randall Stadium (includes the press box and south end zone media room). See Justin Doherty or Brian Lucas of the athletic communications staff to receive a password.

Credential Guidelines

Evjue Communications Center & Sideline Passes

Requests for 2007 Wisconsin football credentials (print, electronic and parking) must be made online. Contact the Wisconsin Athletic Communications Office for instructions.

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and reporters on assignment. Credentials must be prominently displayed on the field level. Media cannot work between the 25-yard lines as recommended by the NCAA in its game management manual.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits. Those passes which cannot be mailed will be left with the parking attendant (white vehicle) at the entrance of Lot 17 on Engineering Drive (north end of the Stadium).

Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities: 1) TV and radio stations originating a live broadcast; 2) national publications, newspapers filing for the following day's publication and news outlets designated by the visiting SID; 3) TV and radio stations covering for nightly news; and 4) other requests, which will be evaluated on a space-available basis. Spouses, friends, non-workers and children are not allowed in the media areas as dictated by the NCAA. Anyone violating these standards will be denied credentials to future games.

Satellite Trucks

For news organizations that send a satellite truck to cover a game at Camp Randall Stadium, please contact Barry Fox (Director of Facilities) prior to arrival. His phone number is (608) 262-3631. Extremely limited parking (for the satellite vehicle only) is available at the southwest corner of the stadium near the Athletic Operations Building. The electrician who can assist with powering up is Ed Walsh (cell: 608-235-8552).

IMPORTANT DATES TO REMEMBER

Preseason fall practice is held at Camp Randall Stadium.

July 31-August 1	Big Ten Media Day & Kickoff Luncheon, Chicago, Ill.
August 5	105 players report to Camp Randall Stadium
August 6	First full team practice at Camp Randall Stadium
TBA	MEDIA DAY, Camp Randall Stadium
August 19	Badger Football Family Fun Day, Camp Randall Stadium
TBA	Last day of camp at Camp Randall Stadium
Sept. 1	Season opener at home vs. Washington State
Sept. 4	First day of classes at UW-Madison

Gameday Services

Media Services

Facilities for the working media are located on the seventh and eighth levels of the press box. Flipcards, notes and game programs are delivered to each working location prior to kickoff. A full statistics packet will be available after the game in the press box. Final packets will be distributed in the McClain Center weight room and media room on the south end of the stadium once they are completed.

Final Statistics Packets

Final game statistics are immediately available after the game at UWBADGERS.com. If you would like, a .pdf document of the final stat package can be emailed following the game. UW Athletic Communications will not fax any statistics post-game.

Post-game Interview Procedures

With approximately five minutes left in the game, media members will be escorted to the interview areas by Athletic Communications staff. Bret Bielema holds his post-game media conference on the first floor of the McClain Center. The session is for credentialed news media only. Bielema's media conference is live video streamed on UWBADGERS.com.

After Bielema's session, requested Wisconsin players are available for interviews in the McClain Center weight room (lower level). Assistant coaches are not available following games. The Wisconsin locker room is closed to the media.

The opposing head coach is available for interviews in the Media Room under the stands at the south end of the stadium.

Professional Scouts

Scouting Tickets & Parking

Per the Big Ten's policy, professional scouts must purchase tickets through the UW Ticket Office at 608-262-1440. Press box passes are not available for scouts. You can fax your request to (608) 265-4931.

Weekly Schedule

Contact the Athletic Communications Office for confirmation of practice schedules. The typical weekly schedule during the regular season is:

Day	Practice	Interviews

The Source for Badger Sports Information

UWBADGERS.COM
The Official Website of University of Wisconsin Athletics

The Department of Athletics has made a strong commitment to bringing its news straight to the fans. The Badgers' Web site (UWBADGERS.com) produces news updates multiple times daily to keep fans up-to-speed on the happenings in the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Web users can tune in for live video streaming of media news conferences, chat with coaches, staff and student-athletes, order tickets online or listen to live radio broadcasts of games.

The Badger Web site is maintained internally by a dedicated team of technical experts and an experienced editorial staff.

The Athletic Department site is the most visited one on the UW-Madison campus, averaging nearly 4.4 million page views monthly.

Visitors from all over the United States and the world (an average of 119 different countries monthly) continue to log on to catch the latest Badger athletics news and those visitors are staying at the site longer and longer.

In the summer of 2006 the Department of Athletics unveiled a re-design of its Web site, making it easier to navigate, more pleasing to the eye and a worthwhile journey for those who want the latest information on the Badgers.

New features are constantly being added and the site is continually being refined, so check back often!

Coach Bret Bielema's news conferences can be viewed live on UWBADGERS.com.

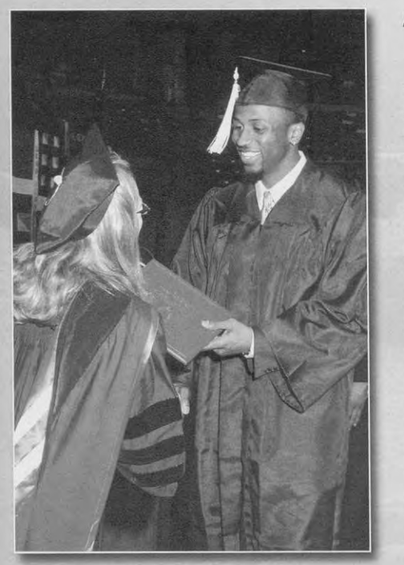
A World Class University



Alando Tucker, the 2007 Big Ten Men's Basketball Player of the Year and a first-team All-American, receives his diploma at graduation ceremonies.

The University of Wisconsin is a world-class university, nationally and internationally recognized for its academic excellence, incredible students, inspiring faculty, exceptional value and an amazing campus and community.

The UW was founded in 1848 with the first class of 17 students enrolling on February 5, 1849. Today, Wisconsin ranks as the nation's ninth largest university with 41,466 students (28,462 undergraduates).

On a single campus, students can find a complete spectrum of liberal arts studies, professional programs and student activities. As one of the nation's first land-grant universities, Wisconsin maintains a strong research emphasis in agricultural and life sciences. Award-winning research spanning the academic disciplines, however, has earned Wisconsin a place among the world's elite institutions of higher education. The quality of its undergraduate, graduate and research programs is recognized around the world.

Students can also take advantage of opportunities to study abroad, participate in honors programs, complete an internship, conduct hands-on research and take service-learning courses.

The flagship school of the state system, UW–Madison offers the only public schools of law, medicine and veterinary medicine in the state and is one of only two state-supported schools to offer doctoral degrees.

One of the most picturesque college campuses in the country, Wisconsin sits along the shore of beautiful Lake Mendota. The city of Madison and the university were designed to be linked, signifying the interrelated nature of academic and political life at Wisconsin.

Growing with the times to meet changing needs in education and research has kept the university great. With an eye to the future, the university continues to change, guaranteeing a community and environment where true learning can take place.

Student Life

Student life at Wisconsin is more than books, term papers and exams. Some of the most important lessons learned at Wisconsin occur far from any lecture hall or lab.

UW–Madison is a community that embraces diversity—both in the people who live, learn and work here, and in the experiences that enrich life in the classroom and beyond. Our students come from every state in the nation and some 134 countries, bringing an abundant mix of life experiences and cultures. The campus provides services and student life programs designed to meet a broad range of student needs and concerns.

More than 750 student organizations, extensive recreational programs, modern fitness facilities, performing arts groups, Big Ten athletics, and ongoing cultural, social, and political events will provide you with hundreds of ways to get involved and challenge yourself. Whatever your interests, you can connect with others who share your enthusiasm.

The hub of student life on campus is the Memorial Union. With good food, live music, freshly made Babcock ice cream, movies and study lounges, you can eat well, be entertained, enjoy a good book or good company. The Union welcomes more than 15,000 students through its doors each day. It's no wonder the Union is considered the "living room of campus."

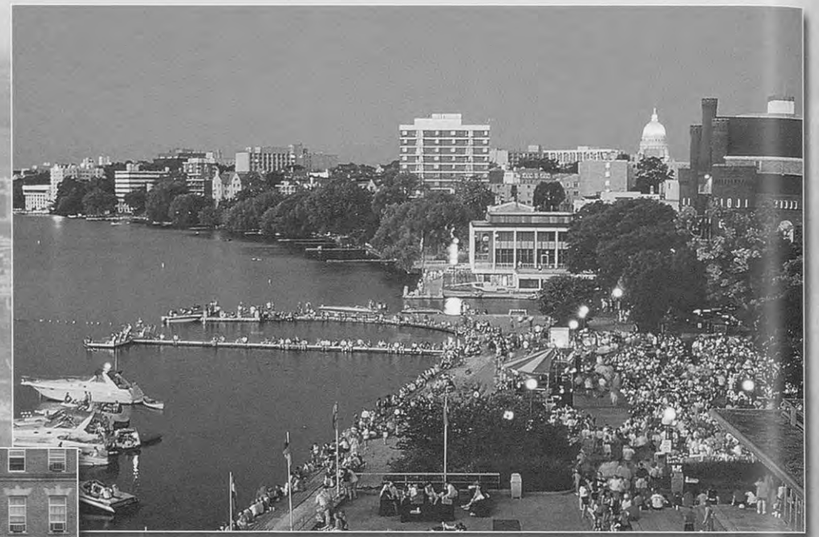
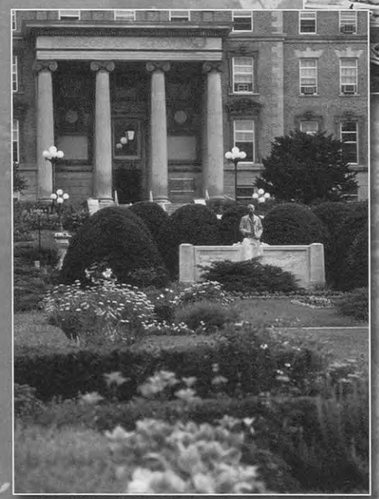
A Beautiful Campus



The Memorial Union Terrace is a favorite gathering place of students.



The University of Wisconsin campus rolls for 933 acres along the shores of Lake Mendota, encompassing wooded hills, friendly shores, and the streets of downtown Madison.

Relax on the Memorial Union terrace with sailboats, canoes, sailboards, and kayaks in the background. The Lakeshore Path is a pedestrian and bicycle-only trail that runs from the Union to Picnic Point, a peninsula that juts out into Lake Mendota. Along the way are numerous beaches or spots to stop and enjoy the beautiful lake views.

Spend an hour alone with your thoughts walking the trails of the UW Arboretum, a 1,262-acre nature preserve right in the middle of the city. Or visit Wisconsin's majestic State Capitol building only minutes away from campus.

And if ever you find yourself with a free afternoon, you may wish to enjoy lunch or a latté with friends at one of the many restaurants lining State Street in the heart of downtown Madison.

Chancellor John D. Wiley

Chancellor John D. Wiley has more than four decades of experience with the University of Wisconsin-Madison, having been a graduate student, a professor, and an administrator during his illustrious university career. Assuming office on January 1, 2001, he is the 27th person to lead the university since its founding in 1848.

As UW–Madison's chief executive officer, Wiley is responsible for the overall vision and direction of the university. A prominent figure in higher education, he chairs both the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors and the board for the Council on Higher Education Accreditation, and is a member of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Committee. He also serves on several local and community boards, including the William T. Evjue Foundation and the Greater Madison Chamber of Commerce. He also has been deeply involved in fundraising from individual and corporate donors and charitable foundations.

From 1994–2000, Wiley served as UW–Madison's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs. In this role as the university's chief operating officer and deputy chancellor, he worked closely with deans, faculty, academic staff, and student committees in the exercise of shared governance and the overall management of the institution. Prior to becoming provost, he was dean of the Graduate School and the university's senior research officer, and from 1986–89, he served as associate dean for research in the College of Engineering.

Wiley received his bachelor's degree in physics from Indiana University in 1964. He attended graduate school at UW–Madison as a National Science Foundation Fellow, receiving master's and doctoral degrees in physics in 1965 and 1968, respectively. He joined the technical staff of Bell Telephone Laboratories at Murray Hill, N.J., from 1968–74, and then spent a year at the Max Planck Institute in Stuttgart, Germany as an awardee of the Alexander von Humboldt Senior U.S. Service Award for Research and Training.

Joining the UW–Madison faculty in the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering in August 1975, Wiley began a productive career in teaching and research, focusing on topics related to semiconductors and other materials and processes important to the electronics field. He is a co-founder of several highly successful research centers, including the Center for X-ray Lithography and the Engineering Research Center for Plasma-Aided Manufacturing. From 1982–86, he chaired the Materials Science Program, a graduate-level, interdepartmental-committee program for master's and doctoral degrees.

Chancellor Wiley congratulated the men's track and field team on winning the NCAA Indoor Championship in 2007.

The primary purpose of the University of Wisconsin–Madison is to provide a learning environment in which faculty, staff and students can discover, examine critically, preserve and transmit the knowledge, wisdom and values that will help ensure the survival of this and future generations and improve the quality of life for all. The university seeks to help students to develop an understanding and appreciation for the complex cultural and physical worlds in which they live and to realize their highest potential of intellectual, physical and human development.

UW Mission Statement

Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez

Barry Alvarez is in his fourth year as Director of Athletics at the University of Wisconsin and second without the additional title of head football coach. Alvarez, who began his career as athletic director in April of 2004, served as athletic director and football coach in 2004–05 and in 2005–06.

Alvarez's first year as Director of Athletics (without the football duties) was a memorable one as Wisconsin won four national titles (men's cross country, men's and women's hockey and women's lightweight rowing) during the 2005–06 athletic campaign. The Badgers also won five conference titles.

The UW maintained its winning ways in 2006-07 with the men's track and field team winning its first NCAA title. The women's hockey team repeated as NCAA champions as Wisconsin finished 16th in the Directors' Cup rankings.

Badger student-athletes also showed their capabilities off the field of play during the fall of 2007 when they registered the highest cumulative grade point average for a fall term in department history. Thirteen teams also finished with record high grade point averages for either the fall or spring semester.

Alvarez guided Wisconsin's football fortunes for 16 seasons (1990–2005). He has been at the forefront of the revival of the Badger athletic program during his entire tenure in Madison. He piloted Wisconsin to three Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles (including back-to-back in 1998–99) en route to becoming the winningest football coach in school history (118-73-4 record).

Alvarez was just the 10th coach in Big Ten history to win 100 games at one conference institution. His 8-3 (.727) record in bowl games with the Badgers is the best in college football history (among coaches with at least 11 bowl appearances). The 2004 AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year, he also was the 1993 national coach of the year, a two-time (1993 and 1998) Big Ten coach of the year and a finalist for ESPN's coach of the decade (1990s) honor.

Alvarez is a 1969 graduate of the University of Nebraska, where he played linebacker and went on to earn his master's degree. He received a Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater in 2003.

Alvarez and his wife Cindy are co-campaign chairs in the effort to bring a Gilda's Club, a free support center for families dealing with cancer, to Madison. Alvarez also serves on the board of directors for the MACC Fund (Mideast Athletes Against Childhood Cancer).

Alvarez and his wife are the parents of three children—daughters Dawn (Mrs. Brad Ferguson) and Stacy (Mrs. Mike Delzer); son Chad (wife Stephanie). Barry and Cindy are grandparents to Joe and Jake Ferguson; Grace and Jackson Delzer; and Scarlet and Barry John Thomas Alvarez.

Senior Staff

Senior Associate Shawn M. Eichorst

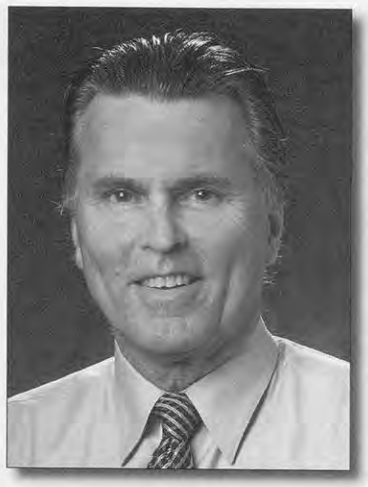
Shawn M. Eichorst is in his second year as senior associate athletic director. Eichorst's responsibilities include oversight of men's basketball, academic services, compliance, legal and contractual matters as well as liaison with UW campus administration, the Athletic Board, the Big Ten Conference and state government.

Eichorst came to the UW from South Carolina where he served as the athletic department's chief administrative officer for two years as well as serving as interim athletic director in June of 2005. Eichorst previously served as the director of athletics at UW–Whitewater from June of 1999 through December of 2003. Under his leadership, UW–Whitewater developed into one of the nation's top Division III athletic programs.

He serves on the Executive Committee of the Sports Management Institute and is a past member of the NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committee. Eichorst is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and is a past member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors.

Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, three-time letterwinner and 1990 team captain for the UW–Whitewater football team. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW–Whitewater in 1990 and earned a law degree from Marquette in 1995. He also is a graduate of the Sports Management Institute.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst and his wife, Kristin, have three sons: Jack, Joseph and Bennett.



Senior Associate Vince Sweeney

Vince Sweeney, senior associate athletic director for external relations, has been part of the UW Athletic Department's administrative team for 17 years. He oversees marketing and promotions, ticketing, communications, Web site services, technical services and video services and also serves as the department liaison with Learfield Communications and Badger Sports Properties, the Big Ten Network, the National W Club, UW Trademark Licensing, Bucky's Locker Room and adidas.

Sweeney joined the UW in 1990 as the director of trademark licensing and in 1991 was named the director of marketing and promotions. Sweeney was promoted to associate athletic director for external relations in 1994 and to senior associate athletic director in 2003. Prior to joining the UW, Sweeney worked for 13 years in sports journalism as an award-winning reporter and editor.

In addition to serving on the Board of Directors of the Greater Madison Convention and Visitors Bureau, Sweeney is a past board member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators. He also has served as a member of the NCAA's subcommittee on Basketball Marketing and as consulting editor for Collegiate Sports Marketing. In 2005, Sweeney's first book was published: Always A Badger: The Pat Richter Story.

Sweeney was named the 1994 "Marketer of the Year" by the Madison Chapter of the American Marketing Association, and his department earned two Awards of Excellence from Athletics Management magazine in 1995.

He and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters, Kelsey and Keara.

Associate Director John Chadima

John Chadima has served as the department's associate athletic director for operations since 2003. He is in charge of managing capital projects, and supervising the facilities, maintenance, equipment and strength and conditioning staffs. He also is the department liaison with University Ridge Golf Course and has administrative oversight of the football, men's and women's golf and wrestling programs.

Chadima was previously the director of football operations (1990–97 and 2000–03) and he was responsible for coordinating team travel, scheduling, preseason training camp, the summer jobs program and maintaining the sport's multi-million dollar budget. He was the school's director of facilities and events (1997–2000) in between assignments with the football team.

Chadima has a bachelor's degree (1988) in physical education with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa. He also studied in the master's programs (for athletic administration) at both Iowa and Wisconsin.

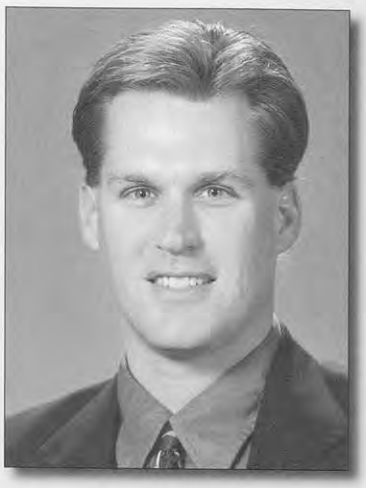
Associate Director Terry Gawlik

Terry Gawlik was promoted to associate athletic director for sports administration in 2005 after serving seven years as assistant athletic director for sports administration.

Gawlik serves as the department's senior woman administrator and oversees women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's track and volleyball.

Prior to becoming an athletic director, Gawlik served as an administrative assistant and event coordinator from 1994–98, supervising game-day operations, post-season tournaments and booster club events for men's and women's basketball and volleyball, as well as assisting with marketing and promotions.

A 1981 graduate of Southwestern University with a bachelor's degree in physical education and English, Gawlik earned her master's in physical education and educational administration from Texas State University in 1983. She resides in Middleton with her husband, Dan.



Associate Director John Jentz

John Jentz, who came to the UW–Madison in 2000 as an assistant athletic director for sports administration, was named the department's assistant athletic director for athletic business operations in 2003. He was promoted to associate director in 2006. Jentz is in charge of the day-to-day operations of the business office while also overseeing video services, bowl and post-season travel as well as men's and women's rowing.

The Green Bay native was an assistant athletic director at Cal State Fullerton for four years prior to returning to the Badger state. At Fullerton, Jentz supervised eight sports and oversaw the athletic business office, ticket office, and championships for the Titans.

Prior to Fullerton, he was an accountant in the business office at UC–Riverside. He later managed development funds and also coordinated several athletic events, including the NCAA Division II Track and Field Championship.

Jentz began his administrative career at East Stroudsburg University where he supervised the ticket operations and event staffing while earning his master's degree (1993). A 1992 graduate of Brigham Young, John and his wife, Nancy, have five daughters: Kristy, Marin, Emma, Serena and Lindsay.

Associate Director Marija Pientka

Marija Pientka, who has directed the operations of the Badger Fund since its inception, was promoted to associate athletic director for development in 2006. She joined the development staff for Intercollegiate Athletics in 1998. In addition to overseeing the department's fundraising and development activities, including the Badger Fund, she also supervises men's and women's tennis and the spirit squad and serves as the liaison with the Wisconsin Alumni Association.

Pientka oversees all phases of the fundraising program. She also serves on the Board of Directors for the Madison Chapter of the Executive Women's Golf Association and previously served on the board of directors for the National W Club.

A graduate of the UW with a bachelor's degree in journalism, Pientka was a Badger tennis All-American and four-time All-Big Ten selection. She earned Academic All-Big Ten honors three years and currently ranks seventh in career singles wins and third in career doubles wins.

Pientka is married to Jim Pientka and she has two stepchildren, Jack (8) and Jessica (5).

A Winning Athletic Program

In 2006–07, the University of Wisconsin continued its winning ways, claiming two NCAA championships. The Badgers also added two individual national titles and won four conference crowns.

Wisconsin won the 2007 NCAA Indoor Men's Track & Field Championship, crowning the first national title for a UW track and field team. The title was also the first-ever for a Big Ten Conference team.

Senior Chris Solinsky earned two individual national titles in 2007. He won the 5,000 meters at the NCAA indoor championships and claimed his second consecutive title in the 5,000 meters at the NCAA outdoor championships.

The women's hockey team became the first UW program to repeat as NCAA champions since 1985 when it won the 2007 title. The Badgers claimed their second straight title, becoming the third school to repeat at national champions.

Wisconsin also won Big Ten titles in men's cross country, men's indoor track and field and men's outdoor track and field as well as the WCHA title in women's hockey.

Five UW programs also set records for most wins in a season—men's basketball (30), women's basketball (23), football (12), women's hockey (36) and wrestling (19).

Attendance Leaders

Badger fans are some of the best in the nation and they annually show it by supporting their teams. Wisconsin is the only NCAA Division I school in the nation that has six sports that rank in the NCAA's top 20 for home attendance.

The UW has earned much national recognition for its college spirit including being named the "Best College Sports Town" by Sports Illustrated on Campus.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP HOSTS

Since 1993, the UW has hosted six NCAA championships and one NCAA men's basketball regional. Madison will also be the site of a hockey regional in 2008.

The Badgers played host to the NCAA Men's Ice Hockey Frozen Four in 1993, 1997 and 2006. All three events were sell-outs including the 2006 crowd that saw Wisconsin win the national title.

Wisconsin played host to the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship in 1993 and 1998. The Badgers shattered the attendance records for the championship match and two-day event both years.

The UW was also the site of the 1998 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship. The event was the first national championship held at University Ridge Golf Course and the first women's championship shown live on national television.

The NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament came to Wisconsin in 2002 when the Badgers played host to a regional in the Kohl Center.

Wisconsin Traditions

Badger Nickname

The nickname "Badgers" was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin, which was dubbed the "Badger State." The name didn't come from the animals in the region, but rather from an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like Badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bucky Badger

Although badgers in various forms had been the University of Wisconsin mascot for decades, the version that is currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by professional illustrator Art Evans.

In 1949, a student wore a badger outfit with a papier-mâché head at the homecoming game. A pep rally was held to determine the mascot's name—Buckingham U. Badger.

Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've said it all," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karen for Budweiser beer commercials. The song has become legendary at the UW because of its polka-like rhythm.

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer the band as it plays traditional favorites like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song.

On, Wisconsin

The tune was composed in 1909 by William Purdy, with the words written by UW alumnus Carl Beck, who rewrote them in 1951. Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs.

Hall of Fame

The UW Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1991 to recognize and honor former student-athletes and staff for their exemplary athletic achievement and contributions to the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department.

SCHOOL SONGS

On, Wisconsin

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time.
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame.
Fight fellows, Fight! Fight! Fight!
We'll win this game!

Varsity

Var-sity! Var-sity!
U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee we sing
Praise to thee our alma mater

This is the Big Ten Conference

BIG TEN CONFERENCE™
www.bigten.org

The Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 world-class universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place within the mission.

Founded in 1896, the Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics in student-athletes' lives and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness. Big Ten universities provide approximately $94 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,400 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women. Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams.

Big Ten Universities

• are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.

• have more than four million living alumni and over 300,000 undergraduate students attending Big Ten universities.

• house on their campuses 10 of the nation's 35 largest academic libraries. Collectively, conference libraries hold nearly 70 million bound volumes and the institutions work collaboratively to build and share their resources with other league members.

Big Ten Athletics

• Over the past two years, the Big Ten has reached a series of milestone media agreements to provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever, including extensions with CBS (for basketball) and ABC/ESPN (for football, basketball and volleyball) and the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. The Big Ten Network operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year since it launched in August of 2007. It will showcase a wide array of sports as well as original programming produced by conference institutions and represents a 20-year partnership between the Big Ten and Fox. The conference's new media agreements will result in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally beginning with the 2007–08 academic year, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

• Since 1992, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams.

• The NCAA collects two types of graduation rates—the federal graduation rate, which accounts for all entering freshmen who receive aid and graduate within six years, and the Graduation Success Rate (GSR), which reflects the mobility of student-athletes by accounting for transfers. Based on the most recent federal graduation rate average for the 1996–99 entering freshmen classes, Big Ten student-athletes graduated at 71 percent. In comparison, the student body at conference institutions graduated at 73 percent while all Division I student-athletes graduated at 62 percent. The Big Ten's GSR was 82 percent compared to the Division I average of 77 percent.

• The Big Ten recognized 2,018 Academic All-Big Ten honorees during the 2006–07 academic year, the highest total in the last decade. Over the past five years, the Conference has annually acknowledged more than 1,800 student-athletes as Academic All-Conference honorees.

BIG TEN NETWORK

Launched in August 2007, the Big Ten Network is dedicated to covering the Big Ten Conference and its 11 member institutions.

The Big Ten Network will provide unprecedented access to an extensive schedule of conference sports events and shows; original programs in academics, the arts and sciences; campus activities; and associated personalities. Sports programming will include live coverage of more major men's and women's events than ever before, along with news, highlights and analysis, all complemented by hours of university-produced campus programming.

The network is available to all cable and satellite carriers and television distributors nationwide, with most programs offered in stunning high-definition television. The Big Ten Network is a joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks.

BIG TEN NETWORK™

• The Big Ten claimed seven team national championships during the 2006–07 season, just one shy of the conference record of eight national titles established during the 1955–56 campaign, while also finishing as the runner-up in five other sports. The Big Ten has earned at least four national crowns in eight of the last 10 seasons. Big Ten national champions in 2006–07 included Michigan State men's ice hockey, Minnesota wrestling, Northwestern women's lacrosse, Penn State fencing and men's gymnastics and Wisconsin women's ice hockey and men's indoor track and field. The conference has also produced team national crowns in the sports of basketball, cross country, field hockey, football, golf, soccer, softball, synchronized swimming, tennis and volleyball over the last decade.

• Big Ten Conference schools are among the national attendance leaders in football, men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball. During 2006–07, more than 8.7 million fans attended Big Ten home contests in those sports.

A Great College Town

Welcome to Madison! You will discover the best of all worlds in Wisconsin's vibrant capital city: natural beauty and outdoor recreation, stimulating cultural offerings, distinctive restaurants and shops, and a spirit of fun.

Madison is consistently ranked by national publications and their readers as one of the best places to live, work and play. As host to a wealth of cultural offerings, intellectual pursuits and recreational opportunities, Wisconsin's capital rivals the urban sophistication of larger metropolitan areas, while maintaining the ease, convenience and friendliness of a smaller community.

Built on an isthmus between lakes Monona and Mendota, Madison is also renowned for its beautiful four-season scenery. A total of five area lakes, more than 200 parks and endless miles of paved trails provide an abundance of year-round outdoor activities, from hiking, biking, swimming and sailing to cross-country skiing, ice skating and ice fishing.

Throughout the year, the area welcomes a multitude of exciting annual events like April's Wisconsin Film Festival featuring more than 100 experimental and independent films, July's Art Fair on the Square, a favorite summer event that draws 200,000 attendees and 500 exhibitors, and September's Ironman Wisconsin Triathlon, a grueling and inspiring race held in Madison and its outlying areas. In addition to these signature events, the area is home to the Dane County Farmers' Market, one the nation's most recognized open-air farmers' markets, and is host to many outdoor summertime concerts, eclectic street fairs, ethnic festivals and sporting competitions.

Greater Madison also boasts a large number of live music venues, resident theater groups and visual art centers, lending the area an urban sophistication and cultural arts reputation usually reserved for larger metropolitan areas. The Madison area also offers a rich array of restaurants and shopping opportunities to suit almost any taste and budget.

We invite you to discover all that Madison has to offer and see for yourself that Madison truly has one of the most scenic downtown areas in the Midwest. Visit the majestic Capitol building, tour the Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired Monona Terrace® Community and Convention Center, attend a performance at Overture Center for the Arts or enjoy the fragrant surroundings of Olbrich Botanical Gardens. Venture out in any direction from the heart of the city to experience even more of the Madison area— where bookstores, coffeehouses, movie theaters, shopping malls and restaurants await you. Within just a short drive from Madison, nestled among the rolling green hills, you'll encounter dozens of fascinating attractions and picturesque main street towns.

Whatever your preference for relaxation or recreation, you'll find plenty to do in Madison.

Did You Know?

▶ Madison is one of only a few cities in the world built on an isthmus. Downtown Madison is set on a narrow strip of land between two glacial lakes—Lake Mendota and Lake Monona. A total of five area lakes, plus more than 250 parks and 120 miles of designated bike routes within the city limits provide an abundance of year-round outdoor activities, from hiking, biking, swimming and sailing to cross-country skiing, ice skating, and ice fishing.

▶ The Wisconsin State Capitol is the city's signature landmark. No building in Madison may be built higher than the 284-foot white granite dome of the Capitol, which is modeled after our nation's Capitol.

▶ State Street, a one-mile pedestrian mall linking the Capitol Square to the beautiful lakeside campus of the University of Wisconsin, is lined with diverse ethnic eateries, eclectic boutiques, galleries, coffeehouses and more.

▶ Famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright spent his childhood years in Madison and returned to live in the area at the height of his international fame. The Madison area is home to a generous selection of Wright-designed buildings.

Wisconsin: Life's So Good

Wisconsin, located in America's heartland, is a four-season travel destination offering both urban and rural vacations. Ranked a top travel spot in the United States, Wisconsin owes much of its popularity to its natural beauty, with two Great Lakes, Superior and Michigan, and the world's most famous river, the Mississippi, as well as 15,000 inland lakes.

Forty percent of the state is forested land, with 43 state parks and 11 state forests providing plenty of outdoor recreation. Wisconsin has also been described as having the best natural golf course landscape in the country.

In spring and summer, travelers enjoy water-related activities, including fishing, sailing and canoeing. Fall is the time for "colorama," when the leaves turn colors and the entire state offers spectacular scenic touring. Winter features ample cross-country and downhill skiing, festivals, sled dog races, sleigh rides and snowmobiling.
